PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAMS FOR 1st QUARTER 2018 KHKS

January 1, 2018 through March 31, 2018

"Sunday Morning Magazine" cart #491030

January 7, 2018

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Financial Literacy and Caregiving

Guests: Gregg Murset a financial expert featured on network financial shows and Carolyn Roney a volunteer with AARP's Caregiving support unit.

Topic: January is Financial Wellness Month and as people head in to the new year many decide to not only get physically fit but also fiscally fit so Greg Murset joined me to talk about ways of getting out of debt and setting financial goals. It is estimated that the majority of people do not have savings or an emergency plan and Greg talked about the importance of setting aside money in case of a life crisis. He gave tips on budget planning and also how to encourage your kids to become money wise. Carolyn Roney joined me in the second half of the show to talk about caregiving. As the population gets older many people are having to make important decisions about grandparents or parents and Carolyn talked about the support that AARP, The American Association of Retired People, can give to those who find themselves as caregivers. We talked about setting up powers of attorney, talking to elderly loved ones about their long term care wishes and also respite for caregivers. Carolyn shared her own story of caring for her parents and how AARP's program called Prepare to Care helped her navigate the system.

January 14, 2018

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Child Abuse Prevention and Volunteering

Guest: Kathleen LaValle the Executive Director of Dallas CASA

Topic: Martin Luther King Jr. Day is coming up tomorrow January 15th and since the King family has long requested that MLK Day be a day on rather than a day off I wanted to highlight an agency that depends solely on volunteers to protect the most vulnerable in our community, children. Kathleen La Valle is the executive director of Dallas CASA Court Appointed Special Advocates and she joined me to talk about the growing need of volunteers to help children navigate the system when it comes to court proceedings and the foster care system. Kathleen talked about the work that CASA does, what sorts of volunteers they are in need of and the training seminars that are offered every month to people in North Texas interested in becoming a CASA volunteer. We talked about the impact that CASA has and we also promoted the Annual Casino Party Gala that will raise funds for the services and programs offered by CASA. The Gala will be held on Saturday, January 20th and we also promoted the upcoming Prom Dress Drive that will provide prom dresses and tuxes to those teenagers served by CASA who are in the foster care system.

January 21, 2018

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Animal Rights, Economy and Education

Guest: Jacob Carty Communications Manager for Spay Neuter Network North Texas.

Topic: Jacob Carty joined me to talk about raising awareness about spaying and neutering pets. The Spay Neuter Network, a North Texas nonprofit, has once again kicked off a campaign titled "Happy Neuter Year" to encourage people to spay and neuter with low cost spay and neuter services throughout the month of January. Jacob talked about the services and programs offered by the Spay Neuter Network including their mobile unit that goes into North Texas zip codes that animal rights activists have determined are the areas where the most animal surrenders take place. We talked about educating the public about the impact that spaying and neutering has on the number of unwanted animals.

January 28, 2018

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Economic Issues and Homelessness

Guest: Reverend Bob Sweeney the Executive Director of Dallas Life

Topic: It's once again time for the Souper Bowl of Caring a yearly food drive aimed at raising awareness about those who are food insecure in our area ahead of the Super Bowl which is a day when American consume the most amount of food second only to Thanksgiving. Reverend Bob Sweeney joined me to talk about the work that Dallas Life does in our area to help the homeless who have lost everything either due to addiction, unemployment, health issues or divorce. Reverend Sweeney talked about the services and programs that they have in place to help the homeless get medical help and economic help as well as educational help so that they can join the workforce and become self-sufficient. We also promoted the food drive through the Souper Bowl of Caring that will benefit Dallas Life that is running now thru Super Bowl Sunday and how people can get involved.

February 4, 2018

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Domestic Violence and Crime Prevention

Guest: Jan Langbein the Executive Director of Genesis Women's Shelter

Topic: It is Super Bowl Sunday and as the NFL gets ready to crown their national champions we tackled a subject that the NFL and others have been trying to highlight ahead of the big game and that is the issue of domestic violence. The NFL has been under scrutiny for a number of years for its handling of domestic violence cases involving NFL players and since every minute 20 people are victims of intimate partner violence and every day three women die from it we wanted to raise awareness as well as let those in our community who may be victims know that they are not alone. Jan Langbein talked about the work that Genesis Women's Shelter does in our area to help women, men and children and we talked about signs to be on the look out for, safety planning and tips for those who find themselves with a loved one who is a victim. We talked about education programs and prevention. We also discussed ways that the community can help Genesis and other domestic violence agencies who are helping those in our community dealing with violence.

February 11, 2018

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issue covered: Health Issues and Economic Issues

Guests: Melissa Cameron the Executive Director of the American Heart Association and Dr. Richard Ammar a cardiologist on staff at Texas Health Allen and Lyn Berman the Executive Director of Attitudes and Attire.

Topic: It's the Sunday before Valentine's Day and with heart decorations everywhere it is no wonder that the month of February is Heart Health Awareness Month. Dr. Ammar and Melissa Cameron with the American Heart Association of North Texas joined me to talk about what we all need to know about heart health, how to take care of ourselves and what to be on the look out for when it comes to signs of a heart attack or stroke. We talked about the importance of diet and exercise and we talked about the research that is ongoing that the Heart Association helps fund to find better treatments and better medications. Heart disease remains the number one killer of men and women. For the second half of the program I was joined by Lyn Berman the Executive Director of Attitudes and Attire a nonprofit that helps women who are facing life challenges such as domestic violence, homelessness, addiction or divorce and who find themselves in need of mentoring and self-esteem classes. Attitudes and Attire helps these women with workshops on resumes and interviewing and dressing for success. We also promoted the upcoming Attitudes and Attire Fashion Show and Luncheon which will be held February 23rd in Dallas and which benefits the programs offered by the agency including their hopeful smiles program and their Boots to Heels program which helps female veterans.
