Children's Programming

QUARTERLY REPORT

2nd Quarter, 2014

The following is a summary of WUTH CA 47's response to the educational and informational needs of children, through programming which furthers the development of children age 16 and under in any respect, including their intellectual/cognitive or social/emotional needs.

As provided in the Children's Television Act and FCC interpretations of the Act, stations meet their obligations to serve the educational and informational needs of children both through programming "specifically designed" to meet children's needs, and through general-interest programming that furthers the law's goals of helping children grow and develop.

Children's Programming Commercial Time Compliance Form

Verification:

I have reviewed the program logs for WUTH CA 47 children's programming described in this report. The commercial time actually broadcast during each clock hour of children's programs was no greater than 12 minutes (weekdays) or 10.5 minutes (weekends). For children's programs broadcast in the same clock hour as non children's programs, the commercial time actually broadcast during the children's program was no greater than a prorated share of 12 minutes (weekdays) or 10.5 minutes (weekends).
