

Q1 Report 2023 Interviews

April

4- 5-4pm (60 MIN) Emily Main, Landscape Artist and DUY instructor talked about getting your spring beds ready, and took questions from listeners.

5- 7:30am (30 MIN) Kaitlyn Sigler from Emmanuel Christian School came on to talk about the school and a fundraising concert with Colton Dixon, Apollo LTD., and Jordan St. Cyr on April 28th. Tickets are available at proclaimfm.com under the buy tickets tab.

6- 8:15am (30 MIN) Kayla Smith from Careportal was on talking about Careportal, which helps families/children who need help right now. They uncover the need in the family or with the child and out on careportal, which gives professionals the access to local churches and caring people in the community that can help meet the needs. You can get involved by going to careportal.org

17- 4:30-5:30pm (60 MIN) Pastor Steven Whitlow from Redemption Church talked about a new sermon series called "This is not your Grandma's Church". He explained how so many millenials are satisfied with "glitzy "Christianity", where worship is presented as entertainment. Ge gave an open invitation for our listeners to come, learn, and grow in truth and the teaching of the Bible.

20- 8:15am (30 MIN) Lisa Fulton, President of Operation Surprise Attack came on to talk about their current card launch to encourage children who are going through serious/extreme medical crises. People and businesses in the community hand make cards to give to the children. More information can be found at operationsurpriseattack.org

21- 3:30-4:30pm (60 MIN) Erin Thompson of Social Security gave the specifics of retirement and when you can retire and receive your full benefits. She also shared about spousal benefits, and answered listeners questions.

May

3- 7:30-8:00am (30 MIN) Savannah Marten from Bella Vita (formerly The Pregnancy Center of Greater Toledo) joined Rebecca to talk about the changes with The Pregnancy Center (Now Bella Vita) and updates on the things they do. Also, she promoted their upcoming event, "Tailgate and Trivia night in June.

8- 8-9am (60 MIN) Christina Rodriguez, Executive Director of Mom's House was in the studio, along with a representative from Lucas County Children's Services to talk about National Foster Care Awareness Month to encourage listeners to consider fostering a child in our community.

19- 8-8:30am (30 MIN) Robin Isenberg from NOMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness) joined Rebecca to bring awareness to mental illness on "Mental Health Awareness Month" and tips on how to deal with mental illness. She also directed listeners to where they can find help at NOMI.

22- 8-9am (60 MIN) Erin Thompson from The Social Security Administration shared updates in regard to social security and answered questions for listeners via call or text personally. She also shared the most popular baby names list, and where Proclaim FM staff rank in the top 1000 names.

22- 4:30-5:15pm (45 MIN) Pastor Grant Perry pastors in Adrian Michigan, but began this new initiative called "Fire on the River", which is a gathering of multiple churches in Ohio and Michigan to gather each year on Memorial Day to be a witness to the city on the Maumee River

24- 4:30-5:30pm (60 MIN) Tim Rabara, Spiritual Care Coordinator at Ohio Living Home Health and Hospice talked about what the difference is between Hospice and palliative care. This interview was designed to help our audience understand some of the services that are available to them for their physically failing loved ones.

25- 7-9am (120 MIN) Pastor Mykel Pollock from Visible Church shared a new church model that has many pods of people throughout the city that commit to working with and impact many areas of the Toledo community, for example the homeless and youth.

30- 8:15-9am (45 MIN) Kathy Woodward, from Foundation for Life joined the morning show to discuss the proposed amendment to the Ohio constitution. Kathy walked through the wording of the proposed amendment, explaining all of the terms, and encouraged people to get a copy of the proposed amendment and familiarize themselves with it. Also to be sure to register to vote come november.

June

2- 7:30-8am (30 MIN) Dr. Roxanne Allen and Paulette Cole from TPS Schools, Chase STEM Academy, and Toledo Early College High School shared the opportunities for advanced learning through these two Toledo Public Schools that have open enrollment. Chase STEM is for grades K-8 and TECHS is 7-12TH. Inquire and apply at tps.org

2- 8:15-8:35am (25 MIN) Tiaunna Richardson from Keep Watch talked about Keep Watch's current prayer walks in schools in 4 states, in 130 schools with 300 volunteers. Also discussed the upcoming summer prayer blitz June 26-30 to pray in front of schools that do not currently have prayer walks. Estimated 150+ sites in at least 7 states. More info at keepwatchprayer.org

12- 4:30-5:15pm (45 MIN) Pastor Will Henderson from L.E.A.D. Community Church talked about having a church that was born out of the idea of first evangelizing, then providing teaching to bring maturity to the new convert.

15- 7am (120 MIN) Bishop Michael Pitts discussed fatherhood and encouraged fathers of their God-given role as we approach Father's Day. Also discussed his book "Soul Ties" and the webinar he is holding on June 24th for anyone to join to further discuss his book.

21- 7:30am (30 MIN) Joy Hester from Vision Ministries joined Rebecca to talk about a women's conference they have coming up July 23rd called "Spill the Beans". She elaborated on the event and speakers and gave information how to get tickets to attend. Proceeds to benefit Vision Ministries.

21- 8am (60 MIN) Christina Rodriguez, Executive Director of Mom's House and John Johns, CEO of Hope Toledo joined Rebecca to discuss the collaboration between Mom's House and Hope Toledo in regard to programs for fathers. They have programs to teach and equip fathers to be the best dads for their children.

26- 6pm (60 MIN) Vonda Hogle from Keep Watch (keepwatch.org) talked about how Keep Watch organizes volunteers to pray for the safety of our children in schools. Also, praying for the teachers and administrators. There are prayer walks before or after school that are organized to bless the community of the school. They are looking for more volunteers to pray during the school year.