

WSTU 1450 , STUART, FL

April-June 2023

Treasure Coast Broadcasters, Inc

Emergency Food, Housing, Medical Help
May 13 & 14 7-8A

WPSL/WSTU Host Sue Ellen Sanders talks with Greg Smith, Executive Director and Tracy Malinowski, Program Director of Mustard Seed Ministries & Sarah's Kitchen about "getting ahead" classes to prepare people in need with financial education. Also outlined 17 services: from limited rental assistance to Emergency Food Pantry, to hot prepared meals 5 nights a week, to prescription assistance. Invited listeners to participate in Postal Service Nationwide Food Drive May 13 that will help their food pantry over the summer.

County Offers Hurricane Info & Assistance
June 17 & 18, 2023 7A-8A

WPSL/WSTU Host Sue Ellen Sanders talks with St Lucie County Director of Public Safety Ron Guerrero and Sonji Hawkins, Director Emergency Management about the importance of making a plan with your family for hurricanes or any disaster. Have phone numbers written down, take pictures of passport, insurance cards, & home & post to cloud storage. Have 1 gallon of water per person for at least 3 days. Offered Hurricane Guide, especially for new residents.

Hurricane Prep Danger Trimming Trees
June 20, 2023 8:10-8:30A

WSTU Morning Show Host Even Nine talks with Martin County Sheriff's Office Chief Deputy John Budensiek about recent deaths of people trimming trees, ahead of storms : one hit by tree limb just cut & another electrocuted when didn't see branch was touching powerline. Recommended hiring a company with an insulated bucket (not metal household ladder), instead of homeowners doing their own trimming before hurricane season.

Goals of New School Superintendent
June 21, 2023 8:10-8:30A

WSTU Morning Show Host Evan Nine talks with Michael Maine, new Superintendent of Schools in Martin County about his 90-Day Plan for new visions and possibilities. Mr Maine pointed to the hiring of at least 11 key employees as part of a re-organization plan, to make Martin County Florida's "#1 School System".

