KHKS Appearances and Events for non profits

Throughout the year KHKS helps promote morning show host Kidd Kraddick's nonprofit Kidd's Kids. The nonprofit helps send sick kids to Disney World every year. During the 4th Quarter there were several restaurants who donated part of their proceeds to Kidd's Kids including Raising Cane's Chicken Fingers and Chili's Restaurants.

On Thursday, January 17th KHKS participated in the Souper Bowl of Caring. The event helps raise money and food to help community food banks, soup kitchens, and other charities to help fight hunger and poverty in local communities. KHKS was on site at Bishop Dunne Catholic High School with community leaders, Dallas Cowboys Cheerleaders, and Medieval Times, helping students learn the importance of giving back to their communities.

On Saturday, January 19th KHKS participated in The Mesquite NAACP and the City of Mesquite's First Annual Martin Luther King Parade and Celebration. KHKS was a part of the parade route that went through the city of Mesquite. The Mesquite MLK Parade and Celebration celebrates the life of Martin Luther King.

On Monday, January 21st KHKS participated in the 2nd Annual Realizing The Dream – Healthy Living Expo 2019. The expo helps educate people in the Dallas area about building strong, healthy communities – physically, mentally, financially, spiritually, and socially. There was entertainment, health screening, exercise tips, and more. KHKS was on site with prizes and games.

On Thursday, February 7th the KHKS promotions team and, on air personality, Raven granted Ethan Buckley a year supply of NIKE shoes. Ethan Buckley suffers from cerebral palsy, which takes a toll on his shoes. The KHKS team granted Ethan the year supply of shoes with principals and teachers at Hebron High School.

On Friday February 22nd Anna de Haro, Public Affairs Director for I Heart Media Dallas/Fort Worth emceed the Attitudes and Attire Fashion Show and Luncheon from 11am to 1pm at the World Trade Center in Dallas. The event benefitted the nonprofit which helps disadvantaged women in our community.

On March 1st KHKS participated in the Alliance for Women in Media Tour and Presentation to a group of 30 college students looking to pursue a career in the Broadcast Media Field.

On Thursday, March 7th the KHKS promotions team and on air personality, Cruz teamed up with Promise House for their Promise to Care: An Unsheltered Experience at the Ron Kirk Bridge in Dallas. Promise House helps neglected, abused, homeless, and at-risk teens in the Dallas area to better themselves and find a home. Activities for the event included a performance by Willow Smith, a panel discussion with former Promise House clients moderated by Anna de Haro the Public Affairs Director of I Heart Media DFW, and an exclusive screening of “I Am Somebody’s Child: The Regina Louise Story” for Lifetime Movies. The KHKS crew stayed overnight so see how many teens in the Dallas area have to sleep at night.

On Friday, March 8th the KHKS promotions team made a stop at Versia Williams Elementary school for their Career Day. KHKS was on site with music, games, and prizes. Students at Versia William Elementary school also got insight on what it is like to work in the promotions department.

On March 16th KHKS participated in the Dallas Mavericks St. Patrick’s Day Parade in Dallas along Greenville. The annual event raises funds for scholarships for Dallas Independent School District students. KHKS was on site for the parade and the festival afterward.

On Wednesday, March 20th, Anna de Haro, Public Affairs Director for I Heart Media Dallas/Fort Worth along with David Kaiser and Kristi Clanton with I Heart Sales took part in the Dallas Diversity Day Career Fair at the Holiday Inn Galleria between 11am and 3pm in Dallas. We spoke to interested candidates looking for opportunities in radio programming and sales.

March 28th Anna de Haro, Public Affairs Director for I Heart Media Dallas/Fort Worth was on hand for the Media Tech Career Fair from 10am to 2pm speaking to students about career opportunities with I Heart Dallas.

On Sunday, March 31st, Anna de Haro, Public Affairs Director for I Heart Media Dallas/Fort Worth emceed Vino Palooza a wine and music festival benefitting Roof Angels a nonprofit that works with Habitat For Humanity North Texas to help families in need of roof repair. Vino Palooza was held at Ferris Wheelers BBQ in Dallas from 1pm to 5:30pm.

Donations

On March 2nd KHKS donated a pair of tickets to the Dallas Zoo, an autographed 2018 Jingle Ball poster, and a pair of ticket to see P!NK to the Falcon Band Italian Dinner and Silent Auction. The dinner and silent auction supports the Lake Dallas High School Band program at Lake Dallas High School.

On March 2nd KHKS donated auction items including a 2017 and 2018 autographed Jingle Ball poster to Krewe de Kidd's Mardi Gras Masquerade at the Ritz Carlton. This event helps The Kidd's Kids Teen Trip which helps sends teens with life-altering and life-threatening conditions to Disney World in Florida.
