April 1, 2018

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Health issues, Economic and Education Issues and Emergency Preparedness.

Guests: Mary Frances Hoover the Executive Director of Susan G. Komen North Texas, Sylvia Sanchez a breast cancer survivor who will be taking part in the upcoming Komen Race for the Cure, also Michael Garrett the CEO of Trusted World and Janet Smith the Development Director of Trusted World.

Topic: Mary Frances Hoover and Sylvia Sanchez joined me to talk about the Race For the Cure which will be held May 19th in Frisco. The event not only raises awareness about breast cancer but also raises important research dollars to find a cure and to fund programs that serve those in our community with breast cancer, from free mammograms to education programs to wigs for women impacted by the disease. Sylvia shared her personal story of being diagnosed and the journey through treatment and the fear that she has that she may not survive this disease and why Komen is important to her and how they have been a support for her and her family. For the second segment of the program I was joined by Michael Garrett and Janet Smith with Trusted World a nonprofit that helps people who have been affected by disasters. The spring storm season is in full swing with several severe storms already sweeping across our area causing quite a bit of damage to homes and businesses and Michael and Janet and I talked about ways to be prepared for spring storms and we talked about the work that Trusted World does to help people in the aftermath of destructive storms. They provide clothing, diapers, formula, food and other necessities. We talked about how people can volunteer to help and the work that Trusted World did in the aftermath of Hurricane Harvey to mobilize North Texans to help with donations and sorting of goods and the importance of always having items on hand for the next disaster.

Topic: It is spring storm season in North Texas and we have already had several strong storm systems move across the area and although last week we focused on the work of nonprofits that help after a disaster this week we are highlighting emergency preparedness before the storms move through Ed Martelle with the Red Cross talked about how the Red Cross helps educate people about the ways to be Red Cross Ready and how every family should have a kit in their home in case the worst happens, have a plan, have a kit and know what to do in the aftermath. We also talked about the other services and programs that the Red Cross has for the community. Tobi Berman and Amber Pickens joined me to talk about the Texas Cultural Trust an arts education scholarship program that promotes the arts and also helps students with their higher education Tobi talked about what the scholarship means to him and how the arts have helped him be a better student while Amber talked about what the scholarship did for her when she first received it and how she is now a working actress and singer in New York City and is paying it forward by donating to the Texas Cultural Trust to provide more scholarships and opportunities for people wanting to pursue an education or career in the arts.

April 15, 2018

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Mental Health Issues and Suicide Prevention.

Guest: Dr. Christine Moutier the Chief Medical Officer for the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention.

Topic: Recently a lot of high profile celebrities have committed suicide and here locally many schools are dealing with a rise in teen suicides and so this morning I was joined by Dr. Christine Moutier with the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention to talk about what we all need to know about suicide ideation and how to prevent suicide and how there is help and hope. We talked about signs to look out for in case you are worried about a loved one, ways to deal with sadness and depression and how to know the difference, ways to cope with loss and how the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention is working on research in to the brain to see why some people are more susceptible to thoughts of suicide. We also discussed the programs that AFSP has in place locally to help those who have been impacted by suicide, educational programs for outreach into schools and church outreach and we talked about the upcoming Out of Darkness Overnight Walk in Dallas which will benefit AFSP and their work. The Out of the Darkness Overnight Walk will take place Saturday, June 1st and Sunday, June 2nd in downtown Dallas. We talked about how people can get involved and we shared stories of people who have lost a loved one to suicide.

April 22, 2018

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Health Issues, Education and Economic and Community Involvement

Guests: Brandon and Rachel Knight with Head for the Cure and Jacquelin Leach the Executive Director of the Crohns and Colitis Foundation of North Texas and Natalie Brown the 2018 Honored Hero for the CCFA North Texas Walk.

Topic: Brandon and Rachel joined me to talk about the upcoming Head for the Cure 5k Run and Walk which will be held on Saturday, May 5th at Oak Point Park in Plano to benefit brain cancer research. Brandon was diagnosed with a brain tumor five years ago and continues to battle the disease and so he shared his own personal journey with brain cancer and talked about the importance of research and the work that Head for the Cure does. Rachel talked about the support that she has received from Head for the Cure and talked about the impact that a brain cancer diagnosis has on a family but they believe a cure will one day be found and in the meantime it is the medical research taking place that has allowed her husband to survive thanks to advancements in medication. Jacqueline Leach and Natalie Brown joined me to talk about the work that the Crohns and Colitis Foundation is doing in North Texas for those impacted by these digestive diseases. Natalie shared her story of diagnosis and treatment and how she is managing the disease living with ulcerative colitis. We talked about signs and symptoms of the disease and the embarrassment of dealing with a disease that can lead to frequent bathroom breaks and episodes of diarrhea or constipation. We also promoted the upcoming walk that will take place on Saturday, May 19th in Dallas to raise awareness and money for research and for the programs that CCFA has in North Texas for families like Natalie's.

April 29, 2018

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Criminal Justice Reform, Education and Economic Issues.

Guests: Jim Buffington the Chief Operating Office of Bridges To Life and Charles Fisher the DFW Regional Coordinator for Bridges To Life.

Topic: It has been a tough week for law enforcement in North Texas as they grieve the loss of Dallas Police Officer Rogelio Santander who was gunned down on Monday while responding to a shoplifting call at a Home Depot in Dallas. The suspect in the shooting has been arrested and is behind bars. This morning we focused on crime and violence in our city and we highlighted a group that works with incarcerated individuals to help them while they are behind bars so that they do not harm others in the future and that organization is Bridges to Life. Jim Buffington and Charles Fisher talked about the programs that their nonprofit has in prisons around the state and Jim shared his own personal story of being a crime victim since his mother was killed by his dad and how that affected him and how his work in prison reform and with those behind bars has helped him see the humanity in those who are in prison. Charles Fisher shared his story of being behind bars because of felony theft while he was on drugs and how Bridges To Life helped him. The Bridges To Life programs include not just incarcerated individuals but also crime victims who share how being the victim of the crime affected them. Research has shown that those who take part in the programs offered by Bridges To Life have a very low recidivism rate.

Topic: Memorial Day is coming up so I wanted to highlight a group helping veterans and one group that is helping through equine therapy and is one of the beneficiaries of this year's Carry the Load March in Dallas that will be held on Sunday, May 27th and on Memorial Day, May 28th is Equest. Lili Kellogg joined me to talk about this nonprofit that provides hope and healing through horses and she talked about the programs that help children and adults and veterans. They help veterans with their Hooves for Heroes program. Lili shared how equine therapy helps and the history of equine therapy and she shared stories of autistic children speaking for the first time after taking part in the therapy sessions, she talked about the help it provides to those who have physical disabilities and the mental health benefits for those with PTSD including veterans. Tammy Richards joined me to talk about the upcoming Voly in the Park a volunteer festival that will highlight the good that is done when people volunteer in their community. More than 75 nonprofits will be on hand in Dallas for the Voly in the Park event looking for volunteers. Tammy also shared the economic impact that volunteer hours have on a community and how Volunteer Now connects those who want to volunteer with a whole slew of agencies looking for volunteers.

May 27, 2018

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Issues Covered: Military and Veteran support services and Mental Health Issues.

Guests: Jacob Schick the Executive Director of 22 Kill

Topic: It is Memorial Week end a time to remember those who have fallen while protecting our country and this week end in Dallas the annual Carry the Load March will once again be held at Reverchon Park in Dallas. The March begins this afternoon at 4 and ends tomorrow, Memorial Day at 12:16pm. One of the beneficiaries of this year's Carry the Load March is the nonprofit 22 Kill and Jacob Schick the Director of the nonprofit joined me to talk about how his agency is helping with the mental health needs of our veterans. 22 Kill was started as a result of the alarming number of suicides amongst our veterans with national statistics showing that on average every day 22 veterans take their own life. 22 Kill raises awareness about the suicide epidemic plaguing our country's veterans and offers support programs that provide services to our vets so that they can overcome depression and anxiety. Jacob shared his own personal journey. He was severely injured in Iraq and lost his leg to combat but it was the invisible wounds of battle that almost cost him his life and that is why he is committed to helping those who are dealing with suicidal thoughts. We also let people know that if they are in crisis that there is help and how 22 Kill can be a resource for those veterans who feel hopeless.

June 3, 2018

Aired 6:15am to 6:45am

30 minute program

Guests: Linda Goelzer and Loretta Morgan with Carter Blood Care and Daphne Lynch a epidemiologist with Collin County Health Services.

Topic: Linda Goelzer and Loretta Morgan joined me to talk about the upcoming Summer Blood Drive which will take place June 18th through June 23rd at various locations around the Metroplex. It is estimated that every two seconds someone in the US needs blood and during the summer months when people head out of town for vacation and high school students are out of school for summer break the need for blood donors rises. Linda and Loretta talked about the work that Carter Blood Care does in our area to educate people about the need for blood and how to help out and encouraged people to donate blood or to hold blood drives at their churches, schools or place of business this summer. We talked about misconceptions about giving blood and who is eligible to donate and how many people are impacted by one donation since blood is used for burn patients, patients undergoing chemotherapy and victims of car accidents or gunshots. Daphne Lynch with Collin County Health Services joined me to raise awareness about mosquito borne diseases during the summer months in particular zika and West Nile. We talked about how we should all protect ourselves and steps we can take to reduce the risk of mosquitos in and around our homes.

KHKS Appearances and Events for non profits

Throughout the year KHKS helps promote morning show host Kidd Kraddick's non profit Kidd's Kids. The non profit helps send sick kids to Disney World every year. During the 4th Quarter there were several restaurants who donated part of their proceeds to Kidd's Kids including Raising Cane's Chicken Fingers and Chili's Restaurants.

On Friday, April 6th Cruz and the KISS Crew attended the George Peabody Elementary School STAAR Testing Pep Rally in Dallas in order to help motivate and excite the elementary school students about state testing. The KHKS team brought out KISS FM prizes to give to the kids and Cruz made some announcements during the pep rally to really get the students to do their best.

On Tuesday, April 10th KHKS took part in Free Cone Day at Ben & Jerry's in Plano and had on-air personalities as celebrity scoopers where they donated their time to scoop ice cream. KHKS announced the event on air and posted on social media to encourage people to come out and to donate money. All funds raised during this event were donated to the North Texas Susan G Komen Race for the Cure Organization.

On Tuesday, April 10th Anna de Haro, the Public Affairs Director for I Heart Media Dallas/Fort Worth emceed the “Just Say Yes” Celebration Dinner at the Belo Mansion in Dallas featuring Jenna Bush Hagar as the guest speaker. The event raised money for Just Say Yes an educational nonprofit that helps to empower students to succeed thru educational and mentoring programs

On Saturday, April 14th, The KHKS crew attended a Charity Kickball tournament in Irving, Texas put on by Uwonte Savior, a faith based 501 ©(3) non-profit charity that is dedicated to providing food for the homeless and their dogs, inspiration for the uninspired, fitness for the unfit, hope for the hopeless, love for the elderly and forgotten people of Dallas/Ft. Worth.

On Saturday, April 21st, The KHKS crew attended the March for Babies event in Dallas and Fort Worth. March for Babies is an event that helps raise money and awareness to expand programs and educate medical professionals to make sure mothers and their babies get the best possible care, and advocates for policies that prioritize health.

On Thursday, April 26th, Anna de Haro, the Public Affairs Director for I Heart Media Dallas/Fort Worth represented I Heart at the Heart of Texas Luncheon benefiting Volunteer Now the nonprofit that connects North Texas volunteers with charities and nonprofits looking for help in the community. The luncheon was held at the Belo Mansion in Dallas and featured former Dallas Cowboy quarterback and philanthropist Roger Staubach.

On Monday, April 30th, 20 students from Thomas Jefferson High School in Dallas came up to the I Heart Dallas studios for a tour. The students who are all studying radio/tv and film toured the studios and production rooms and also were taught how to voice track and do weather and traffic reports.

On Thursday, May 3rd, The KHKS Crew attended the Berkner High School College Decision Day in Richardson. The High School Decision Day is an event put on by Berkner High School that provides a fun way for students to learn about college experience from former students, college representatives, and other guest speakers.

On Friday, May 11th, Cruz and the KISS Crew attended the Nancy J. Cochran Elementary School pep rally in Dallas to help motivate the students and get them excited to finish out the school year strong and do their best on STAAR Testing.

On Friday, May 25th, KHKS' Priscilla and the KISS Crew attended the John H. Regan Elementary School College and Career Day. KHKS set up a booth and Priscila was on site to talk with students about what it is like to work in radio. Students were offered career advice and were able to learn more about the radio/media industry.

Tuesday, June 12th was Kidd's Kids Giveback Day! This is a huge event put on by KISS FM and RAISING CANE'S that gives back to the Kidd's Kids charity for their big Disney World trip! Raising Cane's gives 15% of the day's net proceeds to Kidd's Kids. Plus, people can simply drop by and make a donation or they can make an additional donation at the register. The KHKS team was at three locations across the metroplex to help promote giveback day, encourage people to stop by and donate, and even spend time with past Kidd's Kids families.
