The rise of cancel culture has caused many individuals to lose their ability to communicate freely. Big tech companies like Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, Google, YouTube, and Amazon are rising to power and controlling the flow of information. PragerU.com has been placed on the restricted list by Google because of its conservative views. Actor Kevin Sorbo's Facebook page was removed after posting opposing views of COVID-19 and pro-life viewpoints. According to pew research almost 1/2 of the millennials do not believe in free speech for hate speech. To stop the woke movement individuals should seek alternative routes to big tech companies, fight for freedom of speech and continue to maintain the God given values once established by America's founders.

TBN Special Report with TBN News Correspondent Erick Stakelbeck: The Rise of China. From the Museum of the Bible in Washington, D.C. and New York studio Erick Stakelbeck Reports. You'll hear why China's communist regime poises a unique threat to the United States and the world. From a massive military and nuclear arms buildup, to cyberattacks against sensitive American targets, China is directly challenging the United States. Its goal is clear; to replace the U.S. as the worlds next superpower. Despite this and despite the Chinese government's continued evasiveness on the true origins of COVID-19, American companies are lining up to do business with Beijing. For some, the so-called social credit system that China uses to suppress and monitor its own citizens does not seem to affect their bottom line, but there is light in the darkness. While Christians in China suffer severe persecution, the Church is growing by leaps and bounds in the world's most populous nation. We're joined today by Former Secretary of State, Mike Pompeo; courageous Chinese dissidents, and leading experts to get the inside story on the rise of China and why it matters to you.

New York Times Best-Selling Author, Jonathan Cahn, explains the similarities of Ancient Israel and the United States. Jonathan Cahn states, "The United States was actually founded after the pattern of Ancient Israel." America has done the same as Ancient Israel by driving God out of culture as well as lifting up their children to Baal through abortion. Jonathan Cahn says, "We've watched that in America. We've watched it, the whole world has been affected...We've watched the culture turn away from God... We've watched a sexual revolution as in the bible, and we have offered up our children. A modern day of Baal worship is abortion." Bill Clinton became the first U.S. President to endorse abortion. Bill Clinton served in the political office for 22 years like King Ahab, in the bible, who reigned in Samaria for 22 years. Hillary Clinton follows the paradigm of Queen Jezebel. Both women encouraged feminine power and Baal worship (abortion). Joram is an heir of Ahab and follows the policies of Ahab, as did President Barack Obama with President Bill Clinton. Joram went into power having the former first lady, Jezebel, by his side like President Barack Obama went into office with former first lady, Hillary Clinton. King Jehu is the ancient archetype of President Donald Trump. Jehu was not a politician and Donald Trump was not a politician. Jehu was to go against the House of Ahab, and Donald Trump went against the Clinton Family in the Presidential Election. Jonathan Cahn says, "It wasn't about Jehu. It's not about Donald Trump. It's about can 'God use anyone? Even those who don't know him?' Yes, He can. God is Sovereign. He'll use anything. Anyone." When Jehu gets to the temple of Baal, he destroys it. Donald Trump did the same thing as Jehu by signing executive orders to protect unborn children. Jonathan encourages viewers to lean towards a spiritual revival and turn towards God, he says, "It can't just be political. If it changes politically, but not culturally, not spiritually, then America is lost."

According to Gordon Robertson, the U.S. Embassy opening in Jerusalem was a very important move as it recognizes Israel's sovereignty. The 1995 Jerusalem Embassy Act was a U.S. law that mandated that the Embassy be moved, this didn't take place until President Trump entered office. Gordon Robertson explains how Christians play a part in the restoration of Israel as a nation and the fulfillment of biblical prophecy. According to Gordon Robertson, 70 years ago Israel legally established its capital, Jerusalem. He believes assisting Israel to become a nation should be the goal for America.

Dr. A.R. Bernard #2330	27:30	27:30	LCL	PA/O	7/23/2023	5:00 PM

According to A.R. Bernard, individuals are socially responsible to give back to their community by holding the values of faith, family, and education. These values are important for shaping our society. Religion brings a moral value consensus to society, being imperative for justice and concord. Religion is also the moral compass of society. When there's no authoritative moral voice in society people become lawless and moralized. If society destroys family, we are destroying its foundation. It is our responsibility to fight together for the common good and bring God's light to the world to combat the decline of these values we are currently facing.

According to Chairman, National Committee for Religious Freedom, Sam Brownback, countries thrive when they respect the human right of religious freedom. Statistic shows that nowadays we have the highest number of Christian persecutions in history. In America, it is our constitutional right to "freely exercise one's faith." The National Committee and The National Council for Religious Freedom was formed to stand up for the "Free Exercise Clause" so that individuals could operate in the public marketplace and in the public square, while peacefully practicing one's faith.

MLB player, Darryl Strawberry, grew up with an abusive and alcoholic father. This behavior from his father led Darryl to brokenness and the abuse of substances. Being addicted to drugs caused Darryl to go to prison, get cancer twice, and lose his left kidney. It took him 7 years of studying the word of God to be free and find God's plan for his life. Darryl's foundation, Finding Your Way, was created to make a difference in the lives of young people who are addicted to drugs. After 16 years of recovering from substance abuse, Darryl now goes into high schools and middle schools bringing awareness to the youth about not using drugs. Darryl says "In order to make a difference in young people's lives that are addicted, we have to be real about it. We can't sit here and sugarcoat it. And that's why we're at where we're at today. The epidemic we're at today. New Jersey's already had 300 deaths of overdoses from opiate."

Governor of Oklahoma, Kevin Stitt is working on a modern justice task force to not incarcerate everyone, the distributive crime. In doing so, Governor Kevin Stitt is working to get people integrated back into society by keeping the violent offenders away. When he became governor, Oklahoma incarceration rates were high. Governor Kevin Stitt started implementing policies to lower this. Today, there are 5000 fewer people incarcerated than when he took office. As governor, Kevin has closed four prisons, saving taxpayers hundreds of millions of dollars. Oklahoma is now number one in the country with lowest recidivism. Oklahoma strives to bring back public safety in communities through the increase of law enforcement.

Tracy Kovach was a drug addict, and a wanted criminal. After his father left, Tracy was full of hate and rage because of the chaos he faced at a young age. He watched helplessly as his mother's numerous drunken boyfriends abused her. Then Tracy's mother remarried and left him with a neighbor who started beating him up and locking him in his room. Tracy's father then took him back, but he was also abusive. At the age of 17, Tracy landed in juvenile hall. He then became addicted to crystal meth and started robbing drug dealers. At 41 years old, Tracy faced up to 100 years for drug charges and breaking parole. Now, Tracy is drug free and goes back to prison to tell inmates about Jesus Christ and how God restored his life.

Restoring America with Erick Stakelbeck: Ronald Reagan once compared the United States to a shining city on a hill. During his inaugural address, George Washington said, "The preservation of the secret fire of liberty, may be staked," on what he called "the experiment entrusted to the hands, of the American people." They knew, instinctively, that the United States was unlike any nation in the history of the world. A beacon of freedom blessed by God above, but to whom much is given much is required. The United States today is more divided than at any time since the civil war, and the divide goes far beyond politics to the very essence of who we are. Will America continue to carry the banner for freedom and Judeo-Christian civilization, of liberty and equality for all? Or will we choose socialism, secularism, and squabbling factions that are obsessed with race, gender, sexual identity, and tearing down the very foundations on which this nation was created. And what happens if we choose the latter? Over the next hour, you'll hear from leaders in every field. From Florida Governor, Ron DeSantis, to Former Secretary of State, Mike Pompeo, Michele Bachmann, Greg Abbott, Governor of Texas, and Rev. Franklin Graham, plus top leaders in education, business, media, and faith, as they lay out the blueprint for restoring America.

According to Dr. Ben Carson, the founder and chairman of the American Cornerstone Institute and former Secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development, this is an attack on liberty. The "More Perfect Union" program is an aspect of ACI which emphasizes the principles that founded America. In this program, they challenge people to read and ask questions about documents like the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution. ACI also offers a summer program called "Young Patriot" teaching children about the real history of America. It is important for individuals to understand the history of America to fight back against the rise of cancel culture.

In a recent year, 47,000 individuals committed suicide in this country, 70,000 people died of drug overdose and many more died because of alcohol addictions. What is happening and, more importantly, what is being done to intervene? Depression and addictions are causing more suicide related deaths than at any other time in American history. Self-harm is not always caused by a gun; often it is a drug overdose or alcohol induced event. On this edition of Taking Care of Business, see the sad realities facing our society and meet those who are trying to intervene.

According to Joseph Prince living The Let Go Life is about living a life free from worry in any area where one could experience insufficiency, such as health, finances, problems with their children, and spousal relationships. It is trusting that God will supply for all of one's needs. Joseph Prince teaches a paradigm shift in thinking by encouraging people to allow the finished works of Christ (Grace) to help in one's difficult situations. He states, "If we refuse to take hold of the anxious thoughts over our lives, God will clothe us with a quality body, quality health...the only thing that is hindering us from the supply, is worry." God has a supply of blessings for healing, financial wisdom, parenting and many other things, but as soon as one worries, God's supply is restricted from getting to the individual. Joseph Prince says, "Grace flows in the worry-free areas of your life." Fear and worry prevent individuals from being at peace and entering God's rest. Medical science has proven that stress could lead to physical problems, mental health problems, destructive behaviors, addictions, and chronic depression. Joseph Prince suggests people to live their lives in the unforced rhythm of grace, by relaxing and knowing that God has already supplied for all their needs as he states, "Do your responsibilities, do what you need to do, but do it relaxed. Parent relaxed. Administrative, manage relaxed. Do everything relaxed because that is the secret."

According to Frank Santora, this two-year pandemic has caused an increase in mental health issues. Experts have stated that there are seven pillars for mental health one of them being community. According to Frank Santora, God has always shown us the importance of paying attention to our minds. It is important for individuals to understand mental health issues and how they affect our performance. Individuals should have mental health goals to combat mental health issues and experience the life God wants them to have.

According to Frank Santora, mental health should be a priority because "our lives follow our thoughts." Inputs of how one was raised, the environment one grew up in, and one's experiences form one's belief system and thoughts. As a result of these inputs, individuals develop both healthy and unhealthy patterns of behavior. To combat unhealthy patterns of behavior, individuals should reprogram their minds to think healthy thoughts by following biblical principles.

Chad Veach's oldest daughter, Georgia, was diagnosed with a rare brain condition called Lissencephaly. Now, at the age of 11, Georgia is still unable to speak, and/or do things on her own. She also suffers from several seizures. According to Chad, a surrendered prayer can help individuals live with peace and purpose despite the circumstances one is facing in the moment. Chad teaches his children that God can heal their sister, but even if He doesn't, this situation has taught Chad and his family to depend on and lean into (trust) God through the whole process.

Vaneetha Risner was diagnosed with polio when she was three months old. She didn't have the vaccine yet and was given the wrong medicine to take. The doctors gave her cortisone, which caused Vaneetha to become completely paralyzed within 24 hours. During this time, Vaneetha was a quadriplegic and had multiple surgeries from there on. At the age of 16 years old, Vaneetha was able to walk and thought her life was going to get better because she had learned about Jesus. However, after college Vaneetha experienced more suffering including multiple miscarriages, the unexpected death of her infant son, her ex-husband leaving her for another woman, and being diagnosed with post-polio syndrome that doctors said would leave her quadriplegic again. Through her new book, "Desperate for Hope," Vaneetha Risner shares how she found strength, healing, and hope in God during her suffering.

According to Dr. Don Colbert, 25% of individuals have genes that cause Alzheimer's. This disease can be prevented if an individual has the correct diet, nutrition, does not drink alcohol, and has not suffered from a brain or head trauma. In his new book, "Healthy Brain Zone," Dr. Don Colbert explains how to reverse memory loss and reduce the risk of dementia and Alzheimer's disease. Through his own research, Dr. Don Colbert was able to find steps one can take to start turning the brain on.

According to Dr. Don Colbert, the most powerful things we can do to prevent dementia and reverse dementia include a healthy keto diet, intermittent fasting, regular exercise, and a good deep sleep that's well-oxygenated. In his new book, "Healthy Brain Zone," Dr. Don Colbert gives insights between the connection of the brain and the gut, and the impact of consuming a healthy diet. Two key things that invite Alzheimer's into our brains include inflammation and sugar. Therefore, Dr. Don Colbert teaches individuals what foods to eat that will reverse insulin resistance which is the root cause of most Alzheimer's.

Statistics shows that loneliness is a universal challenge that can lead to obesity, depression, and other health related issues. Loneliness attacks the prefrontal cortex in our brain which affects our feelings and our reasoning. Sustaining loneliness is equivalent to smoking 15 cigarettes a day. Ruth Graham works with prisoners in West Virginia. As she spoke to them about loneliness, one prisoner said to her "You know Ruth I came to prison so angry, so mad, so just against the world... while I was in prison I came to know Jesus...I'm not lonely anymore." Loneliness has become a major problem in America, so Ruth developed an acronym to help combat this issue: "R.E.A.C.H", Recognize the symptoms of and sources of loneliness in your life; Express it to God and to one other person; Anticipate that God can transform the loneliness into something for His purposes in your life; Connect with God and with others; and Honor God with your loneliness, dedicate your loneliness to God so He can use it for His purpose and draw you closer to Him.

Kathy Hayes' son had a car accident when he was 16 years old. He had to have brain surgery to take out the blood that was between his brain and his skull and was in a coma for 11 days. At the age of 52, Kathy's older sister had a brain tumor and passed away. Through these circumstances Kathy prayed and trusted God for healing. Her son got healed, but her sister didn't. Lindy Cofer shares her story of witnessing her friends going through difficulties; Brian and Christie Bryant served as leaders in a Christian ministry. Christie was diagnosed with Lyme disease for 38 years and was healed miraculously. Years later, Christie's husband, Brian was also diagnosed with a code related diagnosis and passed away. It was hard for Lindy to understand why one was healed and the other one wasn't. Both Kathy and Lindy explain the importance of standing on God's promises, declaring His truths in every situation, and trusting God even when the circumstances do not make sense.

According to Jordan Rubin and Dr. Axe, collagen is an essential part of our health. Collagen is a critical nutrient that most people aren't getting in their diet; 30% of all the protein in our body is collagen. The way we look, feel, and move is largely dependent upon the collagen in our body. As we age, we slow down production and eventually we stop producing collagen. To combat this lack of collagen in our bodies, Dr. Axe, and Jordan Rubin developed "Multi Collagen Protein," which provides people with an easy and simple way to get collagen in their daily diet.

If an individual attends a health and nutrition trade show the three biggest things that are being talked about presently are, CBD products, collagen products and MCT products (medium chain triglycerides). MTCs are certain fats that you find in coconut and in palm (these are of a "medium chain link"). These medium chain fats have certain fatty acids that have been known to help the body create ketones, which helps boost your brain, helps with burning fat, and can help balance your gut. MCTs have become all the rage due to their place in a keto diet. Jordan Rubin and Dr. Josh Axe have now taken collagen peptides which support healthy skin, hair, nails, and healthy gut and combined it with MCTs and CBD to create "Multi Collagen Ultra." This product helps individuals be energized and calm at the same time.

Jekalyn Carr speaks on the power of words and the influence it has on one's life and career. Jekalyn shares with viewers practical strategies of using God's word to obtain a winning mindset. She explains that this mindset, she has developed, has allowed her to achieve a lot of success by the age of 20 and encourages many young people to do the same. A lot of negativity towards the younger generation has been spoken over them, Jekalyn tells the younger generation, "You don't have to accept what the devil has to offer. It does not matter what has been spoken over you...you have the power to declare whatever you want to see. It doesn't matter how young you are, where you come from, what your history looks like. It doesn't matter if you come from a stable or unstable home. If greatness is upon your life, God can use you to do what He wants you to do and He can take you as far as you would allow Him to do it."
