PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAMS FOR 3rd QUARTER 2015
More Detailed Information about the Public Affairs Programs

July 1, 2015 through September 30, 2015

“Sunday Morning Magazine” cart #491030

July 5, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Economy, Education and Environment.

Guests: David Cox the President and CEO of Goodwill Industries Fort Worth and Cheryl Sutterfield Jones the President and CEO of the Frontiers of Flight Museum in Dallas.

Topic: David Cox talked about the great work that Goodwill Industries does here in North Texas to help people with special needs and disabilities find employment. Their slogan “Changing Lives through the Power of Work.” We talked about how many people think Goodwill is only about their Thrift Shop and that the only time they think about Goodwill is when they are cleaning out their house and want to make donations to Goodwill but the organization does so much more teaming up with local companies to provide opportunities for people in need. Programs include the North Texas Institute for Career Development, and we talked about the Northeast Tarrant Business Opportunities Center and Computer Works. We also talked about the work that Goodwill is doing to help local veterans thru Operation Good Jobs. : Cheryl Sutterfield Jones joined me to talk about the upcoming Moon Day at the nonprofit Frontiers of Flight Museum in Dallas marking the anniversary of the landing on the moon. Moon Day at the museum will feature several educational hands on exhibits for kids and adults alike. The event is in collaboration with the National Space Society of North Texas. Cheryl talked about the importance of promoting space education and science at a time when the American Education system is lagging behind other countries in the so called STEM Education. We also talked about the programs that the museum has year round for kids and adults including space camp and flight school

July 12, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Child Abuse Prevention, Economy, Education, Crime Prevention and Awareness and Volunteering.

Guests: Kathleen La Valle the Executive Director and President of Dallas CASA and Bob Borson a Dallas Architect who volunteers with CASA .

Topic: Kathleen La Valle and Bob Borson joined me to talk about the great work that Dallas CASA, Court Appointed Special Advocates, does in our area to help victims of child abuse. Currently CASA is seeking volunteers to help abused children since half of the children in protective care in North Texas do not have an advocate. On average every day in North Texas nearly 5 kids enter the foster care system after being removed from their home due to abuse and neglect and it is the CASA volunteers who are trained to make recommendation to help judges decide what is in the best interest of the child and the family. Bob talked about his work as a volunteer and the impact it has had on his life and he also promoted the Parade of Playhouses an event that is taking place at North Park Center in Dallas that features some pretty incredible children’s playhouses that are for sale to benefit Dallas CASA.

July 19, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Economy and Education Issues.

Guests: Texas Comptroller Glenn Hegar and Colleen Walker the CEO of the Perot Museum of Nature and Science.

Topic: Texas Comptroller Glen Hegar joined me to talk about the state’s program to help people find unclaimed property. Right now the state of Texas has more than 25 million properties from forgotten bank accounts, uncashed checks, overpayments, refunds and more with about four billion dollars in missing money waiting to be claimed. We also talked about the state of the Texas economy and job opportunities that are coming to North Texas. Colleen Walker joined me to talk about a new program being offered by the Perot Museum of Nature and Science targeted at classroom teachers called the Kosmos Energy Stem Teacher Institute. The goal of the program is to empower teachers in North Texas is science instruction so that they can inspire kids to pursue science and math careers.

July 26, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues, Economy and Education.

Guests: Tom Hayden with the Dallas Independent School District's Community Relations and Communications Department and Gary Huddleston the Director of Consumer Affairs for Kroger.

Topic: As parents and kids get ready for back to school Tom Hayden with the Dallas Independent School District and Gary Huddleston joined me to talk about our station's Back to School Supply Drive for needy families in North Texas. Tom talked about the importance of helping kids who may not be able to afford back to school supplies because their families are already barely making it month to month with rent, car insurance and buying groceries. Gary Huddleston talked about outreach efforts by his company to help schools in North Texas and how communities and neighborhoods need to do their part to volunteer to help out their area school districts especially now that the economic state of our country has forced so many school districts to cut funding to programs.

August 2, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Health Issues, Education, Arts Education and Economy.

Guests: Amy Spawn the Executive Director of the Warren Center, Michael Jenkins the CEO of Dallas Summer Musicals and Dionne Kennedy the President of Performing Arts Fort Worth.

Topic: Amy Spawn joined me to talk about the work that the Warren Center does in our area to help children with developmental differences and delays. Amy talked about the services and programs they provide to not only the children but to the families as well through support groups. We also promoted the Warren's Center's Fantasy Football Draft Night which is coming up at the end of the month at AT&T stadium in Arlington to raise funds for the Warren Center and their programs. Michael Jenkins and Dionne Kennedy joined me to talk about the importance of an arts education and the programs that their nonprofits have in place to expose children and families to the arts. Michael talked about their program that helps at risk youth and gang members and Dionne talked about working with the school districts in Tarrant County to provide curriculums for arts education to teachers.

August 9, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Crime and Violence, Economy and Education

Guests: Christina Coultas the Senior Director of Community Collaboration for The Family Place and Courtney Butts the Program Director of the Family Place "Be Project."

Topic: Once again domestic violence is in the headlines as former NFL star Ray Rice who was accused of punching his then fiancée in an elevator tries to rehabilitate his image begging for forgiveness and asking to be signed by a new NFL team. The publicity surrounding the Rice case last year forced the NFL to change their policy when it comes to punishing those involved in domestic abuse. Christina and Courtney joined me to talk about the issue of domestic violence in our area and around the country and why something needs to be done to raise awareness and let people know that there is help available to them and their children. The ladies talked about the programs offered by the Family Place not just to victims but to the abusers as well. Courtney talked about her work in area schools to stop bullying and to educate teens about dating violence and how to protect themselves and report. We also promoted the upcoming Trailblazers Luncheon that will benefit the Family Place their programs and the Family Place shelter.

August 16, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Crime and Violence, Mental Health Issues and Education

Guest: Monika Korra the author of the book "Kill the Silence" outlining Monika's rape while she was a student at SMU in Dallas.

Topic: With students getting ready to go back to school and the issue of rape on college campuses gaining attention due to the lack of programs available to help rape victims at area schools. Monika Korra a rape survivor joined me to talk about her attack while she was a student at SMU and how students can protect themselves. Monika talked working with law enforcement officials to make sure that her attackers were convicted. She also offered up tips to possible victims on what to do if they are attacked and the importance of reporting. She talked about ways that schools can make sure that attackers on campus are prosecuted.

August 23, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Health and Education

Guests: Rachel Branaman the Executive Director of Alley's House and Andrea McClain an Alley's House alum.

Topic: With school set to start I wanted to highlight the issue of teen pregnancy prevention and to also highlight the issue of educating teen moms. Rachel Branaman with Alley's House joined me to talk about the issue of teen pregnancy along with Alley's House alum Andrea McClain who was a teen mom who received help through Alley's House and graduated from high school and is now enrolled in College.. Rachel and Andrea talked about the realities of pregnant teens and their impact on the economy if they are not helped. We also talked about how Alley's House helps teen moms and their children through education and mentoring and how the teen moms go into schools to educate other teens about the difficulties they face and how the best decision is to wait before becoming a parent.. We also promoted the upcoming Alley's House Luncheon which will be held October 9th at the House of Blues in Dallas.

August 30, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Mental Health Issues, Crime and Violence, Economy and Education

Guest: Dr. John Burrus the Executive Director of Metrocare Services.

Topic: Experts say the stress of school, expectations and social media are putting more stress on today's college students and high school students creating a mental health crisis in our country and so to raise awareness of the issue of mental health and taking care of one's mental health as you do your physical health Dr. John Burrus with Metrocare joined me to offer up advice to parents and students on what to be on the look out for, triggers and signs that you may need help. Dr. Burrus also talked about the work that Metrocare Services does in North Texas to help those with mental health challenges. We also promoted the Meals for Minds Luncheon on September 24th that will benefit Metrocare.

September 6, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Criminal Justice System, Crime and Law Enforcement, Education and Economy

Guest: Richard Mills the founder of Miles of Freedom

Topic: This past week a 53 year old man in New York who had served 24 years for a murder conviction was exonerated and released from prison. Unfortunately this man's story is one of thousands in this country and Richard Mills of Dallas knows only too well what it feels like to be convicted of a crime you did not commit and also how difficult it is to establish a life outside of prison even if you were guilty of your crime. Richard is the founder of Miles of Freedom a nonprofit that helps men and women coming out of prison so that they can get their lives back on track. The nonprofit also helps families deal with the transition. Richard shared his story of being wrongfully convicted and how thanks to the Innocence Project he was exonerated and he talked about the criminal justice system in our county and ways that we can make sure that we are not sending innocent people to jail.

September 13, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Guests: Dr. Diana Kerwin an Alzheimer's Association Board member and Chief of Geriatrics at Texas Health Resources Hospital ,Veronica Shanklin from Dallas who is a caregiver for her mother and grandmother who both have Alzheimer's and Lara Collazo with St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

Topic: It is estimated that every 67 seconds someone in the US develops Alzheimer's and as someone who lost her mother to this horrific disease, I wanted to shine a light on the disease and also on the research being done to find a cure to Alzheimer's. Dr. Kerwin joined me to talk about what everyone should know about Alzheimer's like the signs and symptoms and preventive measures. We also talked about the different programs and services that the Alzheimer's Association of North Texas offers to those people living with Alzheimer's and also the programs for family members with a loved one with Alzheimer's. Veronica talked about her own personal journey as a caregiver for her mother and grandmother and how the Alzheimer's Association has helped her family. We also promoted the upcoming Walk to End Alzheimer's and talked about the research projects that the North Texas walks help to fund. Lara Collazo joined me to talk about the St. Jude Run Walk to end Childhood Cancers. September is Pediatric Cancer Awareness Month and on September 19th we will be out at the St. Jude event to raise funds for pediatric cancer research.

September 20, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Health, Education and Economy

Guest: Dr. John Carlo the Chief Executive Officer of AIDs ARMS of North Texas.

Topic: Our station is once again a presenting sponsor for the upcoming Lifewalk which will benefit AIDs ARMS and the work that they do here in North Texas to help those with HIV and AIDs. Dr. Carlo joined me to talk about the need for the entire community to understand that if you are sexually active, if you are having unprotected sex you are at risk of HIV and AIDs. So many of those who are newly diagnosed never thought they were at risk because they thought that this is a gay person's disease not thinking that if a spouse strays or a partner cheats you are at risk. Dr. Carlo talked about the programs offered by AIDs ARMS and we promoted the upcoming Lifewalk which will take place Sunday, October 4th, at Lee Park in Dallas.

September 27, 2015

KHKS Appearances and Events for non profits

Throughout the year KHKS helps promote morning show host Kidd Kraddick's non profit Kidd's Kids. The non profit helps send sick kids to Disney World every year. During the 3rd Quarter there were several restaurants who donated part of their proceeds to Kidd's Kids including Raising Cane's Chicken Fingers and Chili's Restaurants.

KHKS' Priscilla Kinkaid serves as the Assistant Director of the US Wounded Soldiers Foundation, a nonprofit whose mission is to provide for the needs of our combat veterans deployed in Iraq and Afghanistan. The foundation helps with clothing and toiletries and also helps out the Fisher House, which is similar to Ronald McDonald Houses, providing a place for military families to stay when they have a loved one in a military hospital.

On Wednesday July 22nd Anna de Haro, the Public Affairs Director for I Heart Media Dallas/Fort Worth, attended the 3rd Quarter Ascertainment Meeting hosted by Cumulus Radio's Greg Robertson. The purpose of the meeting was to ask community leaders what they consider to be the main issues and concerns of the North Texas community.

Donations

August 4, 2015

KISS FM hosted a "Feel Good" story on-air. Amanda Thomas is 35, single mom to Gage (15) going in to 10th grade at Flower Mound Marcus. Amanda has a rare form of Breast Cancer, "Triple Negative Stage 3 Metaplastic Carcinoma with chondrosarcoma", just had a double mastectomy a month and a half ago, just found out that it has spread - She has been labeled "terminal" but started aggressive chemo in hopes of fighting it off. She has 2 degrees- sports medicine and interior design, but is currently not working because of the chemo. She has filed for disability, but was told it could be October before it processes. Her friend Jennifer wrote in asking for help. KISS FM provided a back to school shopping spree ($1,000 worth of clothes from H&M and Dick's Sporting Goods). Billy The Kidd and the KISS FM crew still keep in touch with Amanda and have supported and encouraged her throughout her journey

September 18, 2015

106.1 KISS FM donated a guitar to Heartthrobs and Hound Dogs foundation. The organization was started because so often there is a misconception that shelter or rescue dogs are "broken", that something is "wrong" with them, or that they can't possibly be good enough to bring into your home, but that is so far from the truth. Because of this stereotype, I decided to start a project that would benefit not only the rescues involved, but also raise awareness that rescue dogs are just as attractive as designer breed dogs. Heartthrobs and Hound Dogs pairs adoptable dogs with "heartthrob" veterans to help bring rescue dogs to the attention of people everywhere. These rescue dogs deserve to be seen for their full potential and not be overlooked just because they didn't come from a breeder.

I Heart Media donated several items to the Texas Advocacy Project a nonprofit that provides legal counsel to victims of domestic violence. Among the donated items a pair of VIP tickets to Freaker's Ball featuring Marilyn Manson and The Cult, a pair of tickets to How the EDGE Stole Christmas featuring Of Monsters and Men, Panic! At the Disco and Sublime, 4 tickets to Six Flags Over Texas Fright Fest.
