PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAMS FOR 2nd QUARTER 2015

“Sunday Morning Magazine” cart #491030

April 1, 2015 through June 30, 2015

April 5, 2015
Aired 6:15am to 6:45am
30 minute program

Issues Covered: Mental Health Issues, Child Abuse and Parenting Skills.

Guests: Carol Lucky the CEO of The Child and Family Guidance Center in Dallas and Jennifer Williams the Center's Public Relations Manager.

Topic: With the recent crash of German Wings Flight 9525 which was caused by a pilot who was reportedly dealing with severe depression I wanted to highlight mental health issues and programs in North Texas aimed at helping those with mental health problems from severe depression to schizophrenia. Carol Lucky and Jennifer Williams joined me to talk about the programs offered by The Child and Family Guidance Center a North Texas nonprofit whose goal is to equip children, adults and families with the skills and resources needed to reduce the effects of mental illness, child abuse, family violence and high risk behaviors. Carol and Jennifer weighed in on signs that people should be on the look out for to protect loved ones and others from those dealing with mental health issues and we talked about the German Wings tragedy. We also talked about the programs offered by the Center for people dealing with anger management and their parenting classes as well.

April 12, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Child Abuse, Economy, Mental Health Issues and Crime & Violence.

Guests: Dan Leal with the Children's Advocacy Center of Denton County and Kevin Howell the founder of 411 Angel and a board member of the Children's Advocacy Center of Denton County.

Topic: April is Child Abuse Awareness Month and the community is asked to Stand Up for Children and educate themselves about child abuse so that if they suspect someone is being abused they can report it. Dan Leal and Kevin Howell talked about the work that the Children's Advocacy Center does in North Texas in conjunction with law enforcement agencies and how they help children who have been the victims of abuse. We also promoted the upcoming Academy of Country Music Motorcycle Rally which will be held on Saturday, April 18th in Carrollton. The event will benefit child abuse prevention programs like those offered by the Children's Advocacy Center.

April 19, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Economic issues and Financial Literacy

Guests: Todd Mark the Vice President of Education for Navicore Solutions a nonprofit that offers credit counseling and debt management solutions to those in need and Al James and Lauren Barros with the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of North Texas.

Topic: The month of April is Financial Literacy Month. It is a time to educate the public about what they need to know when it comes to debt management, budgets, purchasing a home and also how to stay in that home without going into foreclosure. Todd Mark joined me to talk about the services and programs offered by the nonprofit Navicore Solutions to those in need here in our area and how it is important for people to reach out for help before their debts get out of hand. We also talked about planning for financial goals like college or retirement. Al James and Lauren Barros joined me to talk about the Crohn's and Colitis Foundation of North Texas and their services and programs for those living with these diseases. Lauren shared her own story of living with Crohn's and how it has impacted her life. We also promoted the upcoming Crohn's and Colitis Walk in North Texas which will take place on Saturday, May 2nd.

April 26, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Economic Issues and Hunger Prevention

Guests: Colleen Brinkman with the North Texas Food Bank, Master Sgt. Bridget Sonsel and Coby Gray the Regional Vice President of Development for the Arthritis Foundation of North Texas.

Topic: Colleen Brinkman joined me to talk about the upcoming Taste of the NFL which will benefit the North Texas Food Banks summer food programs for kids. The school year is winding down and summer is a critical time for the food banks in our area since so many students who benefit from free breakfast and lunch programs will not be getting the meals that they normally do during the school year. Colleen talked about the reality of food insecurity in our area and how many people don't realize that this issue affects their friends and neighbors. We also discussed the many other programs offered by the food bank to help people including helping people who are being released from the prison system by teaching them skills to help them in the food industry. Master Sgt. Bridget Sonsel of Fort Worth and Coby Gray with the Arthritis Foundation of North Texas joined me to promote the upcoming Arthritis Walk which will help raise awareness about Arthritis and raise money for research and for the programs and services offered by the Foundation here in our area. Bridget was diagnosed with rheumatoid arthritis and she shared her story and also how many veterans who are returning from war zones are suffering from osteo arthritis because of the wear and tear on their joints from active service.

May 3, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Drug and Alcohol Abuse, Crime and Violence and Health issues.

Guests: Becky Vance and Carrie Stevens with the Collin County Substance Abuse Coalition, April Culver the Executive Director of Challenge Air DFW and Jess Thompson a volunteer with Challenge Air.

Topic: Recently there has been a push to legalize marijuana across the country with many states legalizing the drug for medicinal purposes and others as a revenue source but many in the Substance Abuse Prevention field feel like this is not good for our country and they want to highlight the impact that legalization can have on our youth since marijuana is considered a gateway drug to other more addictive drugs. Becky Vance and Carrie Stevens joined me to talk about the work that their organization does in our area to inform the community and to help people who are addicted to drugs and alcohol. They also promoted the upcoming forum that will take place in Frisco concerning designer drugs. The forum will feature keynote speaker Eric Brown who lost his son Montana to a designer drug overdose when Montana was a freshman at Frisco High School. April Culver and Jess Thompson joined me to talk about the work that Challenge Air DFW does to help kids with disabilities and with life threatening illnesses by introducing the children to aviation. Challenge Air gives children with special needs the gift of flight free of charge to the children and their families with young kids learning to fly from experience pilots.

divorce and who are fighting for custody or dealing with child support issues. Doug talked about putting the child first and working with mothers and extended family members to make sure that the father stays involved in their child's life and that there is no parental alienation taking place. He discussed legal issues that face fathers who are divorced and who do not have custody of their kids and the rights that every father should know about.

June 28, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Support for Military Veterans, Senior Citizens, Economic Issues and Housing.

Guest: Dennis Luellen the Executive Director for Rebuilding Together Greater Dallas

Topic: It is the Sunday before July 4th and as a way to honor the men and women who ensure our freedom by serving our country we highlighted a local organization doing what it can to help North Texas veterans. Dennis Luellen the Executive Director of Rebuilding Together Greater Dallas joined me to talk about the work that the non-profit does here in our area fixing and remodeling homes for veterans and for senior citizens who are unable to do so themselves. According to Dennis some of the homes need to be outfitted with handicapped ramps and other accessories to make the home more user friendly for the disabled. The organization recently teamed up with the Homes for Heroes program and is currently taking applications from veterans to have their home remodeled. The projects will begin on September 11th with 60 homes in 60 days for veterans and their families with the project culminating with a project being wrapped up on Veteran's Day.
