

WSTU 1450 STUART, FL

Quarterly Issues and Programs Report

July-Sept 2023

Treasure Coast Broadcasters, Inc

Enhancing the Safety of Children
Sept 9 & 10, 7A

Host Sue Ellen Sanders talks with
Ronda Cerulli, Coordinator of Safe Kids

Florida and Rob Lord, Board Member about effort to create a Safety Village on the Treasure Coast. Mr Lord, former CEO of Martin Health System, pointed to tragedies he would see in the ER and need to reduce preventable injuries to children. Goal is to build a "Safety Village" on the Treasure Coast with "hands on practice" for kids escaping a burning building or the 5 biggest dangers in Florida: drowning, sleep accidents, bikes, pedestrians and car seats. Plan to add rail safety with high speed trains coming to the Treasure Coast. First fundraising event, Sept 30.

Help Children Understand Sept 11
Sept 11 8:10-8:25A

WSTU Morning Show Host Evan Nine talks with Martin County Schools Superintendent Michael Maine about Patriot Day, a national day of remembrance – but also an opportunity to teach school children the history & significance of Sept 11. Two of the districts security officers who were first responders on 9-11 will be part of a ceremony with the Air Force JROTC Program and share their stories. United Way of Martin County will send volunteer readers to elementary schools to read patriotic stories & help students understand "never forget".

Uniting People through the Arts
Sept 16 & 17, 7A

Host Sue Ellen Sanders talks with
Dieulanie Clued, Interim Executive

Director of St Lucie Cultural Alliance and Darryl Bey, Founder, Blue Bird Productions about creating a hub for all artists – musicians to yoga instructors, photographers to culinary artists to provide professional development like marketing as well as introducing artists to the local community. Mr Bey described 2 concerts so far – free to the public—using music to help people understand they’re more alike than different. Concerts are Sundays, Museum Point Park, South Beach.

Young Voters Pledge to Vote
Sept 25, 2023 8:10-8:25A

WSTU Morning Show Host Evan Nine talks with Martin County Schools Superintendent Michael Maine about the upcoming Pledge to Vote Initiative – staff members of the Martin County Supervisor of Elections will visit each high school for a voluntary, non-partisan voter registration drive. Students 16 & 17 may “pre-register” and eligible students 18 can register to vote by bringing Florida Driver’s License, residential mailing address, last 4 #s of Social Security, date of birth. Talked about the importance of the civic educational initiative.

