III. RECRUITMENT INITIATIVES

	Type of Recruitment Initiative (Menu Selection)	Brief Description of Activity
1	Internships program at corporate office	SEU continued its internship program for high school and college students to allow them to learn about various broadcasting jobs and to gain work experience necessary in the real world. 1 college student interns in the production studio, applying her knowledge in real life situation for radio editing, sound mastering, etc.
2	Provided Training to employee participant to gain experience for future advancement.	SEU provided training to sales department employee on how to produce program with the anticipation this employee will serve as emergency on-air talent if need be and possibly gain experience to start a new career path. The training of the production studio employee continues in anticipation of possibly allowing him to host his own program segment this fall – for now this employee serves as emergency on-air talent when necessary.
3	Participate and sponsor (media sponsor) Community Event	This SEU played a role as media sponsor for 4 events this summer: The Holy Trinity Polish Mission (June 12) for their “Annual Family Fest”, “SwietoJanki” by the Legion of Young Polish Women (June 25), The Polish Highlanders Alliance of North America’s Annual “Grand Fest” (July10) and “Sharing Hope” Event by Common Ground Community Network and Northwest Compass (July 16). Station Manager and On-Air Host were on hand to provide media training prior to on-air interviews with organization leaders and event participants. Station personnel connected with students of Polish descent present at these events to talk about the way radio supports the community and how being a part of media outlet impact those around. They talked with interested individuals about various jobs in broadcasting, the internship program and handed out applications to interested individuals.
4	Mentorship program with the Polish American Chamber of	Station Manger meet (via Zoom) with the Executive Director and Community Outreach Director of the PACC and representatives of the Board of Directors of the PAYC to

Commerce (PACC) and the Polish American Youth Council (PAYC)	establish a common mentorship program for college students of Polish descent and highlight the importance of Polish language radio (and media in general) to preserve the Polish language and culture for future generations of Polish Americans. SEU will participate in the mentoring program, once it is established.
