WTQR
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

---

WTQR provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Alzheimers: Scott Herrick - North Carolina Director of Public Policy, Alzheimer's Association and Steve Dozier - Co-Chair of Walk to End Alzheimer's, Guilford County. Scott and Steve talk to us about the current status of Alzheimer's today. How this disease affects individuals and families and what kind of medical advances are being made to fight this disease.
- Autism: David is the Communications Director for the Autism Society of North Carolina. David talked about the different types of Autism, some of the facts and myths of Autism and how the Autism Society helps local families in The Triad who have family members with Autism.
- Being a community volunteer: Changes in the Master Gardener training are making it easier for people to be a part of this volunteer program
- Childhood Cancer: Mandie (tm)s Miles is a Nonprofit created by Michelle Manriquez in honor of her daughter Mandie. She passed away June 7th 2018 with brain cancer while she was a senior in High School. Mandie's Miles is an advocate for the Brenner Children (tm)s Pediatric Brain Tumor Program, the region (tm)s only dedicated program, offering experts devoted to treating children and adolescents with brain and spinal cord tumors, a patient-centered and collaborative approach, access to the latest treatments, and cutting-edge research. . With great determination and collaboration, we as a community, can create awareness for children, along with their families, in finding knowledge, strength, and hope. Passionate to a cause that may not soon disappear, we are taking Mandie's dreams and giving them wings to research the opportunity to simply live. <https://mandiesmiles.org/>
- Community and School Gardens: Community Gardens seek to bring together people in the community to grow fruits, vegetables, flowers and herbs on common ground. A school garden is an outdoor classroom: a living laboratory where gardeners of all ages learn by observing and doing. There are currently over 140 community gardens in Guilford County.
- Culture and History: Teresa Loflin tells us about some of the history of High Point and some of the events and exhibits available at the High Point Museum

- Diabetes: Genetics and Prevention : iHeartRadio (tm)s A Look Into Diabetes: Genetics and Prevention takes a closer look at what it means to live with diabetes, the risk factors of prediabetes and the role genetics play in preventing and understanding the disease better. <
- Financial Literacy: Shameca Battle is the Family and Consumer Sciences Agent with the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service in Guilford County and she tells us how to save some money over the holidays.
- Food Safety: Raven Tuffin is the Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program Assistant with the North Carolina Cooperative Extension Service in Guilford County and she updates us on the latest science of cooking meats and how we should not wash meats before cooking them to prevent spreading germs around the kitchen.
- Health care for people with limited incomes: Helping people help others is the motto of The Grownups Benefit, an organization providing hope, love, and funds for families in our own community that are experiencing financial hardship brought on by a health crisis. We also provide Scholarships to deserving seniors from area high schools and fund Play it Forward, a program that provides sporting equipment and covers various fees for those families in which this would prove to be a hardship
- Helping men and women just out of prison: The program is set up to assist formerly incarcerated individuals in starting their own business and engaging in entrepreneurship by providing resources, mentorship and hope. Our vision: To reduce the rate of recidivism by providing an alternative path to financial stability and success.
- Helping Senior Citizens in our community: Senior services of forsyth county has numerous programs to help the elderly in our community. We discussed meals on wheels and other types of programs that can help senior citizens in the area to maintain good health get help.
- Holiday Toys for needy children: Twin City Santa's "Miracle on 5th Street" Christmas Party serves to collect holiday toys for distribution through the Salvation Army's annual toy drive. Twin City Santa is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization.
- Kick off for Toys For Tots: We discussed the kickoff for the Toys For Tots 2019 campaign that is coming up this week at the Field Of Heros in Kernersville. We also talked about the upcoming toy drive and how much money they hope to raise to buy toys for local kids for this Christmas.
- Livestock Farming Training: Cole discussed programs to train local people to farm livestock. The cooperative extension service has a program where local people who would like to learn to become livestock farmers can take free courses to learn how to get into the business. This benefits the local economy by providing jobs for local people interested in farming.
