KWHN
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

KWHN provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Community: We Are Empowered national programming from the Kaiser Foundation covering and AIDS initiative
 - Education: An interview with Laura DeCanter and Marty Wilson from the Crawford Co. Adult Ed. Center. Topics discussed were the requirements to get a GED, ESL and taking classes locally through Vincennes University
 - Government: An interview with Fort Smith City Manager Ray Gosack about the city's accomplishments in 2013 as well as plans for 2014 such as street improvements and the Aquatic Center at Ben Geren Park
 - Health: An interview with Debbie Krauss and Angie Clegg from the Reynolds Cancer Support House about the upcoming Wine and Roses. We also discussed the history of the facility
 - Jobs and Economy: An interview with Kasey Moran from Trac Staffing about the current state of the workforce in the River Valley as well as how businesses are and will be affected by the Affordable Care Act
 - Legal: An Interview with Denise Basham and David Strickland from Casa about volunteer opportunities and an upcoming volunteer workshop
 - Medical: An Interview with Mike Carter from the Eastern Oklahoma Medical Center about problems the hospital has faced since the CMS survey was taken. We discussed changes that need to be made and how a tax referendum may have to be scheduled
 - Technology: An interview with Emerson Evans about Connect Arkansas which helps people get internet access in parts of the state that are underserved
