THE BIG LIE

- Fake Kidnapping: Tiffany Bray vanished from her native Oklahoma town and the only clue: a text she managed to send to her fiancé, indicating she had been kidnapped. But after cops and family went into high gear to find her, the surprising truth was revealed. Why would someone fake their own kidnapping? Tiffany sits down with Deborah Roberts to reveal all.
- Fake Navy Seal: In the inglorious annals of fake Navy Seals, AJ Dicken stands alone. For years he told people he was the most decorated seal in the history, serving in Vietnam, Iraq, and later even killing Osama bin Laden. And he was almost able to parlay his hustle into a seven-figure fraud. But when a real Navy Seal exposed Dicken as a fraud and an ex-con, the whole operation went south, and Dicken went on the run... until Matt Gutman tracked him down.
- Fake Rock Star: Rob “Tall” Mawhinney had everyone convinced – even members of his own band – that he was a rich rock star. Except, that’s all it was – a fantasy. Mawhinney defrauded as many as four different banks to the tune of $11 million in loans. He tells Chris Connelly his tall tales from inside prison.
- Talk Show Hoaxer: Kenny Tarr has made a career out of faking his way onto talk shows with a seemingly infinite menagerie of fabricated identities. But this Fall when he prank-called famous football coaches with bogus job offers and allegedly recorded them illegally, the fun ended abruptly. Nick Watt goes face-to-face with the man of many faces.

(IM)PERFECT GETAWAYS

- Autopilot: Have some pilots become too dependent on automation, and could they handle an emergency if the autopilot suddenly was not there to help? David Muir reports on some recent pilot errors.
- Stowaways: Juju Chang reports on modern day stowaways who risked life and limb by hiding out in such places as a plane’s toilet, the wheel well, and the cargo hold, shipping themselves in a crate. How does this happen with all of the security in place since 9/11?
- Killer Hotel: Three people died in the Boone, NC Best Western’s room 225 in two separate carbon monoxide poisoning incidents last year. The shocking fact is that it was not until the second incident that killed 11-year-old Jeffrey Williams that carbon monoxide was identified as the culprit. Jeffrey’s mom Jeannie is speaking out for this first time to Matt Gutman. How common a problem is this, and how safe is your hotel?
- Confessions of a Baggage Handler: Stolen valuables... damaged bags... what really happens to your bag after you check in? Deborah Roberts hears the confessions of two baggage handlers who reveal dirty secrets of their trade, and what you can do to make sure your bag arrives in one piece.
- Overboard: The thought has crossed the mind of most cruise ship passengers – what happens if I go overboard? But Sarah Kirby does not have to wonder as she survived a terrifying caught-on-camera plunge into the Caribbean on the first night of her 30th birthday cruise. The incidents are rare, and the industry says they are usually suicides. Yet five incidents have happened in just the past month. Is the industry doing everything it can to detect and save overboard passengers? Reena Ninan reports.
- Horrible Passengers: Nick Watt looks at the contenders for world’s worst plane passengers. The competition is stiff.

LOVE AFFAIR

The parents of Jimmy Pallais thought they were doing all the right things for their newly adopted teenage son by sending him to a good school near home. That is until they found out that his teacher had fallen in love with their 15-year-old son. Jenny and Alex Pallais and their son speak for the first time about this case to David Muir.

YOUNG GUNS

In a one-hour special, hidden cameras reveal shocking examples of what children do when left alone with a gun in the house. ABC Anchors Diane Sawyer and David Muir explore the issue of kids and guns in interviews across America with parents who expose their young children to guns to demystify them, and parents who believe a gun is only secure from kids when it is in a safe.

MY STRANGE AFFLICTION

20/20 reports on bizarre medical mysteries that stumped even the experts at first and made the people with these “strange afflictions” wonder if they were going crazy. Anchored by Elizabeth Vargas and David Muir.

- Selective Eating Disorder: Deborah Roberts reports on a newly diagnosed condition that gives a whole new meaning to the term “picky eater,” Avoidant Restrictive Food Intake Disorder (ARFID) where adults with this disorder, suffer excruciatingly painful emotional and physical reactions to certain foods.
- Allergic to Noise: New York Times writer Joyce Cohen and her husband Ben live in NYC - one of the noisiest cities in the world. But noise is torture for them – so much that Joyce wears industrial strength earmuffs outside, and her husband can barely leave their small apartment. They both suffer from Hyperacusis, which causes terrible, often unbearable pain in the ear. Elizabeth Vargas reports.
- Dwarf Twin: Sienna ‘Sinny’ Bernal is one in roughly 200 people in the world with Primordial Dwarfism, a rare genetic condition. At 14, she is just over four feet tall and roughly 50 pounds having reached her maximum height setting her apart from other teen girls, especially her identical twin sister, Sierra. Sierra is an average sized girl, making the twins the only known pair in the world with such a combination. Jay Schadler reports.
- Sudden Blindness: One healthy young college student called it his “magical medical mystery tour” when he started losing his eyesight -- and no one knew why. That is, until his mother sprang into action and saw what the doctors had missed. Chris Connelly reports.
- Hair Loss: Imagine your favorite feature was taken away by a mysterious disease. That is what happened to Georgia Van Cuylenburg. Like five million other Americans, she suffers from Alopecia – a condition with sudden and unpredictable hair loss. Making this devastating loss even harder is that Georgia was a professional hair model. Elizabeth Vargas reports.

OUT OF BOUNDS

It was the girl crush that became a crime and made national headlines: Kaitlyn Hunt, 18, engaged in a sexual relationship with a 14-year-old in the high school they attend. She was charged with lewd and lascivious battery of a child. But was the reason Hunt was being targeted because hers was a same-sex relationship? , Kaitlyn Hunt speaks exclusively to ABC News Correspondent Matt Gutman.

THE PERFECT NANNY

Dr. Martin MacNeill appeared to be the perfect husband. But when his wife Michele was found dead in their bathtub, his children accused him of orchestrating her death. Although it was officially ruled an accident, Michele's daughters pressed authorities to investigate. The MacNeill children were desperately seeking justice for their mother; now, five and a half years after her death, a sensational trial in a Utah courtroom gripped the country for weeks as Martin MacNeill stood accused of premeditated murder. Elizabeth Vargas reports.

ON THE RUN

When a stunning mom on the run with her two young boys from two different ex-husbands, Maria Misejova, a native Slovakian, does not return from a month long vacation overseas, two heartbroken fathers begin a worldwide manhunt. For nearly two years, Bob Pfeifer and Larry Hummel take matters into their own hands in a desperate search filled with near misses and dead ends. When Bob Pfeifer launches his own social media campaign, fresh leads start coming in, including video of the boys with their hair grown long, one in pigtails. Maria, is soon apprehended. David Muir reports in this exclusive.

SLEEPING WITH THE ENEMY

How well do you know the person sleeping next to you? Janet Abaroa was found dead in North Carolina. Her husband, Raven Abaroa, said he discovered his dead wife's body after returning home from playing soccer. He moved to Utah and Janet's murder remained unsolved. While in Utah, Raven met and then married Vanessa Pond. It is not long before wife number two feels she is in danger. Eventually, a new cold case detective starts looking for new clues, Janet's body is exhumed, and Raven is arrested and extradited back to North Carolina to stand trial. John Quinones reports.

DOES MOTHER REALLY KNOW BEST?

- Did a mom ask her son to kill his own stepfather? Gio Benitez tells the unbelievable story of one woman's elaborate plot to have her estranged husband killed. Gio Benitez has the exclusive jail-house interview.
- Tasha Adams was unaware that a waitress, Jackie Conners, was observing her at a local pizzeria in Arkansas and reported to police that Adams was consuming "drink after drink" while simultaneously breastfeeding her infant. In "20/20's" exclusive interview, Adams is adamant that she did nothing wrong and was sober enough to breastfeed her child. Authorities dropped the charges against her but the waitress was let go from her job after the incident and claims she was fired for taking action. Juju Chang reports.
- Many kid sports are out of control, but sometimes it's the mom and dads who belong in the penalty box.. "20/20" tracks the case of Janet Chiauzzi who stalked and terrorized a family all because her son was not picked for the travel baseball team. In an exclusive interview with Deborah Roberts, the victims describe the terrible ordeal that turned their lives upside down.

20/20 SATURDAY

THE PEOPLE NEXT DOOR

- Bulldozer: What would drive a Port Angeles, WA man to destroy his neighbor's property with a bulldozer? Jay Schadler reports on the ultimate neighbor nightmare (OAD: 9/20/13)
- Neighbor From Hell: Kim and Greg Hoffman say their neighbor Lori Christensen, a single mother and former Girl Scouts leader, made it her mission to ruin the Hoffman's lives. Her brand of terror was wide ranging. After months of legal negotiations, Christensen had agreed to plead guilty to violating a harassment restraining order and receive 10 years' probation and a 10 year "stay away." She was back in the headlines again when she submitted a motion at her sentencing hearing to withdraw her guilty plea, suggesting it had been coerced. Amy Robach reports. (OAD: 9/20/13)
- Nextdoor.com: It's billed as a customized social network for individual neighborhoods – a way to connect, to problem-solve, even to fight crime. Nextdoor.com is a high-tech neighborhood watch, where neighbors can post personal observations and security cam images. But is it also just another way to gossip or to spy? Nick Watt reports. (OAD: 9/20/13)

Saturday, January 25, 2014

THE ALMOST PERFECT CRIMES

Anchored by Barbara Walters, the night takes us from a meticulously planned bank robbery out of a Hollywood script, to a man who impersonated his dead mother to collect her social security payments, to a father who faked his own death; "20/20 Saturday" reports on almost perfect crimes.

WORK WARS

How do you survive working for a tough boss? What is your favorite office revenge fantasy? What are the hidden career killers? "Work Wars"—how to wage them and how to win.

- I Quit: Joey D. Francesco despised his job as a hotel worker, so he decided to quit – not just with the typical two weeks' notice, but in grand fashion. He hired a marching band to come in to his boss' office and blast the news. Dan Harris reports.
- Tough Bosses: Do you work for an aggressive boss? Learn how to survive from the head shark himself, "Shark Tank's" Kevin O'Leary, the straight-talking "Mr. Wonderful" from the hit ABC show. Elizabeth Vargas reports.
- Black Market Office Supplies: Many workers have pilfered the occasional stapler or post-its, but what about $1.5 million worth of toner? Such was the case of Marque Gumbs, who financed a flashy lifestyle by ordering excess ink as a clerk then selling the cartridges for as little as $10. Prosecutors say there is a thriving black market in purloined office supplies. Gio Benitez reports.
- The Bundle: Being asked by your boss to do stuff you are not crazy about is a common gripe. But what happens when your boss offers you $10,000 a year for the rest of your life to help dispose of a "bundle" for him which happens to be his dead wife? Jim Avila reports.
- Secret Career Killers: Think working hard, making friends in the office and bringing in food for your colleagues is the way to get ahead? Think again. Paula Faris reports.

BUM LUCK

- Lotto Murder: The strange case of Abe Shakespeare: a down on his luck, illiterate man who won the Lotto, proceeded to be hit-up and fleeced by an army of moochers, and then was murdered by his supposed financial advisor Dee Dee Moore. It was only after Shakespeare's friend, a barber named Greg Smith, went undercover for the cops that the killer was brought to justice. ABC News Correspondent Matt Gutman's reports. (OAD: 9/10/13)
- Lucky Numbers: Are some numbers luckier than others when playing the lottery? "20/20" conducted a mathematical analysis of the numbers drawn in past Powerball and MegaMillions jackpots of $100 million or more and found a handful of numbers that just kept popping up – and others that almost never did. What are they and why? A numerologist gives us his take and a mathematician tells us to get real. (OAD: 9/10/13)

Saturday, March 29, 2014 (9:00-10:00PM ET / PT)

WORK WARS

- I Quit: Joey D. Francesco despised his job as a hotel worker, so he decided to quit – not just with the typical two weeks' notice, but in grand fashion. He hired a marching band to come in to his boss' office and blast the news, all captured on video. Dan Harris reports.
- Tough Bosses: Do you work for an aggressive boss? Learn how to survive from the head shark himself, "Shark Tank's" Kevin O'Leary, the straight-talking "Mr. Wonderful" from the hit ABC show. Elizabeth Vargas reports.
- Black Market Office Supplies: Many workers have pilfered the occasional stapler or post-its, but what about $1.5 million worth of toner? Such was the case of Marque Gumbs, who financed a flashy lifestyle ordering excess ink as a clerk at Memorial Sloan Kettering, then selling the cartridges for as little as $10. Gio Benitez reports.
- The Bundle: Being asked by your boss to do stuff you are not crazy about is a common gripe. But what happens when your boss offers you $10,000 a year for the rest of your life to help dispose of a "bundle" that happens to be his dead wife? That happened to one Phoenix man last spring when he was approached by Arizona Shower Door king, Fred Knadler. Jim Avila reports.
- Secret Career Killers: Think working hard, making friends in the office and bringing in food for your colleagues is the way to get ahead? Think again. Paula Faris reports.

NIGHTLINE PRIME – First Quarter, 2014

Saturday Primetime edition of the Late Night news magazine (9:00 - 10:00PM ET / PT – unless otherwise indicated)

Saturday, March 15, 2014 (Premiere)

Journalists ride shotgun with a group of motorcyclists as they attempt to shut down traffic in the heart of one American city in a high speed game of cat-and-mouse with police. They venture into the barrios of Latin America to witness a dangerous underground trade in extreme beauty where young women in off the radar backroom clinics risk their lives for a new body. They fly high with a group of daredevils walking a tight rope strung between hot air balloons 3000 feet in the air above Barcelona. There is nowhere Nightline Prime won't go to bring viewers up close to the most surprising, unfolding stories of the day.

Saturday, March 22, 2014

- Purity Balls: How far would you go to protect your daughter's innocence? Purity Balls – events where fathers vow "to protect their daughters in their choices for purity"– are now a full-fledged national phenomenon occurring in 48 states and in as many as 17 countries. Cynthia McFadden reports.
- Skyliners: Don't look down because you might lose your balance... "Nightline Prime" goes up in the air with the team of French artistic acrobats who give new meaning to the term "fear of flying." Correspondent Lama Hasan faced her own fear of heights in reporting this story.

Saturday, March 29, 2014 (10:00-11:00PM ET / PT)

CELEBRITY CATFISHER

- Catfishing The Stars: “Nightline Prime” follows the trail of an online “catfisher” who courts the sympathy of celebrities with tales of woe by posing as terminally ill children. The “Nightline” investigation exposes startling new revelations and confronts the culprit, and celebrities react to learning about the ruse.
- The Next Gisele: “Nightline Prime” takes viewers to the remote Brazilian region that produced super model Gisele Bunchen – where children as young as three years old are groomed by their families and scouts to be the next top model.
