

Q2 Report 2018 Interviews

April 2018

04/08/18 - 8:15AM: Barb Herzog joined The Morning Mix to discuss the Toledo Prays event on the National Day of Prayer.

04/10/18 - 8:30AM: Erin Thompson of Social Security to discuss updates to Social Security and list of Top baby names for 2017.

04/11/18 - 8:15AM: Wendy Yeager of Keep Watch came in to discuss praying for our schools.

04/20/18 - 8:15AM: Dr. Matt Kutz promoted his new book, "Contextual Intelligence" and his upcoming seminar in June at the Cherry Street Mission.

May 2018

05/01/18 - 7-9AM: Erin Thompson of Social Security discussing updates to Social Security and taking calls from listeners.

05/04/18 - 7-9AM: Tiffany Crain of The Nest in Bowling Green was in to discuss the new non profit ministry to provide free childcare to parents completing their education.

05/07/18 - 8:15AM: Jerusha Gioella and Joy McWhinnie of Toledo Christian Schools discussed the school and what it has to offer new students.

05/10/18 - 8:15AM: Ed Sitter of The Foundation For Life was in to discuss the non profits mission of the pro life movement.

05/16/18 - 8:15AM: Dr. Moriah Conner joined The Morning Mix to promote the upcoming Natalie Grant Concert sponsored by Mercy Health to benefit a local non profit.

June 2018

06/17/18 - 7-9AM: Savannah Martin, Executive Director of The Pregnancy Center of Toledo joined The Morning Mix to discuss the needs and mission of The Pregnancy Center.

06/13/18 - 8-9AM: WTOL News Anchor, Jerry Anderson joined The Morning Mix to discuss his retirement after 30 years in broadcasting.

06/14/18 - 8:15AM: Laura Hiss, owner of the Happy Soaper, joined The Morning Mix to talk about her business and provide giveaways for our listeners.

06/19/18 - 7-9AM: Erin Thompson of Social Security discussing updates to Social Security and take questions from listeners.

06/20/18 - Mary Michel, CEO and Founder of Journey of the Heart Ladies Ministry joined The Morning Mix to discuss her organization that mentors women in our community and seeking qualified mentors to join the team.