I'm Alive: Standing with the Poor and the Oppressed- In 2005, Sarah Vienna was asked to sing Christmas carols in a Romanian children's hospital. To her dismay, many of the kids had been abandoned by their families because of desperate poverty. They'd been left alone with rags for diapers, and worst of all, because the nurses had ignored them, the kids didn't cry. Sarah shares her heart and the work of her ministry, Firm Foundations Romania. She cites Psalm 82:3 as her mission, "Defend the weak, the fatherless, uphold the cause of the poor, and the oppressed."

She is She- Dr. Tim Clinton sits down with Ryan and Bethany Bomberger to discuss their new children's book, She is She. The co-founders of life affirming non-profit, The Radiance Foundation, declare that every child is made in the image of God, and encourage parents to celebrate their children's uniqueness in who the Lord made them to be. Psalm 139:13-14 boldly proclaims, "For you created my inmost being; you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made. Your works are wonderful; I know that full well."

Are You Ready? Because the Opportunity is Huge- “Are you so filled with God’s power that you’re shaping culture, or is culture shaping you?” That is the question international speaker and author Rick Rigsby posed to 5,000 men at the 2022 Men’s Ignite event. He challenges men to rise up, be authentic in their Christian faith, and stand firm in their communities “for such a time as this.” Joshua 1:9 says, “Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go.”

30 MIN

Band of Brothers: Stronger Together- Christian comedian Dennis Swanberg says that many men are lonely and they struggle with regret and secret fears. Proverbs 27:17 declares, “As iron sharpens iron, so one man sharpens another.” That’s why all Christian men need to resist the temptation to isolate, and should find a trustworthy accountability partner. Swanberg points to the biblical examples of Paul and Luke as well as Silas and Timothy. When men confess their sins in transparency to God and to one another, they can be healed.

Taking the Next Steps: Marching in a Post-Roe America- Jeanne Mancini, president of the March for Life Education and Defense Fund, explains that while Roe has been reversed, the battle has just begun for the sanctity of life. Not only do the March for Life organizers want to make abortion unthinkable, but they hope to build a stronger safety net for women facing unexpected pregnancies. This includes maternity homes, pro-life pregnancy resource centers and compassion for those who are in crisis. Since some “blue states” have championed partial-birth abortions, there is obviously so much work left to be done.

Finding God in the Hard Places- In 1999, Carol Kent was living a happy life with her husband, Gene, until they received a phone call at 12:35 a.m. that changed everything. Their son, Jason, a promising Naval Academy graduate, was arrested and charged with first-degree murder. After he received a life sentence without parole, Carol discovered what it meant to live between a rock and a grace place. On today's edition of Family Talk, Carol shares that, like the Apostle Paul who asked for the thorn in his flesh to be removed, God's grace is sufficient for her too.
