Also, on the show we will have an interview with retired Clemson Extension Agent Tony Melton. He was able to visit us in the studio and we recorded 4 segments on different topics with him while he was here, and they will air on this show and the next 3 shows. In this first segment, Tony talks about his retirement and reflects on what he learned as an agent and why Extension has always been important. As always, we will be streaming on “Making It Grow” Facebook, so you can view the show there and join the conversations with Terasa and Clemson Agent Vicky Bertagnolli.
