

Q3 Report 2022 Interviews

July

5- 4:30pm Pastor Dan Stevenson comes in to communicate about a food bank called Southside.

6pm Liz Tracey of Kid's Club, a ministry that reaches children in the schools with the Gospel.

7- 8am Erin Thompson of Social Security discusses updates at Social Security and answers listeners questions.

13- 3pm Savannah Marten of the Pregnancy Center discusses going forward after the Roe vs. Wade decision, helping those in unplanned pregnancies.

4:30pm Emily Main of the Parks and Rec in Toledo, giving tips to listeners regarding their gardens.

6pm Tim Rabera from Ohio Living and Hospice. The discussion included helping to communicate with your loved one suffering from the disease.

14- 4pm Juan Abalos, a local rapper, discusses the uniqueness of using this gift to communicate the Gospel.

18- 4:30pm Pastors Calvin and Christine Sweeney from The Tabernacle talk about their story

6pm Lisa Fulton of Operation Surprise Attack talks about how her non profit encourages children who are having a difficult time on their health journey, and how her organization encourages them with getting the community involved by making cards to encourage them.

20- 4:30pm Liz Tracey from Kids Club talks about a need that they have of volunteers to teach Bible Studies to kids after school hours.

25- 4:30pm Pastor Steve Callijas talks about his church, Central Park Congregational, and how they are celebrating 80 years as a church on July 31st. There will be a special service, followed by a family picnic after, 29- 4pm Tiffany Crain, Executive Director of The Nest in Bowling Green talk about a 501(c)(3) contest that they are part of "A Community That Thrives". It serves as one of their major fundraisers for the year, but they are also competing on weekly challenges, each of which comes with a monetary prize bonus.

August

- 2 5 pm- Stephanie Bays, the spiritual care coordinator for the Cherry St. Mission downtown Toledo. We spoke about using words of kindness as opposed to words that sear the heart. We discussed the power of lacing our conversation with love (60 min)
- 3 4-6 pm- Brandon Floro a local teacher, talked about the importance of teaching communication skills in students. Joe Piruke, also a teacher, joined the conversation, as his role is more challenging, as his students are mentally and physically challenged.
- 4 8:15 am Linda Napier from the YMCA discusses new programs beginning t=in the fall for the YMCA (15 min)

3:30 pm- Ken Weygrin, a pastor at Christ the Word came in to talk about the upcoming Men's Conference at their church, helping to equip the men with the tools they need to become men of truth and integrity. (30 min)

- 8 3:30 pm- Bill and Barb Herzog, pastors of the Vinyard Church- We discussed the power of commitment in marriage and how setting that example as pastors is not only Biblical, but powerful in a world where we celebrate the marriage event more than we do the marriage commitment. (60 MIN)

- 9 4pm- Erin Thompson of Social Security answers listeners questions in regards to Medicare. (45 MIN)

- 10 3:30 pm- Linda Napier of the YMCA came in to talk about new programs that are opening in the fall. (15 min)

12- 3-7pm Live broadcast from Ohio Living Home Health and Hospice during their job fair. Many interviews with the directors of various departments to garner interest of listeners who may be looking for a job in the medical field.

15-4:30pm- Joana Houser from New Life Church in Petersburg MI offering free Bible school training through a VBS for the last week of summer.

September

15- 4pm- Singing group “The Backups” promoting a free concert at Emmanuel United Methodist Church of Blissfield. This group has been singing together for 35 years. (25 MIN)

19- 5 pm- Lisa Fulton, Founder and President of 501c3 Operation Surprise attack talked about their fundraiser to help 6 children (and their families) who are facing cancer. They “attack” these kids with cards of encouragement, and financial support when able to. They are currently in the middle of a card launch, and they are inviting listeners to make cards for these kids, and support them financially. (60 min)

20- 4 pm- Erin Thompson of Social Security answers questions in regards to widows benefits. She also answered listeners questions as they came in. (60 min)

21- 4 pm- Sufficient Grace Ministry is hosting a runathon to raise funds to help families coping with the loss of a baby or small child. (15 min)

26- 5 pm- Jan Edith, author of the book “Called to a Living Hope”, discussed the power of prayer and faith to move mountains. (60 min)

27- 5 pm- Sarah Ellis of New Life Church in Petersburg came into invite the women of our audience to a free event at the church, a “Pro-life Baby Shower”. Among other speaker, Savannah Marten will discuss the importance of remaining steadfast as a prolife community to assure that woman are informed that they will be loved and not judged but that there are viable alternatives to abortion. (45 min)

28- 4 pm- Veronica LaGuire from the Archdiocese of Toledo - 40 Days for Life Campaign began on that very day, Sept. 28. 40 Days for Life is an international anti-abortion organization that campaigns against abortion in more than 60 nations worldwide. It was originally started in 2004 by members of the Brazos Valley Coalition for Life in Texas. It is a prayer, peaceful demonstration of a love and respect for the life of the baby.