Depending on the situation, a soldier's worst enemy could be--his uniform. Imagine being chased through a wooded area ... shirttail snagging branches ... speed and mobility lost. A similar principle applies to how you dress for spiritual war. On GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur shows you that when the battle gets tough, you won't last very long without first putting on--the belt of truthfulness. Join us for the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Tuesday, October 12 – The Breastplate of Righteousness, Part 1

If you were to contact GRACE TO YOU and ask, "Do you have any resources that can help me stop sinning?" They'd probably point you to the study that John MacArthur's currently making his way through. It's titled, The Believer's Armor. John MacArthur is going to examine how you can keep your enemy from wounding you in your most vital areas—your heart and your mind. Be listening for the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Wednesday, October 13 – The Breastplate of Righteousness, Part 2

Think of a time recently when you were tempted to lust, or gossip, or get angry. Was there something you could have done to keep from sinning? Is there something you can do to defeat every temptation? Bottom line, do you have a real choice not to sin when you're tempted? Find out when John MacArthur provides those answers on the next edition of GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, October 14 – The Shoes of the Gospel of Peace, Part 1

How many battles throughout history have been lost because the enemy attacked at an unexpected time—used creative tactics or weapons no one expected? Find out on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Friday, October 15 – The Shoes of the Gospel of Peace, Part 2

On GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur is going to show a piece of armor that can protect you against even Satan's fiercest attacks. It's called the shield of faith. How do you take hold of this shield and use it for all it's worth? Find out as John continues his series titled, The Believer's Armor on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Tuesday, October 19 – The Shield of Faith, Part 2

If you're a Christian, you're in danger every day. Maybe not from other people, but certainly from Satan. He wants to tempt you, discourage you, even make you wonder if Christianity is worth it. So how do you fend off his attacks? Find out on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Wednesday, October 20 – The Helmet of Salvation, Part 1-1

Sarah Winchester gained lasting fame for what's known today as the Winchester Mystery House. She ordered construction and reconstruction on her mansion that literally went on around the clock--for 38 years! It must have seemed there was no end in sight and maybe that's how you feel as you consider the spiritual battles in your life. Let John MacArthur show you how to stand up to Satan's attacks on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, October 21 – The Helmet of Salvation, Part 1-2

William Wilberforce spent much of his life urging the British parliament to ban the slave trade. He gave speeches and proposed laws and thanks largely to his perseverance, parliament not only outlawed the slave trade, but all slavery in the British Empire. In spiritual battles, you will have to fight again and again for what's right. And to do that, you're going to need endurance. John MacArthur is going to help you learn how to endure the enemy's attacks on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Friday, October 22 – The Helmet of Salvation, Part 2-1

If you know Christ, you have an amazing source of power. Power to understand and obey God's Word, power to say "No" to sin, and power to face hardship with joy. That includes even the fiercest trials caused by your supreme enemy, Satan himself. Question is, how do you tap into that power source? What does it take to live a victorious Christian life? Find out on GRACE TO YOU as John MacArthur continues his look at Ephesians chapter 6.

There's a common sales technique known as FUD. It stands for fear, uncertainty, and doubt. If you're a Christian and have ever worried about your eternal destiny—maybe you're questioning whether you're truly saved—Satan might be using this FUD technique on you. God's given you the helmet of salvation—a key piece of The Believer's Armor. That's also the title of John MacArthur's study on GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, October 26 – The Sword of the Spirit, Part 1

You've probably heard this statement applied to warfare, chess, or even football: the best defense is a good offense. But whatever the battle, you need both elements to win. That's especially true for your struggles against Satan. John MacArthur shows you one weapon that's both an offensive and defensive tool as he continues his look at The Believer's Armor, on GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, October 27 – The Sword of the Spirit, Part 2

Picture a soldier with no body armor, no weapons, not even camouflage. Clearly, he's not ready to face the enemy. Now consider a fight where the stakes are higher—the spiritual battles you face as a Christian. God's Word is a defensive help—and it's also the offensive force you need to deal with spiritual enemies. And the sword of the Spirit is what John MacArthur looks at today as he continues his study titled—The Believer's Armor—on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, October 28 – Praying at All Times, Part 1

The breastplate of righteousness, the shield of faith, the sword of the spirit. Even if you know how to use the tools, you still may not be ready for Satan's attacks. To activate your armor, you need one more ingredient. You need prayer. Praying at all times—that's the strategy for winning spiritual battles and it's the focus of John MacArthur's message on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Friday, October 29 – Praying at All Times, Part 2

It's said, nothing is discussed more and practiced less than prayer. You probably have to admit you've failed at some point to follow the Biblical command to pray without ceasing. But how do you do that? On the next GRACE TO YOU, explore with John MacArthur the link between constant prayer and The Believer's Armor that's at your disposal.

Monday, November 1 – The Glory of the Lord, Part 1

Imagine you've been traveling for hours . . . and you realize you forgot some important detail—you left a door unlocked . . . or a window open. What have they forgotten? Simply put, it's . . . The Real Meaning of Christmas. And that's the topic and title of the study John MacArthur begins today . . . on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, November 2 – The Glory of the Lord, Part 2

Who has the spirit of Christmas? According to one website, it's . . . “[people with] a generous and giving nature. Those who care about others. Those who have a kind word to say or a broad shoulder to lean on, display the ‘Spirit of Christmas.’” Today on GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur will show you that even the most generous person you know might still be missing The Real Meaning of Christmas.

Wednesday, November 3 – The Incarnation of the Triune God, Part 1

Even though it's still several weeks away, you've probably already started thinking about your Christmas “must-do” list. While those activities certainly have their place . . . how do you make sure they don't distract you from what matters most when it comes to your Christmas celebration? Consider that today on GRACE TO YOU, as John MacArthur continues his study titled, simply . . . The Real Meaning of Christmas.

Thursday, November 4 – The Incarnation of the Triune God, Part 2

It has a color and luster similar to gold, and it often forms in the same type of rock that gold does. But in the end, iron pyrite—commonly known as fool's gold—is worthless compared with the genuine article. As Christmas approaches, the world will get caught up in the secular traditions . . . the fool's gold, if you will . . . but miss what is truly valuable about the holiday. So today on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur, take a fresh look at the significance of the incarnation—God's taking on human flesh.

Friday, November 5 – The People Who Missed Christmas

Television stations run—and re-run—classic Christmas movies. Stores and businesses put up decorations everywhere. Companies of all kinds are running special Christmas promotions. So . . . in a world that is saturated with holiday themed messages . . . how could anyone miss Christmas? Could you be in danger of making that very mistake? Find out today on GRACE TO YOU, as John MacArthur, brings you a special message titled . . . “The People Who Missed Christmas.”

Monday, November 8 – Off with the Old, On with the New, Part 1-1

John MacArthur starts soon his series titled . . . The Portrait of a New Life. Of course, unlike a painting . . . this study isn't going to show you what a Christian looked like at a particular point in history. Instead, you'll see the attitudes and actions that should characterize every follower of Christ that's on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Tuesday, November 9 – Off with the Old, On with the New, Part 1-2

"Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—I took the one less traveled by, and that has made all the difference." Well, not to spiritualize that poem . . . but certainly you know the Christian road is the less-traveled way—as Scripture says, few find it. You can think of John MacArthur's current study on GRACE TO YOU as something of a road map . . . charting a course for growth in Christ.

Wednesday, November 10 – Off with the Old, On with the New, Part 2-1

It's been said, "the sun melts snow but hardens clay." And if you think about it, that's also a great analogy for the power of God's Word. For some it melts their resistance to the gospel, makes them softer, more sensitive sin. But it causes others to harden their hearts, run faster into evil, and farther from the Lord. John MacArthur examines this issue today on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, November 11 – Off with the Old, On with the New, Part 2-2

What is it that gives a life true meaning, real purpose? You'll find the answer on this edition of GRACE TO YOU . . . as John MacArthur brings into focus what he calls . . . The Portrait of a New Life. That's the title of his series from Ephesians 4.

Friday, November 12 – Principles of New Life

Is it OK to be angry when . . . your child is defiant or when a politician says something that attacks Christian values? How about when you scrape the paint on your car . . . when the dog chews up your new shoes . . . or your team loses the big game? When is it right to be angry? Or . . . is it never right for a Christian to lose his head? John MacArthur examines the issue of anger today, as well as truthful speech—two crucial elements in . . . The Portrait of a New Life.

Tuesday, November 16 – Walking in Love, Part 1-1

So, how does the Bible define love—the love Christians should have and demonstrate? What should it look like at home, at the office, in your neighborhood, and at church? Find out today on GRACE TO YOU as John MacArthur, continues his study called The Portrait of a New Life . . . showing you how, as a Christian, love gets radically redefined.

Wednesday, November 17 – Walking in Love Part 1-2

If you’re going to name the name of Christ—if you’re going to call yourself a Christian—you need to walk as Christ walked . . . and love as Christ loved. John MacArthur helps you see what walking in love means on this edition of GRACE TO YOU . . . as he continues a study he calls The Portrait of a New Life. It’s a series on cultivating the traits that honor God and strengthen your Christian testimony.

Thursday, November 18 – Walking in Love, Part 2-1

The Bible gives clear standards for what it means to be a Christian . . . and they go well beyond the externals that can be faked. John MacArthur examines those standards today on GRACE TO YOU . . . continuing his study called The Portrait of a New Life.

Friday, November 19 – Walking in Love, Part 2-2

Being confused about what love is can take you down a road with serious consequences—in fact, the most serious of consequences: eternal separation from God’s love. The Bible makes some bold claims. It says that Jesus is the only Savior. It says salvation is by grace through faith . . . not by works. And it says that every word of Scripture is from God. So, how can you be sure that’s all true? If you were asked to prove the Bible’s veracity, what would you say? Keep those questions in mind as John MacArthur looks at the greatest defense of Scripture ever written on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Series: God's Own Defense of Scripture

Monday, December 6 – God's Own, Part 1-2

Ever sat down to read the Bible because, well, you've been told it's a life-changing book? But when you're done reading, you don't notice much of a difference. What's missing? Why does the Bible seem like just another book? The problem could be this . . . you've forgotten . . . or maybe you've never been told . . . exactly what Scripture is . . . and how it can change your life. Consider that today on GRACE TO YOU as John MacArthur continues his study titled . . . God's Own Defense of Scripture.

Tuesday, December 7 – God's Own Defense of Scripture, Part 2-1

What do these verses mean? That's the most important question you can ask when reading the Bible. Of course, the answer isn't always obvious. Fact is, we all have questions . . . aren't always sure we know what a passage of Scripture means. Why that confusion? Does God want His Word to be hard to understand? Consider that today as John MacArthur looks to Psalm 19 . . . a passage that explains, in rich detail, what God says about the Bible.

Wednesday, December 8 – God's Own Defense of Scripture

One survey found that nearly 90 percent of Americans—Christian or not—own a copy of the Bible. Of course, owning a Bible and tapping into its life-changing power . . . those are two different things. So how can you be sure you're taking full advantage of Scripture and applying the biblical truth correctly? John MacArthur's going to answer those questions today on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, December 9 – Reaching the World, Part 1

Have you ever realized that there is an amazing privilege Christians have today that they won't have in heaven. I'm talking about evangelism . . . giving people the gospel . . . fulfilling what's known as the Great Commission. No believer is excused from this calling. Stay here on GRACE TO YOU, as John MacArthur shows you the necessary ingredients for effective evangelism.

Friday, December 10 – Reaching the World, Part 2

You may have never thought of it in these terms, but you and I are living in a lost world . . . made up of the people you see in your neighborhood . . . in your favorite restaurant . . . in stores . . . in schools . . . really everywhere. No doubt many of those lost people are individuals you know—friends, family members. On GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur looks closely at the responsibility you have to proclaim Christ.
