

Fwd: Would you consider taking my radio show AMAZING MAINERS! ?

Inbox

LC Van Savage <lcvs@comcast.net>
to me

Nov 13, 2020, 9:28 PM

Hello Jim Brown: I currently have a 29-minute weekly radio show. It is a friendly, non-controversial talk show with Mainers who have and are making their marks here. It is free-of-charge, no commercial content and no contracts are needed. I'd very much like it if you'd consider taking it on WYAR and if you did, you could air it as often or as seldom as your station wishes.

I have had several decades of interviewing experience, including 13 years as host of "incredibleMAINE" on MPBN. Presently, AMAZINGMAINERS! is on WJTO-Bath and WLAM – Lewiston.

Below is a listing of 55+ shows I've completed. I very much look forward to hearing from you. Thanks for reading. LC VAN SAVAGE lcvs@comcast.net

WEEKLY RADIO SHOW - AMAZING MAINERS!

AMAZING MAINERS! SHOWS I'VE DONE.

JOE ANDREW – Love of Math, retired, still teaches it at 95.

KERRY AND DAUGHTER ELIZABETH NELSON--both suffer with Lyme Disease and have become involved advocates.

ALAN BRADSTREET – organizes parades, invents working musical instruments from cast-off things, teaches woodworking at Haystack, makes willow branch chairs.

BRIAN BRALEY – Heads Spindleworks, where developmentally disadvantaged adult artists create and sell their art.

ELIZABETH DRUCKER – Former professional ballerina in NYC, now has a successful Maine ballet school.

GRETCHEN EVANS – Lost her hearing forever after getting blown up in Afghanistan while serving in the US Army – now spends her life raising money to get hearing service dogs to veterans.

JACQUIE DELASSO – Staunch supporter of The Red Hat Society.

JAY BLUCK – Ice Carver with a very long list of year 'round customers, not just in Maine.

JEREMY D'ENTREMONT – Light House Expert. Has written 27 books on light houses, teaches the histories of existing Maine light houses.

CAROLYN BYRNE – Biologist—studies and knows everything about bats.

JIM DOBLE – Makes beautiful working musical instruments from nature, specializes in xylophones made from rock and glass & also makes huge gongs often used as therapy for troubled people.

LISA CROOK & BJ RUSSELL – Deeply in love with their hometown of Round Pond & eager to keep it old fashioned filled with caring hard-working neighbors.

MARG BUSCHMANN – Owns (and adores) 66 parrots and lots of other rescued animals.

MATT HUNT- Mountain climber and salesman for a huge rope making company, talks about how they're made and where used.

MICHELLE BYRAM – Went from being a waitress to a pig farmer to the maker of plant based beautiful and fragrant soaps now sold all over the world.

NINA SYLVIA – Art teacher whose dream was to be a figure skater, and now skates with a synchronized group of figure skating women of all ages.

PAM DOUGLAS – Hard working all her life, her dream was to open a beautiful, summertime outdoor ice cream “parlor” in her spare time and it became instantly successful.

PEAPOD JEWELERS – Mother and son operation---the both design and hand make jewelry with a peapod theme.

PHYLLIS BLACKSTONE – Professional story teller who also tells the history of stories and gathers people together for story-telling and poetry readings.

RAMONE HANLEY-WARREN – Selling artist but the show was about her being a Lavender farmer.

STACEY WELNER – Author of book TRAGEDY IN CASCO BAY- about a pleasure boat overturning en route to a lobster bake with 40 people on board in the 1940s. All died, most bodies found, no trace of the boat and never any answers as to how or why or exactly where it happened.

VALENTINE ELLSWORTH – Came to America from France with $11., taught herself English, worked at hard jobs and eventually became a French teacher at a private school in Maine after finally getting her teaching degrees and her USA citizenship.

MATT OWENS – Teacher of Teakwondo as a Marshall art and a way of leading a spiritual life.

CHAD CONLEY – Owner/operator/cook in the Palace Diner, the tiny, famous oldest diner in Maine.

BECKY SHEPHERD – Owner/operator/baker of WILD OATS restaurant which started out as a tiny tchotchke store, while dreaming of opening a huge bakery/lunch restaurant, offering frozen fresh home-made dinners too. Which she did.

CATHERINE CARTY wanted to own a candy store when she was young. She now owns 3, WILBUR'S OF MAINE, and her stores are never empty. She and her crew make a lot of the candies themselves.

DANA PERKINS – Ventriloquist, performs all over Maine and New England.

DAVE CHAPMAN- Comes from a long line of Mainers who have done great things for the state. So has Dave. He owns and runs Harpswell TV that has a rich roster of great local and important shows.

DAVID RICHARDS – Director of the Margaret Chase Smith library and museum.

JUDENE WALKER - Paranormal who helps people troubled by things that go bump in the night.

LADY HAIGHT ASHTON – A kind, educated, brilliant, spiritual, literate, articulate, beautiful bookish, funny, joyful witch.

PHIL TAYLOR - After a long and successful career as a helicopter pilot, Phil fulfilled an old dream and at sixty something became a firefighter.

RICHARD MERROW – Emu Farmer. Yes, emus. His stories about those Big Birds are hilarious and fascinating. Delicious eggs!

RICK CARNEY – Has acquired thousands of valuable treasures from diving in lakes and oceans and digging everywhere.

JIM DILL - Maine State Senator and pest Management Specialist and Cooperating Professor in the School of Biological Sciences.

AL HIPKINS – Square Dance teacher, caller and historian.

WENDY FLYNN – Guiding Eyes dog trainer---from puppy hood and on.

FORREST SUMNER – “Flyer” of huge model planes & astronomer.

NANCY HOFFMAN – Renowned accordion player, owner of Umbrella Museum on Peak's Island.

RICK ADAM – One-man band and puppeteer for children's entertainments.

SARAH LEVINE – Domestic rat rescuer and pet rat adoptions.

CONNOR WINN – Owner of axe throwing competition business.

AMY TOLK – Two Echo co-housing in Brunswick.

TIM MARTEL – Collector and repairer of antique clocks and instrumental in the restoration of a 90-year-old street clock in Portland Maine.

KIM DORSKY – With her crew she empties homes when their owners die.

The Heritage Radio
Society <wyar88.3@gmail.com>
to LC

Nov 14, 2020, 12:15 PM

Very possibly. Chances are that if Bob Bittner doesn't mind it, I probably won't hate it.

Any chance you could drop me a couple of eps to preview?

Thank you for your interest.

--

Heritage Radio Society Inc
James Woodman Brown, Executive Director
Station Manager WYAR-FM 88.3
Yarmouth, Maine

Mobile Phone: (207) 650-0581
Direct Email: j.w.brown@ieee.org

Your Contribution Matters!
http://www.wyar.org/index_files/page0008.htm

For More Information:
<http://www.wyar.org/>

LC Van Savage <lcvs@comcast.net>
to me

Nov 14, 2020, 12:46 PM

Hi Jim---I'm pretty sure Bib Bittner doesn't mind it since he asked me to do the show AMAZINGMAINERS! show in the first place on WJTO and WLAM--- and he's been patient and just great. I'll send over a couple of shows for your approval (I hope!) and thanks for answering. LC Van Savage www.lcvansavage.com

The Heritage Radio
Society <wyar88.3@gmail.com>
to LC

Nov 17, 2020, 11:09 AM

Good Morning LC:

"Amazing Mainers" is a "Go" with me. Let's get started