

NOTE: Station originally timely prepared this certification by January 10, 2014, but inadvertently omitted an explanation concerning a fleeting (one-half second) display of the URL for a web site during the Lazytown program.

* On October 12, 2013, the closing credits for "Lazytown," an educational and informational program supplied to the NBC Network by Sprout for the "NBC Kids" Saturday morning E/I block, inadvertently included a fleeting (one-half second) display of the URL for a web site (www.lazytown.com) that did not conform to the FCC's commercial limits rules for web site displays in children's programming. The display of the URL was fleeting, and therefore barely discernible by viewers.

The NBC Network takes precautions to avoid any potential violations of the FCC's web site rules. Specifically, each episode of the "NBC Kids" Saturday morning E/I block is reviewed by Sprout, whose policy is to remove all URLs from program materials. In this case, however, the display of the URL in the closing credits was so fleeting it was missed during the review process. The NBC Network is working with Sprout to develop and implement additional procedures to minimize the possibility of a re-occurrence of this isolated incident.

Antenna TV Network
Children's TV Commercial Compliance Certification
4thQ 2013

Antenna TV certifies that for the 4th quarter of 2013, all programs produced and broadcast for children ages 12 and under were formatted for not more than 10.5 minutes per hour of commercial time, the limit for weekend telecasts. The programs were:

Program:	Totally Tooned In
Time:	Saturdays & Sundays 9:00-9:30a & 9:30-10:00a ET
Duration:	30 minutes
Rating:	TV-G

There was no commercial time available for Antenna TV affiliates in or between these programs. Thus, the programs were formatted in compliance with the Children's Television Act of 1990 and applicable Federal Communications Commission rules. In addition, the programs as delivered are in compliance with Sections 73.670(a) through(d) of the Commission's Rules, including restrictions on host selling and displays (if any) of website addresses.
