

Q4 Report 2023 Interviews

October

3- 4pm (60 MIN) Tim Rabara, Spiritual Coordinator at Ohio Living Home Health and Hospice talked about those who are currently or have in the past suffered through cancer. The care needed, the encouragement that is also offered through this organization for hope and healing.

5- 4pm (60 MIN) Michelle McCauley from Deeper Still (deeperstill.org) talked about how this 501©3 began to help to heal the emotional wounds of Abortion. The group hosts weekend retreats to bring complete restoration to men and women who have felt for so long that their sin is unforgiveable. It isn't.

10- 4pm (60 MIN) Alicia Green and Jody Bronowski from ReFit (on Youtube) talking about how this group attempt to help folks of all sizes to get motivated to move to music. They held a large gathering here at Proclaim FM to help all of us to enjoy better health.

16- 7:30am (30 MIN) Lisa Fulton, founder and President of Operation Surprise Attack talked about their mission to flood children facing serious medical issues with handmade cards, gift cards, and more. She discussed the upcoming card launch and how to get involved.
Operationsurpriseattack.org

18- 8am (60 MIN) Juan Duante, Matt Bell with Team Recovery talked about treatment options and program that Team Recovery has to offer those with addiction. They also shared their personal testimonies of walking through addiction.

November

1 8am (60 MIN) Dr. Carnel Smith, Principal of Scott High School holds a mens prayer meeting in the high school and has in place initiatives that provide academic success in the school.

6- 8am (60 MIN) Erin Thompson from The Social Security Administration answered questions in regards to Social Security and gave updates as well.

14- 3:20pm (20 MIN) Dustin Dale from The Program, inc. talked about the organization's mission, to help boys grow into men, and the ways that they do that. Also discussed upcoming "dodgeball economies" event on Saturday Nov 18th and how people can get involved.

14- 4pm (25 MIN) Tim Rabara and Kelly Guerrero from Ohio Living Home Health and Hospice talked about November being Cancer Awareness Month. Tim and Kelly discussed what the difference between hospice and palliative care is, as well as discussions that families should have before hospice care is chosen as a care option. Also there is a grief clinic this Saturday, November 18th.

14- 5:15pm (45 MIN) Tom Willhardt, Bob Daniel, Spencer Benefield from Ottawa and Sandusky County Communities talked about the community Thanksgiving dinner next Thursday at Woodmore High School from 11a-1p.

December

7- 8am (60 MIN) Tammy Taylor organized a toy drive called Night of Hope for children of men and women who are incarcerated.

12- 8am (60 MIN) Arlana Alecandor from H.Y.P.E. joined The Morning Mix. H.Y.P.E. is a behavioral health agency that provide young people and families with a positive atmosphere along with licensed professionals that specialize in behavioral health care for the family.

13- 3pm (45 MIN) Mr. Henry from Northwest Ohio Classical Academy talked about the benefits of a classical education for K-12 grade. This is a charter school and the headmaster, Mr. Henry, detailed the curriculum and it's ability to prepare children for higher education. It was eye opening to hear how a charter school can (and does) prepare children to be our future leaders.

19- 3:30pm (60 MIN) Erin Thompson of Social Security came on the afternoon drive to talk mainly about widow and widower benefits. She also responded to listener questions in regards to Social Security.