Children's Programming

QUARTERLY REPORT

1st Quarter, 2014

The following is a summary of WUTH CA 47's response to the educational and informational needs of children, through programming which furthers the development of children age 16 and under in any respect, including their intellectual/cognitive or social/emotional needs.

As provided in the Children's Television Act and FCC interpretations of the Act, stations meet their obligations to serve the educational and informational needs of children both through programming "specifically designed" to meet children's needs, and through general-interest programming that furthers the law's goals of helping children grow and develop.
