

QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT

WHYY-TV

FOR THE PERIOD OF APRIL 1, 2017 THROUGH JUNE 30, 2017

The license of station WHYY-TV has determined that the following issues were of importance to the Delaware Valley community during the past three months and has aired the following programs to address these issues:

ARTS AND ENTERTAINMENT

April 10, 2017 6:00 A.M. 30 Minutes
Sesame Street

Julia, A Muppet With Autism, Joins The Cast Of 'Sesame Street' .

May 25, 2017 9:00 p.m 30 Minutes
On Tour Dawes live in concert

California-based roots rock band Dawes performs a set of gentle-acoustic-based musical trappings with a flare of Americana. Plus, band leader Taylor Goldsmith shares why he thinks songs don't really live until they're on the road..

June 2, 2017 8:30 P.M. 30 Minutes
Friday Arts

Known in the city since 1986 for its “visually arresting,” “highly imaginative,” dance theater works, and unusual collaborative projects, the Anne-Marie Mulgrew & Dancers Co. has performed over 71 major works choreographed by Anne-Marie Mulgrew in 312 performances in the United States and Canada. The company consists of 5-7 professional dancers and esteemed peer collaborators. Additional performers are used on a project basis to flesh out materials and involve new communities

ENVIRONMENT

April 23, 2017 4:30 p.m. 60 Minutes
Preserving Our Water:

How we use the Delaware Watershed

May 3 10:00 P.M. 60 Minutes
Plants Behaving Badly.

Meet the frauds and murderers of the plant world! These two groups of plants that exhibited such treachery that they attracted the attention of Charles Darwin

June 13, 2017 5:30 P.M. 30 Minutes
First

The secret life of bees in Delaware revolve around one main bee keeper for the state. To understand why that job is so important to the state check out Mark Eichmann's story on First

EDUCATION

June 2, 2017

5:30 P.M.

30 Minutes

First

We've been hearing a lot of talk on bringing back or creating new manufacturing jobs. And while the University of Delaware's new Manufacturing USA Institute won't teach students how to build cars, it is part of the schools renewed focus on research. For this week's First Look, we visit the Newark campus to learn more about that research effort.

POLITICS AND GOVERNMENT

Congresswoman Lisa Blunt-Rochester. Delaware's Congressional representative discusses gridlock, the need for transparency and her committee assignments on the Education and Agriculture Committees in the U.S. House of Representatives.

June 19, 2017

9:00 P.M.

60 Minutes

2017 President's Dinner

Terry Gross interviews former Vice President Biden

RACE, IDENTITY AND CULTURE

April 14, 2017

9:00 P.M.

30 Minutes

Sikh Awareness Month. There are many religious groups that make up the fabric of Delaware. We continue with our special edition of First focusing on the arts and culture of the First State. We're turning now to a segment highlighting the fact that April is Sikh Awareness Month. We have on the program Charanjeet Singh Minhas and his daughter Jasmine.

Violins of Hope: Strings of the Holocaust

April 24, 2017

9:00 pm

60 Minutes

Academy Award-winner Adrien Brody tells the story of long-forgotten violins that were recovered from the Holocaust and restored to life by a remarkable master violinmaker in Tel Aviv, Israel. _

Victorian Slum House

May 2, 2017 |

8:00 p.m

60 Minutes

Follow participants as they move into an 1860s tenement made up of sparse rooms, a shared water pump and outhouses. They seek to make a living by matchbox making, wood turning and the rag trade, work once done by their impoverished forebears