

KQNG Sunday 6:30am April 7,2019

We discussed the Village Harvest, a volunteer-based gleaning program that focuses on harvesting and donating the abundant fruit growing on Kaua'i to those in need of fresh produce. We their effort to bridge the gap between food waste and food insecurity by utilizing food left over from harvests on personal properties and small farms. The harvests are donated to food pantries and keiki lunch programs to encourage agricultural learning, healthy eating, and foster an appreciation for local produce. We discussed the opportunity to be on one of the four gleaning teams on the island! Spend time harvesting local produce, talking story and giving back to Kaua'i. Village Harvest encourages both single volunteers to join our teams and groups for harvesting events. Volunteers are contacted to help out a week or two before a scheduled harvest. Folks can become Village Harvest fruit donors by calling Village Harvest when your trees are fruiting and setting up a date and time for volunteers to harvest and deliver your extra fruit. Donations are tax deductible and donors are released from all liability via The Federal Bill Emerson Good Samaritan Food Donation Act.
