“Sunday Morning Magazine” cart #491030

July 2, 2017
Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Veterans Support and Mental Health Awareness for Veterans

Guests: Nekima Horton the President and CEO of the Veteran's Coalition of North Central Texas and Duane Davis, Fred Gregory and Ricardo Gomez veterans who work with VCNCT.

Topic: 4th of July week end in North Texas and as we celebrate our country's independence we are highlighting the work that the Veterans Coalition of North Central Texas does to support the men and women who have fought for our country. Nekima Horton joined me to talk about the work that VCNCT does to build bridges between local community resources, national resources and veterans and their families so that they can rebuild their lives in the aftermath of war. Nekima was joined by veterans Duane Davis, Fred Gregory and Ricardo Gomez who shared their stories of serving our country and the battles they faced when they returned to civilian life with mental health issues, searching for jobs and housing issues and other problems that are faced by veterans. We also promoted our company's Show Your Stripes campaign which helps connect employers looking to hire vets with vets in our area in need of employment.

July 9, 2016

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Law Enforcement Support and Child Abuse Prevention and support for children in Foster Care.

Guests: Kathleen La Valle the President and Executive Director of Dallas CASA and Audrea Lemons a CASA volunteer.

Topic: This week end marks the one year anniversary of the deadly rampage in downtown Dallas that claimed the lives of 5 police officers. We talked about the events taking place that will raise funds for the Fallen Officers fund as well as the issue of community policing and the need for police and the community to work together to make our neighborhoods safer. Kathleen Lavalle with Dallas CASA and Audrea Lemons joined me to talk about the need for CASA volunteers to help make sure that someone is advocating for the best needs of children in the foster care system. Audrea talked about becoming a volunteer and how she was first introduced to CASA, court appointed special advocates, and promoted the training seminars for volunteers. We also talked about the annual Parade of Playhouses which benefits Dallas CASA and is now underway at Northpark Center in Dallas through July 23rd. The event features beautiful children's playhouses that are raffled off with the money raised going to CASA.

July 16, 2017

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Education and Economic Issues and Bullying Prevention and Mental Health Issues.

Guests: April Martin Nickels the Public Affairs Director for Kroger North Texas and Crystal Schanio with the Irving Independent School District and Vanita Halliburton with the Grant Halliburton Foundation and Sierra Sanchez.

Topic: As parents and kids get ready for back to school Crystal Schanio with the Irving Independent School District and April Martin Nickels with Kroger joined me to talk about our stations Back to School Supply Drive "Backpack Boosters" for needy families in North Texas. Crystal talked about the importance of helping kids who may not be able to afford back to school supplies because their families are already barely making it month to month with rent, car insurance and buying groceries. She talked about the reality of what faces children today in low income zip codes and how these school supplies help the children focus on their education rather than their need. April Martin Nickels talked about outreach efforts by Kroger to help schools in North Texas and how communities and neighborhoods need to do their part to volunteer to help out their area school districts especially now that the economic state of our country has forced so many school districts to cut funding to programs. Vanita Halliburton and Sierra Sanchez with the Grant Halliburton Foundation joined me to talk about the upcoming Beyond Bullying conference in North Texas being presented by the Grant Halliburton Foundation and nonprofit that focuses on mental health issues facing young people. The foundation offers programs to teach kids about bullying prevention, peer pressure and suicide prevention.

July 23, 2017

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues, Healthcare and Economic Issues

Guests: Katherine Cuellar with Refill Wise and Courtney Nicolato the President of Senior Source.

Topic: With the healthcare debate going on in Washington DC and in Austin, Texas Katherine Cuellar and Courtney Nicolato joined me talk about the issue of affordable healthcare. Katherine talked about Refill Wise a free prescription card that can help people with the cost of prescription medication. The company partners with nonprofits to help needy individuals with their healthcare costs. Courtney Nicolato talked about the services and programs offered by Senior Source to help senior citizens in our community with financial literacy classes, fraud prevention and healthcare information and services.

July 30, 2017

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Drug and Alcohol Prevention.

Guests: Becky Vance the President with Drug Prevention Resources and Amanda Esquivel a counselor with IMPACT Garland a drug prevention program with Garland ISD.

Topic: The opioid epidemic in this country continues to garner headlines and with school about to start Becky Vance with Drug Prevention Resources and Amanda Esquivel a counselor with Garland ISD joined me to talk about what everyone needs to know about drug prevention and making sure that students don't start using drugs or alcohol and if they do what parents or caregivers need to do to take care of their child should they become addicts. Amanda talked about the signs of drug and alcohol abuse and Becky and Amanda both gave tips on how to have the talk with your children about not doing drugs or alcohol.

August 6, 2017

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Economic Issues and Veterans Support

Guests: Todd Mark a Financial Literacy Counselor and Dennis Luellen with Operation Freedom Continues and Rebuild South Dallas.

Topic: Todd Mark joined me to offer financial tips on how to get the most out of your back to school budget ahead of sales tax holiday week end and he also offered up advice for people getting ready to send their child off to college for the first time and tips on financial aid and paying off student loan debt. We also talked about debt that may have been incurred due to summer vacations. Dennis Luellen with Rebuild South Dallas and Operation Freedom Continues joined me to talk about the upcoming Operation Freedom event that will take place starting on September 11th and ending on Veteran's Day November 11th. The program aims to fix up the homes of deserving veterans and first responders every September 11th and Veteran's Day as a way of honoring those who have given so much to protect our country and to serve our communities. Dennis talked about the work that Rebuilding South Dallas does to help those in need who can't keep up with home repairs from senior citizens, the disabled, the poor and veterans and first responders in need and we also talked about how by helping to fix up these homes and allowing families to stay in place we are combatting homelessness and improving communities. Dennis talked about ways the community can volunteer and help out during Operation Freedom Continues.

August 13, 2017

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Health Issue, Education and Rights for the LGBTQ Community.

Guests: Rafael McDonnell the Communications and Advocacy Manager for Resource Center and Leslie McMurray a Transgender woman who works with Resource Center.

Topic: With School set to start in just a couple of weeks for many North Texas students and the issue of Transgender rights being debated at the State Capitol due to the bathroom rights bill I wanted to highlight the issue of LGBTQ rights and those who are fighting on their behalf in our area. Rafael and Leslie joined me to talk about the work that Resource Center does to help those who are in the LGBTQ community especially young people who may be coming out for the first time and dealing with family rejection or bullying at school. Leslie shared her story of being a transgender woman and the prejudice she has encountered and how Resource Center helps those who are Transgender in our community.

August 20, 2017

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Racial Tolerance and the Fight against Bigotry and Prejudice and Health Issues.

Guests: Sina Tidwell and Saint James Limoges with Rise Against Hate and Don Armstrong with the North Texas Cancer Expo.

Topic: The issue of racial inequality and prejudice has been front and center in our national headlines due to the deadly riots in Charlottesville, Virginia, and as people line up on one side of the issue or the other from free speech to racial injustice a group here in North Texas has organized a rally in Providence Village just north of Frisco to fight bigotry and prejudice. Sina Tidwell and Saint James Limoges joined me to talk about Rise Against Hate a rally in their community to show a commitment to fight racism. Saint James has been the victim of racism in her neighborhood and was being threatened with terroristic letters urging her and her husband to leave their neighborhood or else. The community found out what was happening and rallied together for the Limoges family to show the community that hatred would not be tolerated. Don Armstrong joined me at the end of the program to promote the upcoming North Texas Cancer Expo which will take place in Dallas on September 16th and will bring together those impacted by cancer and doctors and other health officials who will discuss best practices in medicine and in nutrition and also introduce people to support services and the latest medical breakthroughs.

August 27, 2017

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Emergency Preparedness, Disaster Relief, Arts Education and Suicide Prevention.

Guests: Beverly Davis the Founder and President of SPARK and Jennifer Sturges with Foundation 45.

Topic: Hurricane Harvey swept across the Texas Gulf Coast region overnight leaving a path of destruction in its wake and we talked about being prepared for weather emergencies and we promoted giving to the Red Cross Hurricane relief efforts as state officials survey the damage left behind by the deadly storm. Beverly Davis joined me for the next segment of the program to talk about SPARK a nonprofit whose mission is to ignite the spark of creativity in children. School is back in session for most North Texas students and Beverly and I discussed the importance of arts education in schools and how Spark provides a place to inspire kids in the arts. She talked about their programs for kids and for parents and the hands on exhibits at the creative space that is Spark. Jennifer Sturges with Foundation 45 a local nonprofit that helps those in the arts community who are battling depression joined me to talk about today's benefit water balloon fight in Deep Ellum and to talk about how Foundation 45 is helping people in the community by raising awareness about depression and suicide prevention. Recently the world of music lost two singers including Chester Bennington of Linkin' Park and Chris Cornell of Soundgarden and Audioslave to suicide and so Jennifer talked about signs that people with loved ones in the arts should be aware of to prevent suicide.

September 3, 2017

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Hurricane Relief Efforts and the Red Cross

Topic: I Heart Media's Elvis Duran and Ryan Seacrest hosted a special Hurricane Harvey Relief program that focused on the relief efforts going on in the Texas Gulf Coast region to help those impacted by the hurricane and the flooding in Houston. The program promoted the Red Cross and other organizations and encouraged listeners to give to help people impacted by the storm.

September 10, 2017

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Guests: Dr. Diana Kerwin an Alzheimer's Association Board member and Chief of Geriatrics at Texas Health Resources Hospital and Hayley Hanson with the Alzheimer's Association, and Karissa Condoyanis with the State Fair of Texas.

Topic: It is estimated that every 66 seconds someone in the US develops Alzheimer's and as someone who lost her mother to this horrific disease, I wanted to shine a light on the disease and also on the research being done to find a cure to Alzheimer's. Dr. Kerwin joined me to talk about what everyone should know about Alzheimer's like the signs and symptoms and preventive measures. We also talked about the different programs and services that the Alzheimer's Association of North Texas offers to those people living with Alzheimer's and also the programs for family members with a loved one with Alzheimer's. Hayley Hansen promoted the upcoming Walk to End Alzheimer's and talked about the research projects that the North Texas walks help to fund. Karissa Condoyanis joined me in the second part of the program to talk about the upcoming State Fair of Texas and how the annual event raises money not just for area food banks but for scholarships for students who are studying agriculture and animal husbandry. We talked about what is new at this year's state fair and how the event also helps to raise money to preserve the historic fair park.

September 17, 2017

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues: Health, Education and Economy

Guests: Dr. John Carlo the Chief Executive Officer of Prism Health of North Texas formerly AIDS ARMS and Brad Pritchitt with Black Tie Dinner.

Topic: Our station is once again a presenting sponsor for the upcoming Lifewalk which will benefit Prism Health of North Texas, formerly AIDS ARMS, and the work that they do here in North Texas to help those with HIV and AIDs. Dr. Carlo joined me to talk about the need for the entire community to understand that if you are sexually active, if you are having unprotected sex you are at risk of HIV and AIDs. So many of those who are newly diagnosed never thought they were at risk because they thought that this is a gay person's disease not thinking that if a spouse strays or a partner cheats you are at risk. Dr. Carlo talked about the programs offered by Prsim Health and we promoted the upcoming Lifewalk which will take place Sunday, October 1st, at Lee Park in Dallas. We also talked about the recent surge in STDs in North Texas more specifically syphilis and the importance of educating youth about sexually transmitted diseases not just HIV and AIDs. Brad Pritchett joined me to talk about Black Tie Dinner which will be held in November in Dallas and which raises funds for LGBTQ organizations in our area. Black Tie Dinner will benefit the Human Rights Campaign and many other organizations including the Trevor Project which fights bullying against gay youth and Promise House which helps runaways and Legacy Counseling which offers mental health help for those who have been diagnosed with HIV and AIDS.

September 24, 2017

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Guests: Joy Donovan Brandon with the American Cancer Society, Michelle Berndt, JoLynda Collins, April Samuels and Michelle with Breast Cancer Can Stick It.

Topic: It is the last Sunday of September and October is a week away and since October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month I was joined by Joy Donovan Brandon with the American Cancer Society and by Michelle and JoLynda two breast cancer survivors who shared their own personal journey with us. We talked about the upcoming Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Walk that will take place October 28th in Dallas and the services and programs offered by the American Cancer Society for those who have been diagnosed as well as signs and symptoms that women and men should be on the lookout for. We talked about research and the impact the disease has on the family as a whole. April Samuels and Michelle with Breast Cancer Can Stick It joined me to talk about their organization that aims to raise money for mammograms for low income women and we promoted the upcoming Drummathon that will take place October 15th at Klyde Warren Park in Dallas. The Drummathon is a free event but people are asked to raise money for breast cancer programs supported by Breast Cancer Can Stick It.
