Health Watch 2nd Quarter 2014

Topic	Show	Date	Duration	Synopsis
Mammogram Study	5pm	4/01/2014	4:49	Health experts often disagree on when women should have their first mammogram... And how often they should be screened. Now a new study from Harvard University tries to summarize the risks and benefits of the standardized test.
Sodium Levels	5pm	4/02/2014	1:15	Control recommends limiting sodium from 15 to 23-hundred milligrams a day. But now some experts say that's unnecessarily and unrealistically low. They say a more reasonable and high range of sodium consumption is safe, and may actually be healthier for people *without high blood pressure. The new review of research showed the ideal daily sodium intake is 27-hundred to five-thousand milligrams...which is already followed by about 95-percent of the world's population.
TV & Smoking	5pm	4/04/2014	2:05	A new study suggests less tobacco use on television ... may be linked to the fall in smoking rates over the past 50 years. Since the early 1960's, smoking prevalence among American adults has fallen by an average of two packs less per adult -- per year. Researchers found that trend is mirrored by a sharp decline in the number of scenes involving smoking tobacco in prime time T-V. In fact, experts say the drop in T-V tobacco use has had half as much of an impact on falling smoking rates...as the higher price of cigarettes.
Teen Pregnancy	5pm	4/08/2014	2:08	Nearly three out of four teenagers ages 15 to 17 say they have not yet become sexually active. /That's the good news out a new report from the Centers For Disease Control.

				the report says the birth rate among teenagers declined from 19-91 to 20-12. Most of the teenagers who did say they were sexually active also reported no formal sex education classes before their first sexual experience. The C-D-C report suggests earlier sex ed may help delay sexual activity in teens.
Bionic Eye	5pm	4/08/2014	3:55	it may sound like science fiction of a 70's T-V show. but now for the first time surgeons are implanting a new bionic eye device that's giving some blind patients the gift of sight.
Teen Pregnancy	5pm	4/09/2014	2:08	Nearly three out of four teenagers ages 15 to 17 say they have not yet become sexually active. That's the good news out a new report from the Centers For Disease Control. the report says the birth rate among teenagers declined from 19-91 to 20-12. Most of the teenagers who did say they were sexually active also reported no formal sex education classes before their first sexual experience. The C-D-C report suggests earlier sex ed may help delay sexual activity in teens.
Jet Lag App	5pm	4/10/2014	2:25	And it's already in the form of a new app for your phone or tablet. Researchers at The University of Michigan used a mathematical model to determine when a traveler will be exposed to blue light, the wavelength that has the most significant impact on circadian rhythm. Users enter in the typical amount of light and dark they experience in their current time zone, then select the time zone where they are traveling and how often they plan to be outdoors. The app creates a schedule for one hour each day when to seek the brightest light possible, and another hour when to be in the dark. Researchers found the app can have a traveler adjusted to a new time zone in about three days.

Exercise COPD	5pm	4/11/2014	2:02	A study from health company Kaiser Permanente says people with the pulmonary disease who regularly exercise reduce their time in the hospital. C-O-P-D causes air-flow blockages and breathing problems that often require hospitalization. Experts say that at least 150 minutes of exercise per week... Cut the risk of a patient having to be re-admitted within a month of a hospital stay.
A New Way to Hear	5pm	4/12/2014	3:25	imagine being born profoundly deaf - missing the vital nerve needed for you to hear. without it, there were no options - until now. For one young boy... A new hearing journey has just begun, thanks to a remarkable device
Type Two Diabetes	5pm	4/17/2014	1:01	Americans with type two diabetes apparently doing a better job of managing their condition. the centers for Disease Control found complications from high blood sugar have declined significantly among these patients in the last 20 years. Those complications include heart problems, kidney failure and amputations. The C-D-C says doctors are doing a better job of identifying and treating potential complications, but there's still room for improvement.
Impact of Bullies	5pm	4/18/2014	1:59	/Experts in Great Britain followed more than seven thousand children from grade school through the age of 50. they found those who were bullied were more likely to have poor physical and mental health by middle age. they were also more likely to be depressed and suffer from anxiety or suicidal thoughts. men who were bullied were more likely to unemployed.
Codeine & Kids	5pm	4/21/2014	1:11	Yet a study by the University of California San Francisco found thousands of kids were still getting

				pain killers with codeine. they reviewed emergency room data for kids ages three to 17 during a ten year period. they said kids eight to 12 years old were most likely to get a prescription for codeine. Researchers say the drug can be fatal in some cases to some children and may be ineffective in other cases.
Migraine Headaches	5pm	4/23/2014	2:29	/The drugs target a protein that's recently been linked to migraines. The medicine was tested in patients who averaged up to 14 migraine headaches per month. One drug helped reduce migraine frequency by 66-percent. The second drug had similar results but caused more side effects such as pain in the abdomen. Experts say the findings are promising, but larger studies are needed.
Watching the Waistline	5pm	4/25/2014	1:59	a new study compared the members of the military who were overweight stationed at posts at both low altitudes and high altitudes. Researchers with the U-S Air Force found those in higher elevations had a substantially lower risk of progressing to obesity. Experts say hormones involved in appetite control rise at high altitudes -- but more research is needed.
Train Like Olympians	5pm	4/27/2014	3:56	Many of us are on the quest to get fit. But, some workout warriors don't know the limits of their abilities. As K-Y-3's Lisa Rose shows us, there's a new program that can get you the same advice and workouts as the pros
Weekend Warriors	9:30 pm	4/27/2014	3:56	Many of us are on the quest to get fit. But, some workout warriors don't know the limits of their abilities. As K-Y-3's Lisa Rose shows us, there's a new program that can get you the same advice and workouts-- as the pros.
Air Quality	5pm	4/30/2014	1:59	there's a new grade card on *air *quality in the United State This survey comes from the American Lung Association.

				Nationwide, it says particle pollution is down... But smog levels are higher than last year. While many counties in Missouri and Arkansas did not have data to report for an assessment, a few did. ///According to this report card, Greene county received a grade of "D" for its air quality
Preventable Disease	5pm	5/1/2014	2:09	The centers for Disease Control looked at deaths from several different causes--- including heart disease, lung illness, stroke and accidental injuries. Experts found that more than one hundred thousand deaths could have been prevented, if people living in less healthy states had adopted the practices of people living in healthier states.
ADHD Academic Edge	5pm	5/2/2014	2:06	Maybe you've heard of this... it involves the medicine used to treat A-D-H-D. Researchers at a New York hospital surveyed more than six hundred college students at an ivy league school. hey found 20-percent of the students admitted to mis-using A-D-H-D medicine to help them do better in class at least once. A-D-H-D medicine is a stimulant. The study found students who played a varsity sport... Or were affiliated with the Greek system were more likely to mis-use A-D-H-D meds.
Baby Gate Concerns	5pm	5/5/2014	2:55	but a report from a children's hospital in Ohio says nearly two thousand kids are going to the emergency room every year because they get hurt from falling through or climbing on these gates. The hospital says most of the injuries are not serious. But a lot come from using the wrong type of gates in the wrong places. Pressure mounted gates are great at the bottom of the stairs or between rooms, but you don't want to use a pressure mounted gate at the top of the stairs because they're too easily pushed through."

Garlic Heart	5pm	5/6/2014	1:13	While we're not talking about the garlic you eat, it is a form of garlic you can get at any health food store. That's odorless, so no worries about constant garlic breath. it's called aged kyolic garlic. In a study, patients that began with definite blockage, found after taking two pills in the morning and night, that part of the blockage had actually gone away. The garlic supplements had actually reversed the damage. While there is still research to be done, doctors found no negative side effects
Don't Fight Live Longer	5pm	5/9/2014	2:09	a study of 10-thousand middle aged men and women found people who frequently argue with partners or children have a 50 to 100-percent higher risk of death from any cause -- compared to those who rarely quarrel. That risk was even higher for those who had persistent squabbles with family, neighbors and friends -- as well as unemployed people and men who felt pressure from their female partners.
Truvada Recommended	5pm	5/15/2014	2:05	It is shown to be 90-percent effective in reducing new infections. Users should have an H-I-V test before beginning this treatment, to be sure they're not already infected. The C-D-C says about 50-thousand people are diagnosed with H-I-V each year.
MERS In the US	5pm	5/18/2014	3:52	There's new concerns today about the possibility of the spread of the MERS virus here in the U-S. It has been compared to the SARS outbreak of more than a decade ago. Doctor Nancy Snyderman shows us - A third person in the United States has tested positive for MERS antibodies.
MERS Spreading	5pm	5/19/2014	4:03	health officials are reporting the first person-to-person spread of a mysterious Middle East virus in the United States.

Conflicts Blood Pressure	5pm	6/9/2014	2:09	Some fascinating discoveries about what makes a woman's blood pressure go up. Believe it or not... It's not the husband or the kids That's according to a study at Carnegie Mellon University. Researchers found arguments or other aggravations that come from a woman's friends could cause her to have a significant jump in blood pressure. The experts say sometimes that blood pressure never goes back down. The impact was most prevalent in women under the age of 65. Scientists did not see the same effect in men. The study says negative interactions with children or spouses in most cases had no effect on blood pressure.

Diabetes Rates	5pm	6/10/2014	1:09	Steve and Emily, this new information comes from the Centers for Disease Control... Based on a survey taken a couple of years ago. the C-D-C says more than 29 million people have the disease. That breaks down to one for every eleven people. the report also say of the millions who do have the disease, about one in four have not been diagnosed and do not know they have it. The most common form of diabetes is tied to obesity
Men's Health	5pm	6/11/2014	2:04	Scientists found married men with health insurance were more likely to have seen a doctor in the past year for preventative care... Compared to single guys or those who were living with someone but not married. The preventative care included things like checks on blood pressure, diabetes and cholesterol screening. Researchers say wives may be more likely to encourage their husbands to get physicals and screenings... Rather than live-in partners.
Importance of Walking	5pm	6/13/2014	1:41	Walking may be the last thing patients with arthritis of the knee want to do. but research from Boston University suggests walking for an hour a day is the best way to prevent disability and improve pain. experts say the less a patient moves -- the weaker their muscles and joints become -- and that increases inflammation and pain. ###

West Nile Awareness	10pm	6/26/2014	:19	Tonight health officials are warning people to beware mosquitoes...[<mos>1 Bullet Female OTS No Reveal:Laclede County, MO</mos>]after a man in Laclede County died from West Nile virus. The Centers for Disease control say the 67-year-old died on June 9th. It's the first death in Missouri from the virus this year. This year the mosquito population is worse, thanks to the spring rain.
West Nile Awareness	5pm	6/26/2014	:18	A man's death in Laclede County is being blamed on West Nile Virus. Health officials say the elderly man's death was investigated by the Centers for Disease Control.
West Nile Awareness	6pm	6/27/2014	:45	After Laclede County Health Department revealed someone has died from West Nile Virus for the third year in a row, we wondered what Springfield was doing about mosquito prone areas around the city. As we told you last night, July and August are the peak season for the pests to spread the flu-like illness. Springfield public works will drop what are called dunks, larvacide shaped like hockey pucks, into places around town where stormwater run-off becomes a breeding ground. Or when and where else its needed. However, Joplin Health Department plans to fog areas where mosquitos breed once a week until September. Its recommended homeowners clean-out guttering, empty outdoor water containers, and get rid of old tires.

Tick Awareness	9pm	6/30/2014	1:11	Health officials in both Missouri and Arkansas are warning you of a bad year for ticks. Along with Lyme Disease.. there's also growing concern about the Heartland virus. It's spread thru bites from infected Lone Star ticks. An Oklahoma man recently died from the virus. So far, The Springfield- Greene County Health Department has not seen any Heartland virus cases. However, they're dealing with about 30 tick bite cases every month. Symptoms include fever, rash around the bite, and muscle aches.
Lyme Disease Concerns	9:30pm	5/11/2014	:59	Health officials are warning people there could be a surge in the number of lyme disease cases this year in the Northern U-S. Experts say the tick population is still thriving despite the long, cold winter. The number of lyme disease cases has remained stagnate in the last few years-- but northern New England has seen an increase. Last year nearly 14-hundred cases were reported in Maine-- the highest in the state since the mid 19-90s

Camping Safety	Ozarks Today 1	6/20/2014	1:21	Missouri's 36-hundred campsites and 40 state parks attract thousands of famlies each year For people who love to spend time outdoors, camping trips make great vacations. But here are several important things to keep in mind to make sure your getaways are spent safely. Local nature experts say the first step is to be prepared... Check the weather, get a map of your campsight, and bring plenty of weather appropriate gear. Once you're out in the elements they say it's a good idea to stowe food in a car or cooler so as not to attract black bears or raccoons, both of which are common in the Ozarks. With all the rain we have experienced mosquitos are very active this season. Concervationists say you should always wear bug spray to ward off mosquitos and ticks . They add, despite the risk - campgrounds remain a popular way to experience the unique geography of the Ozarks.
Camping Safety	Ozarks Today 4	6/20/2014	2:35	Camping is a popular pastime here in the Ozarks. But., it can also be dangerous if its not done with caution.
