

There follows a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by stations WLKM-FM and WRCI-AM, in Three Rivers, Michigan. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

04/26/23 – We broadcast an interview with the Sturgis DDA event coordinator, Ryan Conrod, in regards to the Spring Food & Flower Fest. The interview aired at 1:35pm on WLKM, and at 3:35pm on WRCI. Length - 3 minute

05/22/23 - 7a, 8a, 9a, noon, 4p, 5p, - A request to raise chickens in the city received considerable attention at last week's Sturgis City Planning Commission meeting. With continued interest on the topic, city officials agreed to explore a proposed ordinance, and to decide the best course of action should the city move forward: a city commission vote or ballot proposal. Length - 1 minute

05/24/23 - 7a, 8a, 9a, noon, 4p, 5p, - United States Postal Service is staging a job fair today at three area locations. Post offices in Sturgis, Vicksburg, and Coldwaer are taking part in the recruitment event. It runs 11 am to 1 pm in Vicksburg, and 11 am to 2 pm in Sturgis and Coldwater. Length - 1 minute

06/09/23 - 7a, 8a, 9a, noon, 4p, 5p, - State Rep. Steve Carra will host local office hours later this month. The first of two opportunities to meet with Carra will be from 9 to 10 am June 16 at Corner Cafe in Union. Next from 11 am to noon the same day, Carra will be at Bullseye Market in Three Rivers. Length - 1 minute

06/21/23 – We interviewed Maria Behr, who is the new president of our local hospital, Three Rivers Health. Topics included Maria's background, her impressions of our local facility, and her thoughts as to why Three Rivers Health is prospering, while so many community hospitals are struggling. Interview #1 - 4 minutes 40 seconds - WLKM at 9:50am; WRCI at 10:50am
Interview #2 - 4 minutes 13 seconds - WLKM at 1:50pm; WRCI at 2:50pm

