Gabby Petito Case

Gabby Petito and Brian Laundrie captured national attention when the two left for a cross-country adventure, but only Laundrie returned. The couple let others into their seemingly happy world via social media, but behind the cameras, a much darker story played out. When Laundrie vanished, the attention intensified as internet sleuths who helped crack the case wide open investigated and theorized. "20/20" reports on the horror that unfolded in the beauty of Wyoming's Grand Teton National Park and the details leading to the discovery of Laundrie's remains last week, and poses lingering questions about what's next. The Final Act

In May 2010, authorities found a 23-year-old college student and dancer, Juri "Julie" Kibuishi, dead inside the home of her close friend Sam Herr. Police initially suspected that Sam pulled the trigger, but as they continued to investigate, they quickly unraveled the mystery that Sam's friend and neighbor, Daniel Wozniak, was the true killer. Wozniak confessed to killing Sam. ABC News correspondent Jim Avila reports the new details of the case, including Wozniak's confession, motive and fate as sits on death row. (OAD: 5/31/19)

Fatal Love Triangle

A new 20/20 reports on a twisted love triangle and the shocking truth on whether or not the stalker and victim are the same woman. After Cari Farver disappeared, friends and family received text messages from her number claiming she embarked a new life. Although skeptical, her loved ones could not prove they were illegitimate. At the same time, Dave Kroupa received a strange and sudden breakup message from Farver's number and soon began to fear for his life as the message content escalated to stalking and threats. In a stunning twist, authorities began to suspect that Farver was dead and had not sent the messages. 20/20 reports on the complicated case. (OAD: 12/04/20)

The Last Hunt

Dr. Larry Rudolph and his wife, Bianca Rudolph, were avid big game hunters, often traveling the world to bring back trophies of exotic animals they had killed. In 2016, the pair headed to Zambia, where Bianca was hunting a leopard. Tragedy struck when Bianca died of a shotgun blast to the chest on the last day of the trip. Local authorities ruled the death accidental, and over the next few months, Larry collected approximately $4.88 million in life insurance. "20/20" takes an inside look at the investigation into Bianca's death.

Another Man's Crime

For three decades, Leo Schofield has been serving life in prison since his young wife Michelle Schofield's brutal stabbing. Despite no physical evidence linking him to the murder—and significant developments in the case since his conviction, including the identification of fingerprints and a so-called confession from another man to the "Bone Valley" podcast hosts—Leo remains imprisoned with little hope for freedom. The "20/20" season 45 premiere poses this question: is Leo in prison for the crime of another man? Amy Robach reports.

The Vanishing Act

On the heels of Sherri Papini pleading guilty and receiving an 18-month prison sentence for her fabricated kidnapping tale to federal agents and mail fraud, "20/20" features interviews with the investigators who cracked the case. Five years after her disappearance, authorities arrested the mother of two from Northern California for lying to them about two Hispanic women abducting and physically abusing her after going out for a jog in the middle of the day. This two-hour special includes just released evidence from the investigation.

THE FATAL FLAW – A SPECIAL EDITON OF 20//20

An anthology series journeys back through the most spine-tingling murders of years past. The killers almost got away with it, until one day, there was that fateful knock on the door. In each hour-long episode a team of journalists and investigators take viewers through the twists and turns of these stories while identifying the smallest detail that ultimately gave these killers away.

Thursday, July 7, 2022

The Eyes Have It

The one-hour episode reveals the mistakes that stopped each killer from getting away. The crimes committed range from a real-life "cereal killer," who poisons his victim via breakfast cereal to the story of a "black widow" who frames her own daughter for the deaths of her two husbands.

The Hollywood Mogul Con

In 2018, Zach Horowitz, a 28-year-old actor unleashed a Ponzi scheme on the film industry. He raised more than $690 million from "five principal investors" on behalf of 1inMM Productions. With fake distribution deals and fake rights agreements, he told investors the production intended to use their money to secure the distribution rights to various films in regional geographies and then sell those rights to streamers. F.B.I. agents arrested Horowitz at his $5.7 million home in Beverlywood and the Securities and Exchange Commission charged him with securities fraud, seeking an immediate freeze of his assets and the return of "ill-gotten gains."

The Sweetheart Swindler Con

When 75-year-old Dick Olmstead hit it off with a beautiful woman more than half his age he thought he was getting a second lease on life. Desiree Boltos, early 30s, confided that she was struggling financially because she had recently become widowed, and Olmstead was very happy to help. However, Olmstead was the victim of a love fraud. He ultimately had given Boltos the majority of his life savings. Fraud investigators from his bank in Texas, and later the District Attorney's office, stepped in to tell Olmstead the truth, exposing Boltos.

The Billion Dollar Con

In 2009, a mild-mannered graduate of the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business set in motion a fraud of unprecedented gall and magnitude. Authorities say that for over a decade, Jho Low, with the aid of high-powered investment banking companies, siphoned billions of dollars from an investment fund right under the nose of industry watchdogs. Low's brazen scheme posed the next great threat to the global financial system since the 2007-2009 recession and the Bernie Madoff Ponzi scheme.

The Coupon Con

In 2016, a young mom and entrepreneur in Virginia Beach took to couponing while on bed rest after having her third child. Lori Ann Talens began using coupons to maintain the household budget but soon found the rush of scoring deals to be addictive. Using her graphic design skills, she created new coupons to score free meals, household supplies and money. Talens started a counterfeit ring that grew bigger over time, alerting an industry watchdog of the fraud. The Coupon Information Corporation monitored the group, which led to an FBI stakeout and finally, a house raid. Talens was sentenced to 12 years in federal prison, and prosecutors estimated the loss for retailers at $31.8 million making this the biggest coupon scam in U.S. history.

The Comeback

Jim and Tammy Faye Bakker were successful at raising money for their televised religious programs. After its 1974 debut, their cable show became the highest-rated religious show in the country. In the 1980s, the Bakkers continued their success by building Heritage USA, a first-of-its-kind 2,200-acre Christian resort and amusement park, but the government would charge that Bakker had secured funding by defrauding his faithful viewers. In 1989, he was convicted and initially sentenced to 45 years in prison but ultimately only served five. In 2021, prosecutors claimed that Bakker was once again up to his old tricks but this time without Tammy Faye. Bakker denies any wrongdoing.

The Imposter Doctor Con

– In 2015, authorities took Malachi Love-Robinson into custody for roaming the halls and patients' rooms of the OB-GYN department at St Mary's hospital in West Palm Beach, Florida. The hospital didn't press charges, and they released Love-Robinson with a warning after a mental evaluation. He continued on pursuing his childhood dream of becoming a physician, and a few months later opened his own practice with a steadily growing clientele. Authorities arrested him after an undercover operation confirmed that "Dr. Love" had been practicing medicine without a license ... once again.
