11Alive's Voices for Equality: Black History Month
(Community/Diversity, Economy + Government)

11Alive worked to go beyond the surface and push the envelope to tell unapologetic stories this Black History Month. It's all filtered through the term: disrupt. History shows that change is never convenient or comfortable - but it is always necessary. The station-wide initiative highlights Atlanta's part in the Civil Rights Movement, today's changemakers shaking up society, and the next generation gearing up to take the torch. Stories of those who have realized their dreams and are creating space for Black excellence are not forgotten, as they are disrupting what it means to be community leaders, change agents, creators, business owners, and voters that can sway the political direction of the nation.

STORYTELLERS FOR THE SPECIAL: Jennifer Bellamy, Jonathan Martin, Ron Jones, Neima Abdulahi, Faith Jessie, Aisha Howard, Joe Ripley and Karys Belger.
