Series: Placed for a Purpose

Thursday, April 1 — Neighboring

We know we are to "love our neighbors," but what does it look like to love the actual neighbors who live around us? On FamilyLife Today, join hosts Dave and Ann Wilson as they talk with authors, Chris and Elizabeth McKinney, about their book, "Placed for a Purpose," and how to practice the art of neighboring.

Friday, April 2 — Radically Ordinary Hospitality

In today's world, it's easy to doubt we have what it takes to reach our neighbors for Christ. On FamilyLife Today, authors Chris and Elizabeth McKinney debunk that myth and talk with hosts Dave and Ann Wilson about discovering God's purpose for where He's placed us.

Series: No Perfect Parent

Monday, April 5 — Surrendering to God's Plan for My Kids

As parents, we often think about the future and what expectations and dreams we have for our children. But how do we balance our desires for their good with surrendering their lives to the One who created them? On FamilyLife Today, hosts Dave and Ann Wilson give insight on having plans for our kids, while understanding God has a bigger one.

Tuesday, April 6 — The Aim of Our Legacy

In the Bible, children are referred to as “arrows in the hand of a warrior,” and arrows are meant to be pointed at something and released. What’s our target? Join hosts Dave and Ann Wilson on FamilyLife Today as they discuss building a legacy with a strategic aim.

Wednesday, April 7 — Receiving God's Forgiveness in Parenting

We may never have award-winning memories of being the greatest of parents, but often the guilt and shame of our parenting mistakes can haunt us. How can we keep from being sidelined? On FamilyLife Today, listen as Dave and Ann Wilson share wisdom about recognizing Satan’s schemes and embracing God’s forgiveness.

Series: Your Hospitality Personality

Thursday, April 8 — Understanding Your Hospitality Personality

Hospitality is meant for the purpose of “loving our neighbor,” but often we can overcomplicate it and feel overwhelmed. On FamilyLife Today, hosts Dave and Ann Wilson interview Morgan Tyree about how learning our “hospitality personality” frees us from stress so that we can bless others.

Friday, April 9 — Hospitality in the Hard Times

There are times, like during the pandemic, when it’s challenging to figure out how to show hospitality. On FamilyLife Today, Morgan Tyree explains to Dave and Ann Wilson that knowing one’s hospitality gifting can help build strong connection with others and even pull together the rest of the family.

Series: Marriage Triggers

Monday, April 12 — Triggers In Marriage

Why are some of our biggest triggers exposed in our marriage relationship, and what do we do about them? Join hosts Dave and Ann Wilson as they discuss with Guy and Amber Lia real-life examples of hurt and healing, on FamilyLife Today.

Tuesday, April 13 — Breaking the Cycle of Fighting

How can we be outward focused and winsome to our friends and neighbors if we are constantly fighting each other? What needs to happen to break the cycle? On FamilyLife Today, Guy and Amber Lia speak to hosts Dave and Ann Wilson about how to deal with conflict and reflect Christ's love to one another.

Wednesday, April 14 — Hope for Dealing with Triggers in Marriage

Triggers in marriage can take many forms —like financial differences, not feeling loved, or intimacy problems —but there's hope! On FamilyLife Today, Guy and Amber Lia share with hosts Dave and Ann Wilson valuable insight on communication and the fulfillment we find in Christ.

Series: Parenting With Patience

Thursday, April 15 — Evaluating Our Anger as a Parent

On FamilyLife Today, Chap Bettis explains how to evaluate our anger toward our children. Anger is not always sinful, but can be destructive, so he talks with hosts Dave and Ann Wilson about having good desires for our kids and expressing those desires in constructive ways.

Friday, April 16 — Dealing With Problems Before They Begin

Our words are so important in managing our households, but sometimes our words get us in trouble. On FamilyLife Today's program, Chap Bettis discusses with hosts Dave and Ann Wilson the need for a strategy in the home and some practical ideas of what that can look like.

Series: Let's Talk

Monday, April 19 — Conversation Starters for Dads with Their Daughters

Girls long for a good relationship with their dads, but dads often have a hard time knowing how to talk to their daughters. That's why Michelle Watson Canfield wrote her most recent book, "Let's Talk." On FamilyLife Today, Michelle shares with hosts Dave and Ann Wilson conversation starters that can knit the hearts of dads and daughters together in a meaningful way.

Tuesday, April 20 — Communication Tips For Dads with Their Daughters

Men often like to cut to the bottom line of a conversation, but a girl's heart often opens by sharing words. And on FamilyLife Today, Michelle Watson Canfield bridges that gap by sharing practical communication tips with Dave and Ann Wilson, along with ideas of what to do when a daughter pulls away.

Wednesday, April 21 — If I Could Turn Back Time- Dads with Daughters

Dads, what do you wish your daughters would say about you when you are gone? It's never too late to win your daughter's heart. On FamilyLife Today, hosts Dave and Ann Wilson visit with Michelle Watson Canfield as she encourages fathers to stay invested in their daughters' lives.

Series: Lead Me

Thursday, April 22 — Moving Up and Moving Apart

On FamilyLife Today, Matt and Sarah Hammitt describe the many risk factors facing their marriage due to his musical career as the lead singer of the band Sanctus Real. Sarah persisted in her desire to resolve their issues and prioritize the marriage, but Matt found it easier to pour himself into his traveling musical career and avoid the conflict.

Friday, April 23 — Turning Toward Home

What if, as a dad, you got a chance to pick the brain of an older, wiser, more experienced dad? On FamilyLife Today, Bruce Goff, a relatively new dad with a toddler, gets to do just that with Bob Lepine, a veteran dad with grandchildren, and you get to hear the conversation.

Series: 100 Ways to Love Your Spouse

Monday, April 26 — How to Love Your Wife

What does it mean to love your wife like Christ loves the church? On FamilyLife Today, authors Matt and Lisa Jacobson tell how simple, daily gestures of love and kindness can make a big difference in a marriage. Hear them share with hosts Dave and Ann Wilson practical tips for loving and honoring your wife for the Lord.

Tuesday, April 27— How to Live in Love with Your Wife

When life threatens to beat you down, don't lose sight of each other. That's the advice authors Matt and Lisa Jacobson share with hosts, Dave and Ann Wilson on FamilyLife Today. The Jacobson's reflect on a particularly difficult time in their marriage—the birth of their fifth child, who was born with brain damage—and Matt explains what it means to "act like a man."

Series: Holy Sexuality and the Gospel

Wednesday, April 28 — What is Holy Sexuality?

On FamilyLife Today, Christopher Yuan explains the meaning of holy sexuality as prescribed in the Scriptures: chastity in singleness or faithfulness in marriage. Hear Yuan further explain to hosts, Dave and Ann Wilson, how Christians can find their identity in Christ, not sex.

Tuesday, April 29 — When Your Identity is in Christ

On FamilyLife Today, author Christopher Yuan, who left his homosexual lifestyle after believing in Jesus, talks freely about his identity as a Christian. Yuan explains to hosts, Dave and Ann Wilson, that when he lived as a gay man, being gay wasn't what he did but who he was, or so he thought. Hear more on FamilyLife Today.

Wednesday, April 30 — Finding Freedom

Christopher Yuan knows what it's like to be a captive. A former drug dealer and homosexual, Yuan shares with hosts, Dave and Ann Wilson, how God got his attention and eventually, his heart. Tune into FamilyLife Today when Yuan explains what it's like for him now that his identity is in Christ.

Series: Complement

Monday, May 3 — Choosing Together

Whether you really like your spouse or you aren't feeling anything, Aaron and Jamie Ivey, authors of "Complement," assert that "choosing together" in marriage is surprisingly beautiful. Listen as they talk with hosts Dave and Ann Wilson about complementing one another with purpose, on FamilyLife Today.

Tuesday, May 4 — Marriage as a Living Painting

What does God's love look like? Today on the broadcast, authors Aaron and Jamie Ivey share that just as two different colors can add depth and beauty to a canvas, a marriage of two people is a painting that can speak the truth about God to those who experience it, On FamilyLife Today.

Wednesday, May 5 — Cheerleading Your Spouse

In marriage, we can mistakenly assume that our spouses know how much we love them. On FamilyLife Today, authors Aaron and Jamie Ivey cheer us on to become our spouse's greatest cheerleader and to understand how vital it is to a marriage.

Series: Praying With and for Our Children

Thursday, May 6 — Teaching Your Kids to Pray

When teaching kids to pray, Nancy Guthrie admits that thank you's dominate, and requests follow. Guthrie's desire is to see children grounded in the Scriptures and practicing real prayer. If we want our kids to have an intimate relationship with God, we need to model that. That's on FamilyLife Today.

Friday, May 7 — Praying For Your Kids

Nancy Guthrie recalls a season in her parenting when she realized she was worrying a lot more than praying. She realized her desires needed to be shaped by the Word of God. Using the Scriptures to pray helps parents pray for even deeper things. Praying for our kids, on FamilyLife Today.

Series: The Marriage Challenge

Monday, May 10 — The Motivation for Financial Health

Financial expert Art Rainer shares how his parents' handling of the family finances influenced his own approach to money. Rainer reminds us that God wants believers to be conduits of His blessings, on FamilyLife Today.

Tuesday, May 11 — The Money Disruptors

Today on FamilyLife Today, Art Rainer talks about four different money personalities in marriage: the saver, spender, investor, and ignorer. He also points out how bad money habits, like hiding purchases, can derail a marriage.

Wednesday, May 12 — Great Money Milestones

Our purse strings are tied to our heartstrings. Financial advisor Art Rainer encourages believers to showcase the generosity of God by giving generously to those in need. He lists eight money milestones couples can aim for that can help them get their finances on track, today on FamilyLife Today.

Series: Smart Stepfamily Guide to Financial Planning

Thursday, May 13 — Yours, Mine, Ours, Theirs?

You can tell a lot about what a person values by the choices they make with money. Ron Deal says finances and personal values are especially complicated in blended families. He lists practical tools to help make asset management easier, on FamilyLife Today.

Friday, May 14 — Avoid Unintended Disinheritance

Conversations about money and inheritances can be uncomfortable. But wouldn't it be better to talk about it with family members while you can, rather than to leave it to the state to decide after you're gone? Ron Deal gives suggestions about how to make wise money decisions, on FamilyLife Today.

Series: (A)Typical Woman

Monday, May 17 — What Does It Mean To Be Wholly a Woman?

Author Abigail Dodds, a wife and mother to five, talks about the way men and women are inherently different from one another. The gifts of the Spirit, she reminds us, can be exhibited by all believers, regardless of gender. Hear more on FamilyLife Today.

Tuesday, May 18 — Using Your Gifting

Abigail Dodds says that despite the culture's depiction of women as warriors, women's bodies were made to do something very different. To understand a woman's role, you have to study how a woman is made. Men have 50% more body strength than women. Hear more on FamilyLife Today.

Wednesday, May 19 — What About Single Women?

Abigail Dodds teaches on the beauty of God's good design regarding gender. Women, Dodds explains, are absolutely just as fearless as men, but their physical reality naturally makes them nurturers. If women are created to bear life, then what about single women? Hear how single women can be nurturers and life-givers in their homes and communities, on FamilyLife Today.

Series: Forgiveness

Monday, April 5 – A Living Lesson on Forgiveness, Part 1

It has the power to preserve your marriage . . . keep your church from splitting . . . rescue a discarded friendship. I'm talking about forgiveness. And on GRACE TO YOU John MacArthur's going to launch a series on that key aspect of Christian living. It's simply titled . . . Forgiveness.

Tuesday, April 6 – A Living Lesson on Forgiveness, Part 2

It's a sad truth . . . the fact that even those you love most will—at times—let you down . . . and their sin will bring you hardship and pain. So how should you respond? Are there some sins you should not—or cannot—forgive? John MacArthur shows you how to mend those relationships in his study titled . . . Forgiveness.

Wednesday, April 7 – The Characteristics of One Who Forgives, Part 1

On the next GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur examines the issue of forgiveness - the title of his new study. It will help you see what a forgiving person looks like, and also lays out the expectations God puts on you to restore relationships that have broken down . . . and walks you through the actual process of restoration. Hear more from John MacArthur on the next Grace to You.

Thursday, April 8 – The Characteristics of One Who Forgives, Part 2

There will probably be many times in your life when a friend or family member—someone you trust—does something that costs you money, embarrassment . . . even real pain. How should you respond when that happens? Are there some sins you just shouldn't—or can't—forgive? Find out, on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Friday, April 9 – The Actions of One Who Forgives, Part 1

If someone were attacking you and a policeman arrived on the scene . . . you'd expect the officer to protect you . . . stop the attack . . . and arrest your assailant. Similarly, there's a certain reaction that's expected, even *demand*ed, of you—not just when you're wronged—but also when you wrong someone else. What is it? John MacArthur answers that on GRACE TO YOU.

Monday, April 12 – The Actions of One Who Forgives

What if a person needs your forgiveness again and again . . . commits the same offense—over and over? Is there a limit on how forgiving you can be—and should be? On GRACE TO YOU John MacArthur shows you what the Bible says about mending broken relationships . . . and what your view of forgiveness says about your relationship with God.

Tuesday, April 13 – The Motives of One Who Forgives

Mitsuo Fuchida (meet-SOO-oh Foo-SHEE-duh) led Japan's aerial assault on Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. After the war he heard about a woman who treated Japanese prisoners with kindness and love—even though the Japanese had killed her parents. This sparked Fuchida's interest in the gospel, and eventually led to his salvation. A key factor in his conversion, was the complete forgiveness he saw demonstrated by Christians. Hear more from John MacArthur on GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, April 14 – A Plan for Your Family: God's vs. the World's, Part 1

The family is the fundamental unit in society . . . and God is the designer of the family. He knows how families work best. So, how can you make sure your family is working the way God designed it? Find out on GRACE TO YOU as John MacArthur launches his study . . . The Fulfilled Family.

Thursday, April 15 – A Plan for Your Family: God's Vs. the World's, Part 1

Whether it's news reports about overwhelming support for gay marriage . . . television shows with adulterous story lines . . . or books that celebrate sexual sin . . . it's clear that society doesn't have a biblical view of sexuality, marriage, and family . . . not even close. Question is, when it comes to your marriage and family . . . are you following the world's plan or God's? Hear more, on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Friday, April 16 – A Plan for Your Family: God's Vs. the World's, Part 2

One Christian man described his marriage as harsh, cold, and loveless. Every day, he lingered at work rather than go home to his wife. Both wanted a divorce but they remained married . . . though only to keep the vow . . . "Till death do us part." Well, sadly, someone you know could be facing that situation right now. What can you do to repair a marriage that's starting to crumble . . . or seems beyond repair? Find out, on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Series: The Fulfilled Family

Monday, April 19 – God’s Pattern for Wives, Part 1

It’s no secret that good marriages and families don’t “just happen.” But many of the attitudes that God calls Christian husbands and wives to adopt—for a healthy family—the world calls old fashioned, inappropriate—even insulting. On GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur will help you separate truth from falsehood on these issues.

Tuesday, April 20 – God’s Pattern for Wives, Part 1

One influential feminist author said . . . “Being a housewife is an illegitimate profession. The choice ... to be a family maker is a choice that shouldn’t exist.” Well, you’ll find today’s message offers a slightly different perspective . . . stay here as John continues his most popular series . . . The Fulfilled Family, on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Wednesday, April 21 – God’s Pattern for Wives, Part 2

One housewife in Betty Friedan’s 1963 bestseller, The Feminine Mystique, complained that little in her daily routine was necessary or important. Sad to think that many women today probably still feel the same way—that their contributions in the home have no value. So, how can women find joy and fulfillment in the home—is that even possible? Find out, on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Thursday, April 22 – God’s Pattern for Wives, Part 2

“Love your wives as Christ loved the church”—that biblical standard for husbands couldn’t be higher. How can you ever hope to reach it? Well, the first step is making sure you know what the Bible means by “love.” On the next GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur takes you to 1 Corinthians chapter 13, the Bible’s “love chapter,” to show you that love is primarily what a husband does, not what he feels. Our lesson is part of John’s current study . . . The Fulfilled Family.

Friday, April 23 – God’s Pattern for Husbands, Part 2

“The Buck Stops Here.” A sign with those words sat on President Harry Truman’s desk during his eight years in the Oval Office. The motto symbolized his leadership style. As Truman explained more than once, those words meant there’s no shirking responsibility—someone has to be held accountable. Certainly a good motto for husbands to follow . . . and a biblical one . . . as you’ll see on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Monday, April 26 – God’s Pattern for Husbands, Part 2

Meet financial needs . . . teach your children right from wrong . . . shield your family from harm. Those are essential responsibilities of every husband. But what should a husband’s priority be? Consider that today as John MacArthur continues his series . . . The Fulfilled Family.

Tuesday, April 27 – God’s Pattern for Children, Part 1

Thousands of American moms and dads—instead of hiring a local tutor to help their child, outsource tutoring to a foreign company which is done over the Internet. But while long-distance education may help your child grow academically . . . you can’t afford to outsource your child’s spiritual training. God intends for that to happen in the home. On GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur looks at biblical ways Christian parents can teach godliness to their kids.

Wednesday, April 28 – God’s Pattern for Children, Part 1

When influential voices try to make it illegal for parents to spank their own children . . . any wonder that Christian parents think twice about how they correct their kids? But instead of looking to government for parenting techniques, I urge you to look to the One who created families—God, and His Word—for counsel on how to discipline the right way. John MacArthur does that today on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, April 29 – God’s Pattern for Children, Part 2

What does the Bible say about our moral condition—even before we’re born? It would be hard to overstate just how important that question is. The answer’s going to affect every aspect of your parenting. Hear more, on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Friday, April 30 – God’s Pattern for Children, Part 2

What do children need most? If you asked that question in a survey, you’d get answers such as . . . a good education . . . positive encouragement . . . unconditional love. Now, those are all good things, even necessary things. But none of them address the most important issue for children . . . namely . . . their need for salvation. So, how can you raise your kids so that—as much as it can depend on you—they’ll commit their lives to Christ? Find out on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, May 4 – God's Pattern for Parents, Part 1

No parent can force his or her child to follow Jesus Christ. But every Christian parent wants an answer to the question . . . What can I do—can I do anything at all—to help my child want to embrace Christ? John MacArthur answers this important question on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, May 5 – God's Pattern for Parents, Part 2

What does it take to protect your children from ungodly influences? As you think about protecting your kids, consider this: Is it possible to create other problems—even bigger problems—as you shelter them? Bottom line, how can you teach your children to reject the world's value system . . . but stay involved in the world as Scripture teaches? John MacArthur considers those questions on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, May 6 – God's Pattern for Parents, Part 2

What are your hopes for your son or daughter? How do you assist them in achieving those goals? Similarly, how do you keep your child from rebelling against your authority, and ignoring the help you're trying to give them? Find out on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Friday, May 7 – The Key to Maintaining Family Unity

Despite the attacks that threaten to destroy it, the family still remains a cultural adhesive . . . it stirs feelings of loyalty, and ties people together. But that doesn't mean all families today are truly close . . . all that they should be. That may even be true in your home . . . your Christian home. So how do you knit your family together and know true unity? Hear more on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Monday, May 10 – The Extent of the Believer’s Security

Perhaps it’s a question you’ve wrestled with. Is your salvation secure? How can you be certain you’re truly—and permanently—saved? On the next GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur answers those crucial questions in the study he starts today. It’s titled . . . The Grip of God.

Tuesday, May 11 – The Extent of the Believer’s Security

You may believe everything Scripture says about God’s goodness . . . mercy . . . and protective power. But how can the Bible possibly claim that hard trials are actually good for you? Find out on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Wednesday, May 12 – The Recipients, Source, and Certainty of Security

It’s certainly a blessing to be chosen class valedictorian . . . most valuable player . . . or employee of the month. Fact is, there’s only one thing you could be selected for that really matters . . . and matters for eternity. John MacArthur explains that today on GRACE TO YOU, as he shows you what it means to be chosen by God . . . to know that His love for you will never wane.

Thursday, May 13 – The Recipients, Source, and Certainty of Security

If you went to the doctor and he seemed to know nothing about human anatomy, disease, or medicine—well . . . you’d be smart to go elsewhere . . . because that guy’s clearly no doctor. Sadly, some people see no problem when a person claims to be a Christian . . . but his actions, attitudes, and way of life bear no resemblance to what the Bible says a Christian should be. Hear more on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Friday, May 14 – The Purpose of Salvation

It’s been called the greatest of all miracles . . . God granting salvation to an unworthy sinner. That right there—the fact that we’re unworthy—helps us understand why the miracle of salvation is so great. But what’s the reason behind that gracious act? Why would God . . . who sees all our sin and knows how undeserving we are . . . why would He save us? Find out on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Monday, May 17 – The Purpose of Salvation

You may know that God is holy . . . you're a sinner . . . and the penalty for sin is death. And you may have repented of your sin . . . and turned in faith to Christ. Yet with all that, do you sometimes wonder . . . "Has God really saved me forever?" Hear more from John MacArthur on GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, May 18 – The Progress of Salvation, Part 1

There is great comfort for you—if you're a Christian—in looking ahead—knowing God has a plan for you . . . that He's secured your future in heaven. John MacArthur looks at God's foreknowledge . . . and what it means for your salvation . . . today on GRACE TO YOU. It's part of his study titled . . . The Grip of God.

Wednesday, May 19 – The Progress of Salvation, Part 2

A theater owner once offered free admission, though with one important condition: Each "guest" had to pay to get out at the end of the film! Sadly, a good many people hold a similar view of salvation thinking the free gift of eternal life isn't free at all—you have to pay for it—and on top of that, you can never be fully assured of your salvation. What encouragement would you have for someone with that mindset? Hear more from John MacArthur on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, May 20 – Salvation is Irrevocable, Part 2

On good days, God is our focus from morning till night, and everything seems to go well. But on bad days, we keep God in the background and feel battered by sin at day's end. If you're ever going to question the legitimacy of your salvation, undoubtedly it's on one of those "bad days." But while what we think and feel about salvation may change, salvation itself does not—it's irrevocable. Hear more on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Friday, May 21 – Salvation is Irrevocable, Part 2

Charles Spurgeon said, if he didn't believe that salvation is permanent—that once you're saved, you're saved forever—he "should be of all men the most miserable, because [he would] lack any ground for comfort." Well, friend, how about you—do you have assurance that you're saved for good . . . that right now you're in the permanent grip of God? Hear more from John MacArthur on GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, May 25 – Salvation is Irrevocable, Part 3

Perhaps you recently yielded to a temptation that you'd never struggled with before . . . or maybe you wrestle with the same temptation day after day. How does that sin affect your ultimate standing with God? Is it possible to sin so badly that God would withdraw His saving grace from you? John MacArthur answers that on GRACE TO YOU.

Series: Mishandled

Wednesday, May 26 – Abusing the Poor, Part 1

"Judge not, lest you be judged" . . . the "Widow's Mites" . . . the "Parable of the Prodigal Son" . . . you have probably heard sermons on all those passages. They're popular and contain foundational biblical doctrines. But most people—perhaps even you—don't understand what those passages actually mean. John MacArthur explains on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, May 27 – Abusing the Poor, Part 2

If you've spent much time in a church, you've likely heard about the widow and her two mites . . . and probably in a sermon about being generous with your money. Or perhaps you've used that passage as a proof-text when arguing the merits of sacrificial giving. But is that what this passage is about? John MacArthur's answer might surprise you today on GRACE TO YOU.

Friday, May 28 – The Childlikeness of Believers: Confronting Sin

"For where two or three are gathered in my name, I'm in their midst." Would it surprise you to hear that, that verse doesn't apply to your church's mid-week prayer meeting . . . or the prayers you and your spouse share? But if this famous passage has nothing to do with prayer . . . what is it about? Can you even know for sure? John MacArthur's going to show you, on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, June 1 – Stop Criticizing, Part 1

It's often called the unbeliever's favorite verse. Matthew 7:1, "Do not judge, so that you will not be judged." Perhaps you've heard it quoted by those defending an unbiblical lifestyle. On the next GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur helps you understand that verse in its proper context.

Wednesday, June 2 – Stop Criticizing, Part 2

If you've ever tried to speak out against dishonesty at work . . . or evangelize a neighbor trapped in a sinful lifestyle . . . perhaps you've been told, "Judge not, that you be not judged." Sadly, for many people that verse is a convenient defense against calls for repentance. But was Jesus really saying we shouldn't judge sin? John MacArthur answers that on the next GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, June 3 – The Tale of Two Sons, Part 1

It's a story so ubiquitous that people across the globe are familiar with the plot, even if they're not Christians. I'm talking about the Parable of the Prodigal Son. Monday, June 14 – God’s View of Homosexuality, Part 1

On today’s GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur addresses a topic we’re hearing about more than ever these days . . . homosexuality. With so much focus on same-sex marriage, gender identity, and related issues one thing’s crucial for you to know: What does the Bible say? Find out on GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, June 15 – God’s View of Homosexuality, Part 1

Many churches today have revised their long-held beliefs about homosexuality . . . and now approve of—even sanction—same-sex marriage. Obviously, churches that follow this path are enjoying the world’s praise . . . but are they honoring God and submitting to what the Bible says about homosexuality? Find out on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Wednesday, June 16 – God’s View of Homosexuality, Part 2

In a debate on homosexuality . . . a major news network broadcaster, who supports gay marriage, said “It’s time for the Bible to be amended.” Now, you may think it’s dangerous to change Scripture, but the truth is, many churches and church leaders are effectively amending the Bible by shifting their positions on homosexuality. How do you avoid that danger? Find out from John MacArthur on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, June 17 – God’s View of Homosexuality, Part 2

Nature or nurture? It’s an age-old question. Are you a product of your genes or your environment? Nowhere is that debate more heated than in the matter of homosexuality. How do people of the same sex end up desiring each other? Are they making a choice . . . or are they born homosexual and are simply following their true nature? Hear more on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Friday, June 18 – How to Confess Your Sins

It’s one of the first lessons new Christians are taught: Sin needs to be confessed. But what does confession that pleases the Lord actually look like? And why do you need to confess your daily sins if they are already forgiven? John MacArthur gives you answers on GRACE TO YOU.

Monday, June 21 – How to Study Scripture

You may have just entered the Christian ranks . . . or maybe you're something of a veteran. But even if you've earned a stripe or two, there's always something you can learn by getting back to the basics. Experience what you might call basic training for the Christian life, on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Tuesday, June 22 – How to Study Scripture, Part 2

Charles Spurgeon put it clearly: "If you wish to know God, you must know His Word. If you wish to perceive His power, you must see how He works by His Word." Studying Scripture . . . seeing who Jesus is . . . applying what the Bible says about spiritual growth . . . that's foundational to life as a Christian. So today John MacArthur's going to help you get more out of your time in God's Word. He's answering some of the most common questions people have about studying the Bible. That's on GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, June 23 – How to Pray, Part 1

Martin Luther said, "Just as it's the business of tailors to make clothes and cobblers to make shoes, so it's the business of Christians to pray." Certainly, there's no more natural response for the believer saved by grace than to praise and worship God in prayer. John MacArthur explains on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, June 24 – How to Pray, Part 2

On today's GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur answers questions from the members of his local church on the topic of prayer . . . perhaps some questions you've wrestled with in your own life. And if you'd like more resources on prayer, I'd encourage you to visit our website . . . G-T-Y dot ORG. There you'll find numerous sermons and blog articles that explain what prayer is and how you can pray effectively.

Friday, June 25 – How to Function in the Body

You know that Jesus is building His church with a variety of people . . . from different backgrounds . . . with all sorts of personalities and gifts. But is that simply for diversity sake? Or is there more to it—a more profound reason? John MacArthur works through those questions on GRACE TO YOU.

From the pastor, to the nursery director, to the audio guy . . . the local church has a lot of different parts all vital to its life. So, what's your role? If you're not sure, how do you find out? Hear more on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Tuesday, June 29 – How to Witness, Part 1

Today John MacArthur focuses on the single most important reason Christians are on earth . . . the call to be witnesses for Christ. Question is . . . How do you know if you're really carrying out the great commission . . . if you're witnessing the right way? Do you need training . . . to share the gospel? And why witness when God chooses whom He saves? Hear more on GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Wednesday, June 30 – How to Witness, Part 2

When a co-worker asks about your faith . . . when a neighbor wants to know about your church . . . when a friend invites you over for dinner . . . how do you make the most of those opportunities for evangelism? John MacArthur explains on GRACE TO YOU.

SERIES — Gun Lap: Staying In the Race with Purpose, with Robert Wolgemuth

Thursday, June 17 — What is a Gun Lap?

Think of your life as a long-distance race. As you approach the end of the race, it might be tempting to peter out or even give up. Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth's husband, Robert encourages all of us to press on and run with intentionality, Thursday/tomorrow/today on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Friday, June 18 — Marriage in Your Gun Lap

If you or your spouse are in your 50's or 60's or beyond, you're closing in on what Robert Wolgemuth calls the "gun lap" of your race. And, your marriage will go through some changes. Friday/Tomorrow/Today on REVIVE OUR HEARTS, Robert and Nancy Wolgemuth and Dannah Gresh will help you discover how to encourage and support your spouse in the midst of the challenges. That's at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

SERIES — Lessons from the Life of Joshua (Part 7): Indispensable Ingredients for Life

Monday, June 21 — God Will Never Leave You

God is with you, right now. It's a simple truth with some profound applications. Gain a new appreciation for God's presence in your life, Monday/tomorrow/today on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Tuesday, June 22 — God's Presence in Your Life

Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth says the presence of God is everything. Without Him, you cannot succeed. And with Him, you cannot fail. Learn why the presence of God is so important, Tuesday/tomorrow/today on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Wednesday, June 23 — Keeping God's Word at the Center

What role should the public reading of the Bible have in a church service? Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth has observed something about the teachers who have most impacted her life. They put the Word of God ahead of their own thoughts. Hear how Scripture should shape teaching in our churches, Wednesday/tomorrow/today on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Thursday, June 24 — Planting Your Life in God's Word

The word "meditation" brings up several connotations, and some of them are viewed with a lot of suspicion within the church. Yet, we're told to meditate on God's Word. Find out what that means, Thursday/tomorrow/today on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth at (Time:____) on (Station:____).

Friday, June 25 — Infusing God's Word into Your Day

In busy seasons of life, you need the Word of God more than ever. Learn how to meditate on the Bible, even through busy times. That's Friday/tomorrow/today on REVIVE OUR HEARTS with Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth at (Time:____) on (Station:____).
