

1st Quarter Report: Jan - March, 2020: "Charlottesville Soundboard"
Public Affairs Program on WTJU-FM
Sat 6:00-6:30am & weekdays 9:00-9:05 & 4:00-4:05pm

Date	Content
1/24/20	New Charlottesville City School Board member, Lashundra Bryson Morsberger, plans to focus on inequities in the school system.
1/31/20	Governor Northam is pushing for a huge increase in funding for early childhood education programs. We talk about how that funding will be used in Charlottesville.
2/7/20	Some Albemarle residents are worried that a new development might worsen the traffic congestion on their commute. But traffic experts say more housing might actually be part of the traffic solution.
2/21/20	How should we teach our kids about slavery? And at what ages? A conversation about a Black History Month poster that was taken down this week at Cale Elementary School.
2/29/20	Starting on Sunday, March 1st Charlottesville celebrates Liberation and Freedom Days for the fourth year. The week's events commemorate the beginning of emancipation in Charlottesville after the city surrendered to the Union Cavalry on March 3, 1865.
3/4/20	This week we cover the primary candidates running to represent the Fifth District in congress. Many of the candidates live right here in the Charlottesville Albemarle area.
3/20/20	This week we cover the issue that has changed all of our lives in some way the past two weeks: the novel coronavirus. Elliot at Charlottesville Tomorrow gives us an update on how the virus has impacted the health and economic security of people in our community.