DATE	PROGRAM	TIME	DURATION	ISSUE	DESCRIPTION
1/1/15	NH1 News	10:00p	1:50	Nature	Firefighters had to tie multiple safety
		-			ropes together to make a daring rescue of a doe that was stuck on the frozen water of Crystal Lake in Gilmanton, NH. Stuck hundreds of feet from shore on a mostly frozen lake, witnesses quickly grew concerned about the deer. Officials attached a safety rope to a man and sent him about 500 feet onto the ice, which was about 2-3 inches thick.
					The ice did not break through during the rescue, and the deer was successfully rescued to shore and set free.

It is not known what caused the Singapore-bound plane to crash into the Java Sea 42 minutes after taking off on what was supposed to be a two-hour flight. Just before losing contact, the pilot told air traffic control that he was approaching threatening clouds, but was denied permission to climb to a higher altitude because of heavy air traffic.
	MITNEWS	10.00β		Public Infrastructure, Environmental Concerns	More than 100 residents attended a meeting in Milford, NH about a proposed natural gas pipeline that could affect 17 communities in New Hampshire. Residents had concerns about the affect it would have on their property, but the biggest question was why has the route changed so many times already? Allen Fore, VP of Public Affairs for Kinder Morgan gave a presentation and answered questions about why the route has changed. Kinder Morgan says this is very early in the process. They will continue to hold public forums around the state these next few months. They maintain their work is safe and follows all federal guidelines. Kinder Morgan representatives expect the route will change again before they apply for permits in the fall. They will be holding an open house in Milford at the end of the month.
1/6/16	NH1 News	5:00p	:42	Blood Drive	January is National Volunteer Blood Donor month. Dunkin' Donuts teamed up with The American Red Cross to hold a blood drive in Manchester. Pat the Patriot greeted donors, and blood donors were qualified to win one of five pairs of tickets to a Patriots' playoff game. One local police officer says a blood transfusion saved his son's life, and his son is now healthy and training to be a fireman. The officer said these events are special to him, and he was there to donate blood.

1/7/15	NH1 News	6:00p	2:36	Weather, Public Safety, Homeless Population	Dangerous overnight temperatures and wind chill expected to be below 0 are causing serious concerns. Homeless shelters are trying to add beds and stay open longer to keep people safe. In homes, people should be aware of where their homes lose heat, and battle the cold by using weather stripping and taking other precautions. Dozens of school districts are announcing delays for tomorrow because of the expected dangerously cold temperatures in the morning.
1/8/15	Live Breaking News	11:55a	1:10:00	Breaking News / State Politics	Live on the scene coverage of the inauguration of NH Governor Maggie Hassan from the state house in Concord, NH.
1/9/15	NH1 News	6:00p	2:30	Sports, National Events, Local Economy	Boston has been selected as the US city to bid for the 2024 Summer Olympics. Many are excited but opponents cite space and financial issues as concerns. Mayor Walsh has announced nine community meetings to hear concerns about costs and locations. Questions include whether local universities will build facilities and whether tax money will be used. Boston's bid is considered strong, and if the Olympics come to Boston a NH state hospitality expert says it could translate to spinoff business for the state's hotels, restaurants and entertainment venues.
1/10/15	NH1 News Weekend	10:00р	2:11	Sports	The New England Patriots won a thrilling playoff game in Foxboro over the Baltimore Raves. They became the first time to win a playoff game while trailing by 14 points twice in the same game. With the win, the Patriots advance to the
