DESCRIPTION: A Union County farm family was one of six honored at the state Farm Show in Harrisburg Friday. Bret and Mary Moyer, Winfield, were recognized for running a farm that was established in 1797. PA Secretary of Agriculture Russell Redding said, "Reflecting the 2024 Farm Show theme, Connecting Our Communities, (these families) have been uniting and feeding our communities for generations: Since the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture started the Century Farm program in 1977 and the Bicentennial Farm program in 2004, over 2,300 Century and Bicentennial Farms have received the honor.
