

Quarterly Issues/Program List for July 1st, 2018 - September 16, 2018. The following is a listing of the significant issues responded to by the following stations: WUMB-FM Boston, WBPR Worcester, WNEF Newburyport, WUMG Stow, WUMT Marshfield, WUMV Milford, WFPB Orleans, WFPB-FM Falmouth, along with the most significant treatment of those issues

Program Issue	Date	WUMB Air Time	Program Name	Narrative of Type, Description of Issue
Arts & Entertainment	7/1/2018	7:30 A.M	Commonwealth Journal: When Poetry Meets Politics	When was the last time you've ever been inspired by a poem? When was the last time a poem made you angry or cry? Stay tuned to talk about the power of poetry in difficult times.
Finance	7/8/2018	7:30 A.M	Commonwealth Journal: Bostons Invisible Billionaire	Gerald Chan co founder of the moving side investment group is an entrepreneur and a philanthropist. Up next we are talking to Gerald Chan about how he made a name for himself in Bio Technology and Real Estate as well as what he sees in Bostons future.
Immigration	7/15/2018	7:30 A.M	Commonwealth Journal: Out of Many, one? Immigration in American History	immigration was one of the most devastated topics in the 2016 election. The debates we are having right now about refugees, laborers and entrepreneurs, those debates are nothing new from Russians and Italians in the 1920's to Siriens and Mexicans today. We've always had big questionson how to understand the new commers in our mist. Host Anna Fisher-Pinkert talks with historian Monica Pelayo about the history of immigration in the 20th century, and parallels to the past in our contemporary immigration debates.
Health of Safety	7/15/2018	7:30 A.M	Commonwealth Journal: Menstuation Mythbusting	Americans have all sorts of ways of talking about their periods, half the world experiences it - but no one wants to talk about it. Up next we are talking with Chris Bobel, associates professor of womens and gender studies at Umass Boston about the menstrual health stigma and the new technologies that are changing how we view our bodies.
Politics & law	7/29/2018	7:30 A.M	Commonwealth Journal: Asian Americans in Politics	135 years ago years ago congress passed the chinese exclusion act specifically banning all chinese laborers from entering the Unites States. 75 Years ago president Franklin Roosevelt signed an order sending 120,000 Japanese Americans to intermit camps. Today Asians are the highest income, best educated and fastest growing racial group in the United States. Up next on Commonwealth journal we're talking with political scientist Paul Watanabe, taking a look back on the political forces that have shaped the Asian American experience in the United States, and looking forward to what the future holds.
Arts & Entertainment	8/5/2018	7:30 A.M	Commonwealth Journal: Barbra Lynch: Bostons Master Chef	Before Barbra Lynch opened up more than half a dozen succesful restaurants, before she even picked up her first chef knife, she was just another kid growing up in the old harbor projects in South E. Barbra Lynch was a risk taking girl who once stole a bus and dodging bullets from a gang and she grew up to make one of the finest food in the city. Next we are talking with Barbra Lynch about her Memoir, "Out of line: A life of Playing with Fire"
Education	8/12/2018	7:30 A.M	Commonwealth Journal: Cozy Up With a Good Book and a Danish Prince	For Most High school students Shakespere is cold and relic but not for Emma Allen the protagonist of the new novel, Saving Hamlet. Emma a high school stage manager finds herself getting up close and personal with the bard as she travels back through time to the Elizabethan Era, where Shakespere's working on his most drama Hamlet. Up next we're talking to Molly Booth, author of Saving Hamlet. All about Theatre nerds, time travel, cross dressing and more.
Politics & law	8/19/2018	7:30 A.M	Commonwealth Journal: Racism, Fear and Getting Help	In the days after the presidential election a Natick man received profanity filled threatening letter because he had black friends visit his home. Racist graffiti appeared near the peak of Mt Tom in Easthampton. Natick police have investigated the letters. Volunteers washed the Graffiti off the mountain but for some people of color what they have seen / heard cannot be easily wiped away. We will be seeing the effects of psychological impacts of racism with Tahera Abdula, professor of psychology at Umass Boston.
Arts & Entertainment	8/26/2018	7:30 A.M	Commonwealth Journal: Hugo Nominee Max Gladstone and the Rules of Magic	Up next in commonwealth Journal, we are talking with guest, author Max Gladstone. About his Hugo nominated book series which follow magical investigators as they tackle cases involving murdered gods, skeleton kings, and demon infestations.
Education	9/2/2018	7:30 A.M	Commonwealth Journal: How Civic Desert Alienate Youth	Think of the town where you live where is the nearest library? How long is the drive to your nearest high school? Where do the teens in your town hang out? If the answer is really far away or I don't know, you might be living in a civic desert. Ahead we're talking to researchers Kei Kawashima- Ginsberg and Felicia Sullivan about how isolation from civic life has had a big impact on young rural voters.
Health	9/9/2018	7:30 A.M	Commonwealth Journal: The Politics of Anger	Sometimes it feels like everyone is angry these day. People are angry about the economy, immigration, education, you name it. But what are the political consequences of al lthat anger? What happens when that anger gets translated into votes and policies. Next we're talking to Umass Boston Professor of Psychology Michael Milburn about his book Raised to Rage: The Politics of Anger and the Roots of Authoritarianism .
Arts	9/16/2018	7:30 A.M	Commonwealth Journal: Knights, Dragons and One Epic Tale	New York Times best selling author M.T. Anderson, takes us on a ride on to 12th century France with his new graphic novel, Yvain: Knight of the Lion , where a night in King Arthurs court encounters romace, danger and one fiercely loyal lion.