

Issue and Program List

Station Call Letters: KSMY
For quarter ending: MARCH 2018

Section I: Issues

During the preceding quarter, the following were the 5-10 issues of concern in the station's service area:

1. American Water Works Association
2. (SER) Jobs for Progress, Inc.
3. North County Rape Crisis & Child Protection Center
4. Santa Maria Police Department
5. CAUSA: Central Coast United for a Sustainable Economy

Section II: Responsive Programs

During the preceding quarter, the following program and announcements were broadcast in response to the list issues listed above:

1. Issue No.1 (Water)

(a) Program or PSA series Title: American Water Works Association

Date(s) and time(s) of broadcast: Sunday January 14th 2018 (7am - 7:30am)

Duration of program or announcement: 30min.

Source of material: Audio Available from Org.

Summary of content, including names of hosts and guests, if any: American Water Works Association is spreading awareness about the importance of water service and sustainable drinking water for the future.

2. Issue No.2 (Jobs)

(a) Program or PSA series Title: (SER) Jobs for Progress, Inc.

Date(s) and time(s) of broadcast: Sunday February 11th 2018 (7am-7:30am)

Duration of program or announcement: 30min

Source of material: Produced by Station

Summary of content, including names of hosts and guests, if any: Outreach Coordinator, Gina Lagunas informs Immigrant workers of the availability of education in order to obtain a GED.

Issue No.3 (Child Safety)

(a) Program or PSA series Title: North County Rape Crisis & Child Protection Center

(b)

Dates and time(s) of broadcast: Sunday February 18th 2018 (7am-7:30am)

Duration of program or announcement: 30min

Source of material: Produced by Station

Summary of content, including names of hosts and guests, if any: Bibiana Zamora with Bilingual Outreach speaks of how North County Rape Crisis & Child Protection Center informs survivors of sexual assault as well as family members of their free services including counseling & educational programs.

4. Issue No.4 (Community Safety)

(a) Program or PSA series Title : Santa Maria Police Department

Date(s) and time(s) of broadcast: Tue.- Sun. March 20th - 25th 2018 (7am - 7:30am, 12am-12am, 2pm-3pm)

Duration of program or announcement: 30min, 30sec, 2min LIVE

Source of material: Produced by Station

Summary of content, including names of hosts and guests, if any: Sergeant Lara from the Santa Maria Police Department informs the community of Academia Para La Comunidad which teaches community members of the laws and methods to have a better understanding of the Santa Maria Police Department.

Issue No.5 (Sustainable Economy)

(a) Program or PSA series Title: CAUSA: Central Coast United for a Sustainable Economy

Date(s) and Time(s) of broadcast: Sunday March 11th 2018 (7am-7:30am)

Duration of program or announcement: 30min

Source of material: Produced by Station

Summary of content, including names of hosts and guests, if any: Joanna Barrera, Community Organizer talks about CAUSA and speaks of the march against gun violence in the Community called "March for Our Lives."

PSA Quarterly List

Station Call Letters: KSMY

For quarter ending: MARCH 2018

Community Issue:

1. Water - American Water Works Association
2. Jobs - (SER) Jobs for Progress, Inc.
3. Child Safety - North County Rape Crisis & Child Protection Center
4. Community Safety - Santa Maria Police Department
5. Economy - CAUSA: Central Coast United for a Sustainable Economy

Responsive Programming:

(1) Public Service Announcement, January 14th, 2018, various times: American Water Works Association is spreading awareness about the importance of water service and sustainable drinking water for the future.

(2) Public Service Announcement, February 11th 2018, various times: Informing Immigrant workers of the availability of education in order to obtain a GED.

(3) Public Service Announcement, February 18th 2018, various times: North County Rape Crisis & Child Protection Center informs survivors of sexual assault as well as family members of their free services including counseling & educational programs.

(4) Public Service Announcement, March 16th, 2018, various times: Sergeant from the Santa Maria Police Department informs the community of Academia Para La Comunidad which teaches community members of the laws and methods to have a better understanding of the Santa Maria Police Department.

(5) Public Service Announcement, March 11th, 2018, various times: CAUSA speaks of the march against gun violence in the Community called "March for Our Lives."