

Problems, Issues & Needs	Show	Description	Day, Date & Time Show Aired
After school activist that are being introduced in support of social skills training involve Acting classes orgnized by Acting Up Academy.	Produced announcements were aired 24/7 in January and February. Personal interviews with program organizers were carried live	Acting Up is an after school and weekend class designed to teach improved social skills and communication skills for young children and teens.	All shows, 24/7 carried live and recorded information about this program to recruit support from community leaders as well as participation by children.
		Host: Roger W Morgan Guest(s): local/regional/national sports and entertainment figures.	Week of 1/18/2021
Problems, Issues & Needs	Show	Description	Day, Date & Time Show Aired
Local "Business Person of the Year" is a program designed to inspire local businesses to compete by focusing on inter-personal and business skills that can help local businesses to improve their products and services to our local community in Coos Bay, Oregon	All programs, 24/7, carried produced announcements heralding the encouragement of nominations for this prestigious award along with ideas on how to improve local and regional business practices.	Host: Roger W Morgan Guest(s): local/regional recognized business leaders discussing the importance of better business practices to encourage greater service by local merchants and businesses.	Month of February, 2022. Information and encouragement was provided in the form of locally produced PSA's combined with prominent mentions on all programs, 24/7. Live calls were inserted into our morning program periodically throughout the month of February, '22.