Access to high-speed internet and digital tools is a crucial modern society resource to facilitate access to education, healthcare, job opportunities, and civic participation.

To address the disparities in access to technology across the nation, Congress passed the Digital Equity Act in Nov. 2021, appropriating $2.75 billion to help Americans improve access to technology. To receive this funding, each state is required to develop a digital opportunity plan.

The fascination with coffee started at an early age for Bob Carlson, the owner of Loon's Nest Coffee on the Gunflint Trail.

"I think I've drank coffee since I was a little kid," Carlson said.

His introduction to the world of coffee began with his father. Carlson would frequently go to work with his father at this machine shop on Saturdays, typically with a coffee in hand.

Story by youth volunteer Ezme Mundell

I've always been wondering about the dogs at WTIP, what their background life is like. In this story, I am going around WTIP finding people with dog stories to share. I interviewed three people who gave me a short and sweet story about their dog. I learned something new with about each dog. Listen to the full story in the audio below.

Story by youth volunteer Ezme Mundell

Kalli Hawkins and I biked from WTIP into town and then walked around talking to visitors of Grand Marais. We met a family from Blaine, MN, some visitors from Elbow Lake, MN. A lady from Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin, and a lady from Minneapolis!

I enjoyed talking to new people mainly when I got used to talking to people! I learned something new with every interview! Thank you to all the people who were willing to share their stories!

Story by WTIP Youth Volunteer Ezme Mundell

Hi, it's Ezme Mundell.

My sister (Beatrice) and I were biking up our driveway and came across a baby squirrel. I have to say that it was speedy! We stayed for a while watching the little Speedy squirrel we call scamper until a new little fella made an appearance, A SECOND SQUIRREL!
