PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAMS FOR 4th QUARTER 2015 KHKS

October 1, 2015 to December 31, 2015

“Sunday Morning Magazine” cart #491030

October 4, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Crime Prevention

Guests: Officer Tim Heyden with the Arlington Police Department and Michael Lohman a Community Watch Coordinator for the Woodland West Neighborhood in Arlington and Doug Ray with Special Olympics Texas.

Topic: Officer Tim Heyden and Michael Lohman joined me to talk about National Night Out, a crime, drug and violence prevention program aimed at building strong partnerships between police and communities they serve. The program promotes crime awareness programs such as neighborhood community watch groups and considering the rift between many local police departments and minority groups in our area it is important to highlight programs that strive to build a bridge between law enforcement and the communities they serve. Doug Ray with Special Olympics Texas joined me to talk about Special Olympics upcoming Over the Edge event which will raise money for Special Olympics and their programs for special needs kids and adults in our area. Doug Ray talked about the importance of Special Olympics and the impact their programs make on those with special needs and on the families.

October 11, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Mental Health, Crime Prevention, Education and the Economy.

Guest: John Dornheim with NAMI Dallas.

Topic: Once again here in the US the nation was rocked by a mass shooting this time at a Community College in Oregon and in the aftermath it was revealed that the shooter was dealing with mental health issues and so once again the issue of mental health is gaining attention nationwide but what do we need to know about those dealing with mental health issues and how to protect ourselves and our loved ones. John Dornheim with NAMI Dallas the National Alliance on Mental Illness joined me to talk about just that and about the services and programs available to people with mental health illnesses here in our area. We talked about taking mental health issues out of the shadows and let people know the signs that they need to be on the lookout for so that they can get help. We also promoted the campaign #I Will Listen, a social media campaign aimed at raising awareness of mental health issues.

October 18, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Art Therapy for those dealing with grief or PTSD, Health Issues, Education and Veterans issues.

Guests: Peggy Marshall the CEO of the Art Station in Fort Worth, Gina Perales Hethcock with the Diabetes Association of North Texas and Dr. Paul Hayne with Blue Cross Blue Shield.

Topic: Peggy Marshall joined me to talk about the work that the Art Station in Fort Worth does to help kids and adults dealing with grief, depression or PTSD because of different life challenges. The Art Station was founded by a mother who was dealing with her son's suicide and she found that art helped her heal in ways that traditional talk therapy did not so she founded the Art Station in Fort Worth to help others dealing with grief and found that Art has a way of connecting with people on a variety of levels. They have programs for kids in crisis due to abuse or illness and they have programs for veterans in our area who are dealing with PTSD and depression brought on by their experiences with war. Gina Perales Hethcock with the Diabetes Association and Dr. Paul Hayne joined me to promote the upcoming Step Out to Stop Diabetes Walk which will take place next month in Grand Prairie and to talk about the importance of knowing your status when it comes to diabetes, especially Type 2 Diabetes, since there are so many people who have diabetes and don't know it.

October 25, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Community Involvement, Education and Economy and Health.

Guests: Katie Edwards the Director of Community Relations for the Dallas Mavericks “Mavs” Foundation and Dr. Manon Cox with Protein Sciences.

Topic: The Dallas Mavericks getting ready to kick off their 2015-2016 season with the home opener set for November 3rd but although we love seeing our Mavs on the court it is what they do off the court to help the community that is truly making a difference. Katie Edwards joined me to talk about the different programs that the Mavs Foundation supports to help kids in our area and single moms. The Mavs Foundation has set up reading and learning centers in low income area and basketball courts across North Texas in underserved communities where kids need to have safe havens to go to. Dr. Manon Cox joined me to talk about the importance of getting a flu shot. The Flu season typically begins in October and runs thru May so we talked about how to protect yourself from the flu and what you should know about the flu shot and the dangers of not getting one.

November 1, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Economic Issues

Guests: Major John Rich the Commander with the Salvation Army DFW and Pat Patey the Communications Director with the Salvation Army DFW and Academy Award Winning Actor Jon Voight.

Topic: Major Rich and Pat Patey with the Salvation Army DFW joined me to talk about the issue of helping the needy this holiday season and why the programs offered by the Salvation Army are important and how they help people get back on their feet. With the holidays right around the corner the Salvation Army has kicked off their biggest fundraisers of the year including the Red Kettle campaign which asks people to donate their change to help the needy and the Angel Tree program which provides holiday gifts for needy kids. Major Rich and Pat Patey talked about the many programs offered by the Salvation Army throughout the year not just during the holidays and we also promoted the "Doing the Most Good Luncheon" which will be held later this month in Dallas and will feature Academy Award Winning Actor Jon Voight who joined us on the show to talk about why the Salvation Army's work means so much to him and why celebrities like him need to do their part to raise awareness about issues that affect the community.

November 8, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Military Support, Education, Health and Economy.

Topic: Wednesday is Veteran's Day and Nekima Horton and Lisa Wakeman Moses joined me to talk about how we should honor veterans in our community and to highlight programs available here in North Texas to help our veterans. Nekima talked about the work that the Coalition does to build bridges between local community resources, national resources and veterans and their families so that they can rebuild their lives in the aftermath of war. Nekima and Lisa talked about the work of Operation Healthy Reunions in dealing with the invisible scars of war and how the program helps veterans dealing with post-traumatic stress and also how they help the spouses and children of veterans. We talked about the high suicide rate amongst our veterans and even active duty military and how we need to make sure these men and women know that it is okay to ask for help and that they are not alone. We also promoted our company's Show Your Stripes campaign which helps connect employers looking to hire vets with vets in our area in need of employment.

November 15, 2015

Topic: Jill Cumnock with the Ronald McDonald House of Dallas joined me to talk about the Trains at North Park which benefits the Ronald McDonald House. Jill talked about the work that the Ronald McDonald House does as a home away from home for families who have a child being treated at one of our many children's hospitals and how the house is able to economically help those families who are already spending so much money on their child's healthcare. Donna Smoot joined us to talk about her own experience receiving help thru the Ronald McDonald House in Dallas while her granddaughters have received treatment at Texas Scottish Rite Hospital for Children.

November 29, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Economic Issues, Education.

Guests: Jan Pruitt the CEO of the North Texas Food Bank

Topic: The holidays are a time when we all try to give back to the community and one way to give back is to help out the North Texas Food Bank with can food drives or online donations. Jan Pruitt talked about the work that the North Texas Food Bank does to help feed the hungry in our area and the vast number of services and programs aimed at helping the most vulnerable from children to senior citizens.

December 6, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Guests: Scotty Landry the President and CEO of the Make A Wish Foundation of North Texas and Alicia Graham Frye the CEO of Jonathan's Place and Elizabeth Mossman the Director of Foster Care and Adoption for Jonathan's Place.

Topic: Scott Landry joined me to talk about Macy's Annual Believe Campaign, which benefits the Make A Wish Foundation. For every letter that a child writes to Santa Claus that is dropped off at any Macy's store, Macy's will donate one dollar to the Make A Wish Foundation, a nonprofit that grants the wishes of children with life threatening illnesses here in North Texas. Scotty talked about the kids and their families who benefit from the wish and how the community can get involved to help grant the wishes of children with life threatening illnesses. Alicia Graham Frye and Elizabeth Mossman joined me to talk about Jonathan's Place a nonprofit that helps abused and abandoned children thru emergency shelter services and adoption and foster care programs. We talked about how so many of these children are praying for a home for the holidays and we promoted the programs that Jonathan's Place has for people thinking about fostering a child or adopting a child.

December 13, 2015

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Economy and Education and Child Safety.

Guest: Karen Hughes the President and CEO of Vogel Alcove a nonprofit that helps homeless children in our area.

Topic: Karen Hughes joined me to talk about the upcoming Day 1 Dallas a benefit event that will be held January 1st at Fair Park in Dallas that will raise funds for Vogel Alcove a nonprofit that helps the youngest victims of poverty in North Texas, homeless children. Karen talked about all the fun activities that will take place at Day 1 Dallas but also the importance of an event like this to raise awareness about the issue of homeless children since so many people think the homeless are alcoholics or drug addicts and don't think of the youngest victims and their families. Karen talked about the programs that Vogel has in place to help kids from infant to 15 and their families as well so that the parents can get on their feet and break the cycle of poverty.

December 20, 2015
Aired 6:15am to 6:45am
30 minute program

Issues Covered: Health and Education

Guests: Kim Charles with the Southwest Transplant Alliance and Donate Life Texas and Lisa Barker a Liver Transplant Survivor and Richard Marquez the President of Texans Can Academies.

Topic: Kim Charles and Lisa Barker joined me to talk about the gift of life. With the holidays now in full swing and people searching for the perfect gift we talked about the gift of organ donation. Currently there are over 100 thousand men, women and children waiting on life saving organ transplants. Kim and Lisa talked about the importance of families talking about their wishes concerning organ donation and registering online at Donate Life Texas to become organ donors. Lisa shared her own personal story of being on the organ transplant list and being told she would die without a transplant and how the choice of one family saved her life. She talked about the family that donated their daughter's organs and how that decision saved not just her life but the lives of three others here in North Texas. We promoted the upcoming Parade of Roses which will feature a special float aimed at raising awareness of organ donation and how Lisa's organ donor will be honored on the float. Richard Marquez joined me to talk about last minute end of year donations to Texans Can Academies and how the donations help educate at risk youth. We talked about the Dallas and Fort Worth Can Academies and their unique way of educating kids who have failed in the public school system but who have succeeded in Charter Schools.
