

	The following is a list of the most significant programs broadcast by this station during the past quarter in response to community issues.
	KRNN Quarterly Issues/Programs List
	2021 Q2
	Issue	Program	Date	Time	Length	Description
1	Livelihood of musicians and artists	Juneau Afternoon	4/1/2021	4:45 PM	12 min	Guests promote the Alaskak Folk Festival, happening online this year, and opportunities to support musicians through tipping during virtual performances
2	COVID 19 vaccination rates	Folk Alley	4/5/2021	7:59 AM	29 sec	Rotating PSAs from the City and Borough of Juneau with information about the COVID 19 vaccine and vaccination clinics
3	Gender wage gap	Juneau Afternoon	4/6/2021	4:40 PM	14 min	Interview with State of Alaska Department of Labor economist about the impacts of the 2016 recession on men and women's wages
4	Slip-trip-fall hazards for elders	Juneau Afternoon	4/7/2021	4:50 PM	7.5 min	Social worker promotes online tai chi classes for Juneau seniors to improve strength and stability and reduce falls
5	Employment opportunities for African Americans	Juneau Afternoon	4/8/2021	4:00 PM	59 min	The Black Awareness Association of Juneau curates a conversation about the role of Black fraternities and sororities in professional development and social networking
6	Carbon emissions and climate change	Juneau Afternoon	4/12/2021	4:00 PM	22 min	Interview with local advocates for renewable energy sources celebrate the introduction of the City and Borough of Juneau's first electric bus
7	Shortage of childcare services	Juneau Afternoon	4/14/2021	4:25 PM	10 min	Southeast Alaska Association for the Education of Young Children (AEYC) and the Central Council of Tlingit and Haida Indian Tribes of Alaska (CCTHITA) discuss a collaborative training for childcare professionals
8	Food insecurity during the pandemic	Juneau Afternoon	4/14/2021	4:00 PM	9 min	Alaska Travel Industry Association organizes a community food drive for Southeast Alaska Food Bank
9	Institutional racism in the federal tax system	Juneau Afternoon	4/15/2021	4:00 PM	59 min	The Black Awareness Association of Juneau interviews a financial advisor about racial disparities in taxes, banking and financial investments.
10	Mitigating the spread of COVID-19	Performance Today	5/13/2021	2:20 PM	29 sec	Rotating PSAs from Bartlett Regional Hospital encouraging behaviors that reduce the spread of the COVID-19 virus