

There follows a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by stations WLKM-FM and WRCI-AM, in Three Rivers, Michigan. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

07/28/23 - 7a, 8a, 9a, noon, 4 p, 5p – St. Joseph County’s Parks and Recreation Department is seeking the public’s input regarding its five-year master plan. Located on the county’s website, the 14-question survey will help guide department officials with assembling the agency’s master plan from 2024 through 2028. The county’s website is: stjosephcountymi.org.

Length - 1 minute

08/01/23 - 7a, 8a, 9a, noon, 4 p, 5p – Here’s an announcement regarding the Three Rivers Community Kitchen Soup Pot. Starting today, it will resume serving meals Tuesdays and Thursdays. Serving hours are 4 to 5 pm and meals are offered at Trinity Episcopal Church, 321 N. Main St.

Length - 1 minute

08/03/23 - 7a, 8a, 9a, noon, 4p, 5p, - US Department of Agriculture has announced that the USDA is expanding access to health care with Emergency Rural Health Care grants. Covered Bridge Healthcare in Centreville will use a $1 million grant to purchase equipment that will improve tele-health services among other future pandemic and medical surge preparation projects.

Length - 1 minute

08/17/23 - 7a, 8a, 9a, noon, 4p, 5p, - United Community Assistance Program wishes to remind the public that it is available to help meet the needs residents may have, including assistance with food, gas, laundry service, utilities, personal care, and resource information. Furthermore, its Stone Cottage Free Store has clothing, undergarments, coats, shoes, winterwear, towels, and blankets available.

Length - 1 minute

09/20/23 - 7a, 8a, 9a, noon, 4p, 5p, - The St. Joseph County Commission on Aging is an important organization in our county, enhancing the lives of our senior citizens. The COA has been celebrating their 50th anniversary all this year, culminating with open houses in Sturgis and Three Rivers on 9-21-23. We interviewed Ruth Mancina, who is the Marketing and Life Enrichment Manager for the COA. Program length: 4 minutes WLKM broadcast at 10:40am WRCI broadcast at 1:50pm