LOCAL ISSUES ADDRESSED DURING THE QUARTER

The following are local issues of concern to the community. Programs that addressed these issues during this reporting period are listed on the following pages.

Local Issue/Concern and Brief Description

USO's Turkeys for Troops

WUSA 9 teamed up with the USO of Metropolitan Washington-Baltimore to raise money for the USO's Turkey for Troops initiative. Money raised provides a Thanksgiving food basket for local military families who live in the DC, Maryland and Virginia area. A thank you to our troops and their families during the holiday season. Any money left over, after purchasing the holiday food baskets, goes toward local USO programs that help the troops. For example, the arts program at Fort Belvoir for injured military veterans.

Make A Difference Day

WUSA 9 and TEGNA Inc., joined forces with Arby's Foundation and Points of Light in support of this year's Make A Difference Day, one of the largest single days of service nationwide. Since 1992, thousands of volunteers across the U.S. have organized community projects with the single purpose of improving the lives of others. On October 28, 2017, WUSA 9 in Washington, DC and volunteers from TEGNA in McLean, VA assembled 75,000 weekend food packages for local schools to be distributed to students who are food insecure, working with the United Way of the National Capital Area.

Give Hope

WUSA 9 partnered with Children's National to give gifts to children in the District, Maryland and Virginia who will be spending the holidays in a hospital. WUSA 9 set up a virtual toy drive where people could purchase a toy. The team then delivered the gifts to kids at Children's National. More than 2,000 gifts were donated.

Tarawa: Fallen and Forgotten

WUSA 9 investigation that revealed a Navy sailor remained in an unmarked grave for 70 years, a fact that The United States government never told the sailor's family for generations. The Defense Department never shared with the Brisbane Family that Americans paved a parking lot over Brisbane's grave – a desecration of hallowed ground at the hands of Navy construction battalions in 1943 and 1944.

Diapers for 1-2-3 Mom

When WUSA 9 shared the story of the Tolberts in Waldorf, MD, the community asked how they could get involved. Robert and Nia Tolbert have a son, then had twins, and are expecting triplet girls in March 2018. To help the family get ready for all the babies, WUSA 9 collected diapers for the family.

Diabetic Alert Dogs

WUSA 9 reporter Andrea McCarren reported about allegations of improper training in connection with a Las Vegas-based service dog business that shipped several animals to our area. McCarren uncovered more than two dozen clients, dog trainers, and veterinarians across North America with concerns about Diabetic Alert Dogs of America. Customers complaints included not delivering what it promised to the parents of children struggling with diabetes. All were promised a specially trained dog who would alert them to dangerously high and low blood sugar levels in Type 1 diabetics.

Military Sexual Assaults

Between 2007 and 2016, the Department of Defense collected more than 6,000 reports of sexual assault and sustained harassment. The most recent statistics from FY 2016 reveal more than 5,300 service members reported being sexually assaulted. But those numbers don't reflect the true problem. An estimated 90% of victims never come forward. Three women, who served our country in the military, did come forward to share their accounts of being raped with reporter Andrea McCarren.

December 20, 2017 (noon/:30 length)

Speaking of the holidays. WUSA 9 is teaming up with Children's National to "give hope" to kids spending the holiday in the hospital and today is delivery day! More than ONE-THOUSAND gifts -- donated by YOU -- will be handed out to children there, later today. Our lobby looked like Santa's workshop, yesterday -- as we unboxed, sorted, and wrapped all those toys! On behalf of our partners at Children's National -- and ALL of us at WUSA 9 -- we are so grateful for your generosity.

December 20, 2017 (6pm/:45 length)

Christmas came early for some kids at Children's National today. Thanks to your generosity, WUSA 9 was able to "Give Hope" and gifts to children who could use a lift. The look on their faces - was just sheer joy. This family is grateful to be headed home today. But hundreds of other children will be at hospital for the holidays ... and your gifts to them are truly appreciated. Thank you for your gift of hope!

December 20, 2017 (11pm/1:20 length)

Natural sound package about the Give Hope Delivery. WUSA 9 has been telling you about our Give Hope campaign. Tarawa

November 9, 2017– Part One (11pm/12:30 length)

WUSA 9 shows our audience that American graves on the Pacific Island of Tarawa are surrounded by trash pits and pig pens. We meet a family of a Navy corpsman who fought in the Battle of Tarawa in 1943. We uncover that the Pentagon never told them their uncle was buried in an unmarked mass grave.

November 10, 2017 – Part Two (11pm/9:06 length)

WUSA 9 confronts the department in charge of finding nearly 73,000 Americans missing from World War Two. We ask the colonel who runs the Defense POW / MIA Accounting Agency why family members are not told about how their loved ones are buried on this Pacific island. We also uncover that private Americans initiated the effort to find the fallen Marines and Navy sailors still buried on Tarawa.

November 16, 2017 – Part Three (11pm/3:10 length)

WUSA 9 uncovers two major inefficiencies at the Pentagon, problems that slow the recovery of missing in action service members. We were the first to report that personnel files do not exist for all World War Two troops who are still missing. Through interviews with a top defense watchdog from the government accountability office, we revealed that two laboratories charged with analyzing materials from American war graves do not operate efficiently.

December 29, 2017 – Part Four (11pm/6:39 length)

The Pentagon responds to WUSA 9's investigation. A spokesperson tells us that Defense Department had no idea where the Navy corpsman at the center of our story was buried. The new major general running the defense POW/MIA Accounting Agency refuses to appear on camera, and says he is committed to improving communication with the families of the fallen. But, when asked for specifics on how he intends to do that, the Pentagon offers no details.

Diabetic Alert Dogs

WUSA 9 Reporter Andrea McCarren reported about allegations of improper training in connection to Diabetic Alert Dogs of America.

November 13, 2017 (11pm/8:43 length)

First story talking about the Diabetic Alert Dogs of America aired on the 11pm newscast. Allegations of improper training. Andrea McCarren spoke with a dozen satisfied customers—references provided to her by the company. Those 12 customers were among the 27 references provided by Diabetic Alert Dogs of America, and the only ones who returned WUSA 9's calls. They confirmed they were satisfied customers and their dogs did alert to high and low blood sugar levels.

November 20, 2017 (5pm/1:38 length)

Andrea McCarren did an update to the first story mentioning that the BBB had pulled the A+ rating given to the Diabetic Alert Dogs of America, pending a review of the growing number of complaints.

Military Sexual Abuse

November 16, 2017 (11pm/5:19 length)

Three women, who served our country in the military, did come forward to share their accounts of being raped with reporter Andrea McCarren. In addition to sharing their stories in an 11pm report, digitally we also provided resources for survivors of military sexual assault, along with local and national support groups or organizations. They were prepared to lay their lives on the line for this country. What they never anticipated was that their careers would be derailed after they say, they were raped.

November 17, 2017 (5pm/3:56 length)

Another version of the November 16th story ran in WUSA 9's 5pm newscast. Digital resources were provided for survivors of military sexual assault, along with local and national support groups or organizations.

10/08/17

"Storming Room 135" - a joint interview with four Las Vegas policemen who describe their actions as part of an ad-hoc SWAT team on October 1, shortly after mass murderer Stephen Paddock began firing into a country music festival crowd, from his room on the thirty-second floor of the Mandalay Bay hotel. Interviewed: Detective Casey Clarkson; Sergeant Joshua Bitsko; Officer Dave Newton; Detective Matthew Donaldson. Also includes an interview with Las Vegas Sheriff Joseph Lombardo. (C: Bill Whitaker - P: Marc Lieberman, Oriana Zill de Granados, Michael Rey, Ali Rawaf)

"Secret Weapon" - a profile / interview of Brad Parscale, the digital director for the Trump campaign who strategically used Facebook to microtarget voters in key areas on key issues. Microtargeting is the practice of generating and customizing unique ads for every individual voter. He was aided by employees from the social media sites, like Facebook, Google, and Twitter, who were embedded in the headquarters to offer firsthand knowledge and training in how best to use their product. Parscale denies microtargeting by race; the efficacy of psychographics, a controversial and manipulative practice of targeting based specifically on personality; colluding with the Russians, including the manufacture of fake news stories; creating twitter bots that promote pro-Trump tweets. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shachar Bar-On)

"The Whistleblower" - a joint investigation with The Washington Post into how efforts by the DEA and DOJ to curb the opioid epidemic were undermined by Congress, lobbyists, and drug distribution companies; and an interview with Joe Rannazzisi, former deputy administration DEA turned whistleblower. As opioids continue to flood the black market, Rannazzisi extended his investigation from corrupt doctors and clinics to the drug distribution companies responsible for shipping the drugs from manufacturers to clinics and chain drug stores. He accused the distributors of ignoring requisite preventative measures such as halting suspicious and fraudulent orders; retaliation against the DEA after being fined; using influence to pressure DEA lawyers to ease sentencing. This all resulted in fewer prosecutions, as former DEA attorneys were promoted to high-ranking positions within the private drug industry companies. In 2013, the drug industry lobbied Congress for legislation that ultimately stripped authority and agency away from the DEA in an act of diversion. The bill was written by Linden Barber, former DEA agent turned lobbyist, and introduced to Congress by Representative Tom Marino (R- PA) and Marsha Blackburn (R-TN) and passed with no objections. Includes interviews with: Joe Rannazzisi, former DEA deputy assistant administrator, Office of Diversion Control; Jim Geldoff, former DEA; Frank Younker, former DEA; Jonathan Novak, former DEA attorney; Matt Murphy, former DEA agent turned drug industry consultant. (C: Bill Whitaker - P: Ira Rosen and Sam Hornblower) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT

"Redemption" - a profile /interview of Shon Hopwood, a convicted felon who became a Georgetown University Law Center professor. Sentenced prison for bank robbery in 1999 at age 23, Hopwood became a jailhouse lawyer and found success after a case he filed for a fellow inmate for appeal was heard by the Supreme Court. 48 HOURS

10/07/17

48 HOURS: "Moment of Truth" – an investigation into the death of Patrick Gilhuley, a retired NYPD officer and former bodyguard to stars Angelina Jolie and Brad Pitt. Gilhuley died at the Mount Olive, NJ home of his on-again, off-again girlfriend, schoolteacher Virginia Vertetis. On the night of March 3, 2014, Gilhuley placed a series of frantic calls to his daughter; she heard shots, and within minutes of those calls, he was dead. When police arrived, Vertetis at first lied about an intruder, then said she shot Gilhuley in self-defense. What got Gilhuley and Vertetis to this point is at the center of this complicated case. She claimed he was going to kill her and she shot him in self-defense, but lied about an intruder in the house to police. The prosecution maintains Gilhuley was murdered because her life was falling apart and he was leaving her for another woman. A broken storm door takes center stage during the trial – she claimed the glass broke as Gilhuley slammed it shut. Forensic tests disprove this – bullets from the gun shattered the glass. One of his daughters testified that the murder weapon was Gilhuley's police revolver that was last seen at his house in Staten Island. The prosecution believes Vertetis stole the gun from the house. Vertetis takes the stand to tell her side of the story. After seven hours of deliberation the verdict is guilty of first degree murder. On-screen text graphic: Virginia's daughter and son did not attend the trial or sentencing. Her mother says Virginia did not want them to see her that way. Interviewed: Ed Bilinkas and Sara McArdle (defense attorneys); Jim Faulkner (third husband); Matt Troiano (prosecutor); Jim Molinaro (forensics expert); Jennifer Gilhuley (daughter); Patti Meudt, John Hoover, Gina Samara (jurors). (C: Erin Moriarty – P: Sarah Prior, Lourdes Aguiar, Alicia Tejada)

10/14/17

48 HOURS: "Operation Murder" – a report about two doctors, Valerie McDaniel and Leon Jacob, involved in a 2017 murder-for-hire plot to kill their ex-partners. Moataz Azzeh, a former U.S. Army soldier describes how he was hired to complete the plot during an elaborate sting operation the Houston Police Department used to arrest the couple. Dr. Valerie McDaniel and her ex-husband were in the midst of an ugly custody battle; Dr. Leon Jacob was facing felony charges for stalking an ex-girlfriend. Jacob sought out Moataz Azzeh to eliminate the problems. Azzeh initially took the job, but disappeared with Jacob's money. Jacob turned to a local bail bondsman, who was looking for Azzeh himself, and he called the Houston Police. Azzeh eventually went on to help undercover agents with the case, which included staging the deaths of the intended targets, McDaniel's ex-husband Marion "Mack" McDaniel and Meghan Verikas. During the sting operation, which included the use of bodycam footage, the couple was arrested. Included are excerpts of the bodycam footage, and of a recorded diary McDaniel started after being released on bail. She took her own life sixteen days later. Leon Jacob has pleaded not guilty. He is in jail awaiting trial. On-screen text graphic: Valerie's daughter inherited her estate and now lives with her father, Mack McDaniel. "Taz" Azzeh, the "Hit Man" accepted a plea deal in his theft case and is currently on probation. He hopes to become a Houston Police Officer. Interviewed: Leon Jacob; Moataz Azzeh ("Hit Man"); Cody Bernard (Valerie's cousin); Greg Holloway (Valerie's friend); Brittany King (Valerie's co-worker); Samantha Knecht (Harris County Assistant District Attorney); Nathan Moss (Assistant District Attorney); Detective Javier (undercover Houston Police officer); George Parnham (Jacob's defense attorney). 10/21/17

48 HOURS: "Love, Hate and Obsession" (9:00 - 10:00p) – a updated rebroadcast – with a second epilogue - on the investigation into the 2011 murder of one-time millionaire Lanny Horowitz, who was shot nine times while taking a shower in the bathroom of his upscale Jupiter, Florida home. Only three people were in the home at the time: Lanny Horowitz, his ex-wife Donna Horowitz, whom he had divorced twice, but had reconciled with, and his son, Radley, who also resided there. Both had strained relationships with Lanny. The investigation led investigators to the knowledge that theirs was a deeply troubled family. Both Radley, a former gun dealer, who also served a stint in prison, and his mother Donna, who was bothered by her ex-husband's close relationship with female business partner Francine Tice, were considered suspects. Eventually, Donna was arrested and charged with first-degree murder. At the trial, the defense ultimately blamed her son, Radley. The jury made a quick decision: Donna was guilty. Radley Horowitz has mixed feelings about her defense, but forgives her. On-screen text graphic: Lanny Horowitz had a $500,000 life insurance policy. He left $200,000 to Francine Tice. Radley sued Francine for her share of the insurance payout. Francine settled for $90,000. As part of the settlement, both have agreed never to speak badly about each other publicly. FIRST EPILOGUE: Two years after her conviction, Donna Horowitz won her appeal for a new trial. The appellate judges said the prosecutor had made a mistake in her closing arguments. However, the final decision as to whether or not Donna Horowitz gets a new trial now rests with the Florida Supreme Court. On-screen text graphic for the 12/13/14 original broadcast; the 06/28/14 rebroadcast; and the updated 08/22/15 rebroadcast: Lanny Horowitz had a $500,000 life insurance policy. He left $200,000 to Francine Tice. Radley sued Francine for her share of the insurance payout. Francine settled for $90,000. As part of the settlement, Francine Tice and Radley Horowitz have agreed never to speak badly about each other publicly. SECOND EPILOGUE (10/21/17): four years after being found guilty, Donna Horowitz won the right to a new trial after an appellate court overturned her conviction and life sentence. After a four-day trial and an initial deadlock, the jury reached a verdict: guilty of second degree murder and lesser included charges, not the first degree murder conviction as in the initial trial. She was sentenced to 32 years in prison. Her son, Radley, now living outside the U.S., returned to see his mother sentenced again. Interviewed: Horowitz' son, Radley Horowitz; his brother, Barry Horowitz, his sister Sheila Goldberg;; Jupiter, Florida Police Department detective Eric Frank; Assistant State Attorneys Aleathea McRoberts and Lauren Godden; CSI investigator Tracie McClendon; defense attorney Grey Tesh. (C: Peter Van Sant – Original Producers: Sara Ely Hulse, Michelle Feuer; Producer for the 10/21/17 Rebroadcast: Sara Ely Hulse) (OAD: 12/14/13; 1st Rebroadcast: 06/28/14; 2nd Rebroadcast: 08/22/15 – all as 48 HOURS: "Love, Hate & Obsession")

10/21/17

48 HOURS: "Red Notice For Murder" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the international search conducted by Nadia Ford and private detective Herman Weisberg for Viktoria Nasyrova, a Russian woman suspected of the 2014 murder of Ford's mother, Alla Aleksenko, in her Russian hometown and of stealing her money and other valuables. Nasyrova was believed to be the last person to see her alive. When Aleksenko vanished, Ford went to Russia where she spent several months unraveling the mystery of what happened to her mother. Her investigation led to the discovery of a traffic cam video of Nasyrova driving with Alekseno's body in the front seat of the rental car. Nasyrova fled the country when she found herself with a Red Notice on Interpol's list of most wanted fugitives. Later, to Ford's disbelief, she discovered Nasyrova was living in Brooklyn, NY, just blocks away from her own home. After the NYPD could not locate her, Ford enlisted former police officer and private detective Herman Weisberg to continue the search. He hit paydirt - discovering Nasyrova was continuing her life of crime with several other victims, from a man who met her on a dating site, to a woman with similar looks who believes she was out to kill her and steal her identity. He closely examined her online life and was able to track the alleged killer down. Police arrested her. She remains in custody. On-screen text graphic: Viktoria Nasyrova has been in jail for 7 months. She will stand trial in New York for her alleged crimes. Russia will then formally request Viktoria Nasyrova be sent back to stand trial for the murder of Nadia's mother. Interviewed: Nadia Ford; Herman Weisberg; Ruben Borukohov (dry cleaner/victim); Olga Tsvyk (victim). (C: Peter Van Sant – P: Chris O'Connell, Jonathan Leach)

48 HOURS: “Storm of Suspicion” – a report on the investigation into the disappearance of Crystal McDowell, a divorced mother of two, who disappeared in Baytown, Texas, just as Hurricane Harvey hit the Houston, Texas area in August 2017. As police and emergency first responders struggled to keep up with the damaging storm, a team of police investigators gathered to track McDowell’s disappearance. The historic flooding from the hurricane forced all available first responders into rescuing people, leaving it difficult to conduct a missing persons case. However, a dedicated team of police investigators gathered to track every clue left behind. The break in the case was the discovery of McDowell’s car, found in a flooded motel parking lot. Police interviewed family and friends. The investigation led to the discovery of fractured relationships and hidden family secrets. Because of the storm, much of the physical evidence was washed away in the flood, but authorities focused on the ex-husband, Steve McDowell, certain that he had killed Crystal. Ultimately, police got their man: Steve McDowell admitted he strangled his ex-wife and disposed of the body in a densely wooded area near his house. Without his co-operation and because of the storm, her body would never have been located. He was charged with murder. On-screen text graphic: Steven McDowell has not entered a plea. The couple’s young children are living out of state with a family friend who is in the process of obtaining full legal custody. Interviewed: Jeff Walters and Cindy Seratte (Crystal’s aunt and uncle); Brian Hawthorne (Chambers County Sheriff); Cheryl Lieck Chambers County District Attorney); Paul Hargrave (Crystal’s boyfriend); Krysta McDowell (Steve McDowell’s daughter); L.J. Adams (bail bondsman/Crystal’s friend). (C: Maureen Maher – P: Chris Young Ritzen, Susan Mallie, Lourdes Aguiar, Josh Yager, Marc B. Goldbaum)

48 HOURS: "The Widow on Solway Road" (10:00-11:00p) – an investigation into the murder case against Raynella Leath for the death of her second husband, David Leath, who was found shot dead in his marital bed, the trial, and the mysterious death of the widow's first husband, Ed Dossett, originally classified as an agricultural accident. Raynella and Ed Dossett were a power couple in Knoxville, Tennessee, where Dossett was the Knox County District Attorney General. Tragedy befell them, when Ed was diagnosed with terminal cancer; he then died in a freak accident on the family farm. Six months later, Raynella married David Leath, the local barber. After Leath's death, the wheels of justice moved slowly, and Leath's daughter, Cindy Wilkerson, filed a civil suit against Raynella. Prosecutors took notice and interest was revived in Dossett's death. One theory was that Dossett's unusual death was more about insurance money than cancer. His medical records were reviewed and the cause of death was ruled to be a morphine overdose. In 2009, Raynella went on trial for David Leath's death but the jury deadlocked. In the second trial, she was convicted of first degree murder and sentenced to life in prison. After six years, the conviction was tossed out, because the judge was revealed to have been impaired by drug addiction. In 2017, fourteen years after Leath's death, a third trial begins, but before the jury has a chance to deliberate, Judge Paul Summers (soon to be retiring), grants an acquittal (not guilty), dismissing the case; saying that prosecution had not met its case. Under Tennessee law, there is no appeal. Prosecutors are stunned. Jurors believe that, had they deliberated, they would have convicted her. Information also came to light about her trying to murder another man, Steve Walker, who had found out that his wife had given birth to Ed Dossett's biological child. Raynella Leath is a free woman. On-screen text graphic: Prosecutors intend to file a petition to exhume the body of Raynella's first husband, Ed Dossett, to gather more evidence. They will decide whether to review charges against her for his death. Raynella has moved back to the farm outside Knoxville on Solway Road. Interviewed: Diane Fanning (author); Cindy Wilderson (Leath's daughter); Beth Roberts (Leath's cousin); Steve Crump (prosecutor); Rebecca LeGrand and Josh Hedrick (defense attorneys); Dr. Greg Davis (Kentucky state medical examiner/defense consulting doctor); Steve Walker (intended victim); Paul Summers (trial judge, now retired); Michael Persicano, Jesse Caps, William McMichael (jurors) (C: Erin Moriarty – P: Josh Gaynor, Lisa Freed)

CBS RELIGIOUS SPECIAL

"Protecting the Sacred: Water, the Environment & Climate Change" – an interfaith special looking at how communities are responding to one of the greatest threats of our time. Featured are: (1) Dr. Christiana Zenner Peppard, associate professor of theology, science and ethics at Fordham University in New York, who discusses how water as a vital and life-giving resource is also one of the ways people feel the effects of climate change and what the implications are for individuals and society in the long term. (2) Last year, 10,000 Native American and non-native demonstrators took a stand against the construction of the Dakota Access Pipeline near Standing Rock Sioux Reservation in North Dakota. The construction of the fossil fuel pipeline near the tribe's land put their only source of drinking water at risk. Tara Houska, national campaigns director for Honor the Earth and a member of the Couchiching First Nation in Ontario, reflects on native traditions, their role as environmental stewards and bringing attention to issues related to climate change. (3) Dr. Katharine Hayhoe, climate scientist and professor at Texas Tech University, speaks to the negative impact that climate change is having on the planet and how there is a narrow window of opportunity to mitigate further damage. (4) In Lancaster, PA, a grassroots coalition of people of faith and no particular faith formed "Lancaster Against Pipelines" three years ago to oppose the construction of a fossil fuel pipeline in the area. The Adorers of the Blood of Christ, a Catholic order of nuns, joined the resistance last year and recently filed a lawsuit against the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC) for authorizing the construction and operation of the Atlantic Sunrise Pipeline. Among those interviewed: Malinda and Mark Clatterbuck, co-founders, Lancaster Against Pipelines and Sister Sara Dwyer, ASC. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Produce & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Natalie Baxter. Director & Senior Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. - 11/04/17 PREEMPTION
- 11/11/17 48 HOURS: "Reality Kills" – a report on the 2013 shooting death of Will Carter Jr. and the potential impact a television show had on an Atlanta detective's investigation into the case. The report raises questions into the investigative process when television cameras are around, and the flaws in a relationship that ended in the death of a young man who overcame addiction to become a success in the business world. In 2013, Victoria Rickman called 911 to report she had repeatedly shot her boyfriend, Will Carter Jr., saying he raped her. Detective Summer Benton thought the case was going to be self-defense when she arrived on the scene with a camera crew for a true-crime series, "Inside Homicide". She immediately thought something was not right. When contacted, Carter's family maintained that it would never be self-defense. Several hours after the shooting, Victoria Rickman was arrested and charged with murder. Prosecutors maintained Rickman made up the rape to cover for shooting Carter. Amanda Clark Palmer, Rickman's defense attorney, claimed Detective Benton made mistakes during the investigation and was guilty of a rush to judgement because she was being tailed by a TV crew. She cited several points Benton made on camera that were not true and that it was clearly domestic violence. Benton countered that the crew had no impact into her investigation and that the case was clearly murder; she believed the information on the television program would not affect the jury's decision. The verdict: Rickman was guilty on every count. At the sentencing, she offered no apology. The sentence: life in prison without parole. On-screen text graphic: Will Carter's daughter is being raised by the child's mother. Victoria Rickman's son is being raised by her ex-husband. Rickman's lawyer has filed a motion for a new trial. Interviewed: Summer Benton (detective); Britni Morgan (Victoria's friend); William Carter Sr. and Caro Carter (William Carter Jr.'s parents); Kevin Leonpacher (Atlanta Police detective); Andrew Scarr (Victoria's friend); and Amanda Clark Palmer (defense attorney). 48 HOURS (continued)

- 11/18/17 48 HOURS: "Murder on the Cape" (9:00 – 10:00p) – an updated follow-up to "Secrets of the Heart" (OAD: 04/10/02; rebroadcast on 08/05/02 with an update.) In January 2002, Christa Worthington, a former fashion writer, was found murdered in her Truro, Massachusetts home. The expanding list of potential suspects included her former boyfriend, Tim Arnold, who had discovered her body; and ex-lover Tony Jackett, a married father of five children, whose affair with Worthington produced a daughter named Ava. DNA evidence was found on Worthington's body indicating sexual relations, but when the crime lab produced results a year after her murder, they did not match any of the potential suspects. With no match, District Attorney Michael O'Keefe widened the circle of his investigation and asked for DNA from every single man in Truro. Three and a half years after the murder, a match was found for the DNA located both inside and outside Worthington's body. Christopher A. McCowen, Worthington's garbage man, was arrested for her murder. McCowen denied knowing Worthington until he was presented with the DNA evidence against him. With that information, McCowen admitted to having had sexual relations with Worthington and that he had beat her, but he blamed her murder on his friend, Jeremy Frazier. However, Frazier's DNA wasn't found anywhere on Worthington's body and he had an alibi. McCowen's attorney, Bob George, believed that McCowen's race, class, drug use, and low IQ made him an easy target and that McCowen and Worthington had been involved in a consensual sexual relationship. George believed that the police had bungled the investigation and that the case was based on the inability to imagine an actual relationship between the two. McCowen never testified. The jury found him guilty of first degree murder and sentenced him to life in prison without the possibility of parole. Attorney Bob George claims he has evidence of racial bias on the jury and has filed a motion for a new trial. Epilogue for the 11/18/17 Updated Rebroadcast: Soon after the conviction, the verdict was brought into question because of racial bias. The judge ruled against McCowen. In 2010 a judicial court agreed. McCowen has refused to give up. - 11/18/17 48 HOURS: "Taken Away" (10:00-11:00p) – a report on the 2016 disappearance and death of 27-year-old Jessie Bardwell, who vanished from the Texas home she shared with her boyfriend Jason Lowe. Jessie Bardwell lived in Alabama where she met Jason Lowe and fell in love. To the surprise of her family, she picked up and moved to Texas. It turned out she was following Lowe, who had gotten a job there. Eventually, she uncharacteristically lost touch with them. The family had a bad feeling, believing Lowe was a fault. Suddenly, she disappeared. Her father filed a missing persons report, as did Lowe. After many days, everyone was desperate, except for Lowe. Detectives suspected him, but he stuck to his story, claiming she just drove off. In time, Lowe was arrested on drug charges and charged with murder, even without a body. Investigators searched the fields of a ranch in Richardson, Texas, which led to the discovery of a body found under a sheet, covered with debris. They would not tell the Bardwell family what led them to that place. Police were confident Bardwell was responsible, but it took seven days to identify the body. Lowe later claimed Bardwell's death was an accident. His attorney put together a mock trial to test the defense theory. The result -- Lowe was innocent. Prosecutors maintain it was murder and Lowe tried to hide the body. At the trial, prosecutors were confident they would be able to convict Lowe. On the stand, he claimed it was all an accident. It is ultimately revealed that it was Jason Lowe who told police where to find the body and had cut a deal. If convicted, the most he would serve would be half of a 99-year sentence. The jury's verdict: guilty of murder as charged. He is sentenced to the negotiated deal. On-screen text graphic: Jason Lowe is appealing his murder conviction. He will be eligible for parole in May of 2041. He will be fifty-two years old. Gary Bardwell has set up a scholarship to help students achieve their dreams in Jessie's name. Interviewed: Gary Bardwell, Brandon Bardwell, Kitty Bardwell (father, brother and grandmother); Kimberly Asbury, Terri Ellis (Jessie's friends); Chiron Hale and Eric Willardsen (detectives); Regina and Tommy Jordan (friends of the couple); Andy Farkas (defense attorney); Wes Wynne, Cynthia Walker (prosecutors); and Jason Lowe. 48 HOURS: "A Brother's Mission" – a report on the 2007 death of Karl Hoerig, a decorated military pilot from Ohio and his brother's mission to track down and bring to justice the accused killer -- Claudia Sobral Hoerig, Karl's second wife. Karl was found shot dead in his Ohio home after failing to show up for reserve duty. His family and friends immediately suspected Claudia, who had also vanished. Karl and Claudia's joint bank accounts had been emptied and she had returned to her home country of Brazil. One month later, Claudia Sobral was charged in absentia with aggravated murder. However, Brazilian law prevents Brazilian citizen from being extradited. One of the many questions being raised in this ground-breaking judicial case, is that since Claudia was also an American citizen and had renounced her Brazilian citizenship, is she still protected from extradition under Brazilian law? She fought back, winning many rulings. But in 2016, the Brazilian Supreme Court ruled against her and she is now in prison. Paul Hoerig traveled to Brazil to press U.S. authorities and Brazil to expedite the matter. Three weeks after he got home, the Supreme Court of Brazil officially closed the case: Claudia can be extradited. The last step: the Brazilian President has to issue the order to put Claudia on a plane. For the first time in a decade, the family feels hopeful that Claudia will be returned to the United States to stand trial. On-screen text graphic: There is no timetable for the President of Brazil to rule on Claudia Sobral's extradition. Claudia Sobral will remain in jail until she is extradited, or tried for Karl Hoerig's murder in Brazil. Interviewed: Ed Hoerig, Paul Hoerig, Eva Snowden (Karl's father, brother and daughter); Rhonda Sharpe (Karl's first wife); Gary Dodge, Chris Swegan, Casey Keibler (Karl's friends); Richard Sliter (gun instructor); Dennis Watkins (Trumbull County prosecuting attorney); Rep. 48 HOURS

48 HOURS: “The Psychiatrist and the Selfie” – an updated rebroadcast on the case against Jacob Nolan, who claims his cousin and psychiatrist, Dr. Pamela Buchbinder, brainwashed him into attempting to kill her former lover, fellow psychiatrist Dr. Michael Weiss, during the time the unmarried couple was going through a custody battle for their son. On November 12, 2012, Nolan attacked Dr. Weiss in his office with a sledgehammer and a knife. Weiss fought back. After the struggle, while covered in blood, Nolan snapped a selfie. He was arrested and charged with attempted murder. At the time of the attack, Nolan was living with Buchbinder, who was also treating him for depression, anxiety, and bipolar disorder. Dr. Buchbinder was also going through a nasty custody battle with Dr. Weiss. Today, Jacob Nolan says that Dr. Buchbinder manipulated and brainwashed him to hate Dr. Weiss and that hatred turned into their plan to kill Dr. Weiss. After the attack, Nolan was in a manic state and taken to the ER. Dr. Buchbinder went to the hospital, but was not allowed to see him. Although there is evidence of Dr. Buchbinder purchasing the sledgehammer, she has not been charged with any crime. Nolan was freed on bail and went to live with his parents in Miami. Dr. Weiss was granted custody of his son. Today Nolan seems rational and insists he was not in control of himself at the time of the incident, and even tried to commit suicide in 2015. In March 2016, the trial began. The prosecution insisted Nolan could have rationalized his thoughts and backed out at any time. The defense argued diminished capacity: Dr. Buchbinder had replaced Nolan’s free will with a cult-like mentality. The verdict: guilty. Nolan was sentenced to nine and a half years in prison. He says he is genuinely remorseful for what happened and still says Dr. Buchbinder needs to take responsibility too. Dr. Weiss is raising his son alone, and his attorney says he still lives in fear. 12/02/17 UPDATE: Five years after the attack on Michael Weiss, the law caught up with Dr. Pamela Buchbinder. She was arrested and charged with second-degree attempted murder and first-degree attempted assault. The Manhattan D.A. says she was the mastermind behind the plot. She has hired two top New York defense attorneys. After the judge heard arguments, he refused to grant bail. A trial date is expected in early 2018. The star witness: Jake Nolan. Original On-screen text graphic: The New York City Police Department says the investigation into the attack on Doctor Michael Weiss is “ongoing”. But a spokesperson would not say whether Doctor Pamela Bookbinder is a suspect. On-screen text graphic for the 12/02/17 updated rebroadcast: Pamela Buchbinder’s attorneys are still trying to get her out on bail from Riker’s Island. 48 HOURS PRESENTS: “Guilty Until Proven Innocent” – an updated rebroadcast about the cases against Darryl Pinkins and Roosevelt Glenn: two Indiana men, a 1989 gang rape, and the DNA evidence at the time that did not tie either man to the crime. Yet, both were convicted, spending years in prison before new DNA technology changed their fates. Pinkins and Glenn vowed they were innocent. Prosecutors had evidence and a victim who said she could identify one of the five alleged attackers. At trial, prosecutors also argued that DNA testing was new and unreliable - both were convicted. Their cases drew the attention of Indiana law professor Fran Watson who, along with her students, continued to search for clues over a fifteen year period. Everything changed for them when a new technology called TrueAllele came along, which could separate the genetic mixture in DNA evidence. This new technology has the potential to change the outcome in thousands of cases nationwide. Glenn had been released from prison after 17 years for good behavior, and Pinkins was released after 26 years when prosecutors overturned their convictions. EPILOGUE: Early in 2017, Roosevelt Glenn’s convictions were finally overturned. His name has been expunged from the federal sex offender registry. One year after being freed from prison, Pinkins is still adjusting to the 21st century. After months of job hunting, Mayor Kearen Wilson came to the rescue: hiring Pinkins as a maintenance worker for the city of Gary. Original on-screen text graphic: Just this week Roosevelt Glenn’s conviction was officially overturned. He will now move to have his name expunged from the Federal Sex Offenders Registry. Darryl Pinkins is living with his nephew and is looking for a job. On-screen text graphic for the 12/09/17 updated rebroadcast: On July 28, 2017 – six months after finally seeing her son Roosevelt exonerated, Sally Glenn passed away, just shy of her 90th birthday. Pinkins and Glenn will be filing a civil rights lawsuit that will include the state crime lab and Detective Solan. Interviewed: Roosevelt Glenn and Darryl Pinkins; Glenn family members: Sally Glenn, Darniese Glenn, Renitta Stout; Pinkins family members: Mildred Pinkins, Dameon Pinkins, Tracy Pinkins; Mike Solan (retired Detective Lieutenant, Hammond, Indiana); Fran Watson (Indiana University Law Professor); Law students Max, Brenda, and Polly (no last names); Joe Curosh (former Lake County prosecutor); Greg Hampikian (DNA expert); Karen Freeman-Wilson (former public defender/current Mayor, Gary, Indiana); Dr. Mark Perlin (DNA expert/inventor of TrueAllele); Bernard Carter (Lake County Prosecutor) (C: Maureen Maher - P: Judy Rybak) (OAD: 02/04/17 as 48 HOURS: “Guilty Until Proven Innocent”)

48 HOURS: “The DNA of a Killer” – a report on the 1996 death of Angie Dodge; the unusual circumstances in which Michael Usry, Jr., a filmmaker and producer of a short film about a brutal death, became a suspect in the case; and the approach police took to try to find a DNA match through a public database that had been bought by Ancestry.com. In 1996, Idaho Falls teenager Angie Dodge was brutally murdered. The killer left behind semen which police tested against the DNA of men she knew, including Christopher Tapp. His DNA did not match, but after 28 hours of interrogation over 23 days, Tapp confessed to being there when she was killed, and stated that one of the participants was a man named Mike. Christopher Tapp was convicted of killing Dodge, but the case remained open because Tapp’s DNA did not match the man whose semen was left at the crime scene. In 2014, police searched a public database that had been bought by Ancestry.com, hoping to find a match through familial searching. The search resulted in a partial match. Police got Ancestry.com to reveal the name of the anonymous man behind the sample - Michael Usry, Sr. - which ultimately led to his son, Michael Usry, Jr. Despite the close DNA match and the matching first name, Usry Jr. had nothing to do with the death and was officially cleared. His story raised serious questions about what happens when police use publicly available DNA databases to solve cases -- and what happens when an innocent man is tagged as a suspect. Michael Usry decided to make a documentary and was joined by Angie’s mother, Carol Dodge, who had an agenda of her own: to find the killer. Their search has led them to believe that Christopher Tapp was innocent. Their combined efforts led to a review of the case and Tapp being able to accept a plea deal, which led to his release from prison after twenty years. Original on-screen text graphic: Carol Dodge met with detectives this week and continues to push them to find her daughter’s killer. Chris Tapp says he has many job offers since his release last month and is happy to be weighing his options. On-screen text graphic for the 12/16/17 rebroadcast: Shortly after being released, Chris Tapp was married. After a fight with his wife, he was arrested and charged with misdemeanor domestic battery. The Couple reconciled. Chris Tapp is now awaiting trial. Idaho Falls police say the investigation into Angie Dodge’s murder is ongoing. Interviewed: Michael Usry, Jr.; Carol Dodge; Christopher Tapp; Mark McBride (Idaho Falls, Idaho Chief of Police); Greg Hampikian (DNA expert); Erin Murphy (New York University Law Professor); Patrick McKenna (Detective); Michael Heavy (retired superior court judge); John Thomas (Tapp’s appellate attorney). 12/23/17

48 HOURS: "The Evidence Room" (9:00-11:00p) – An exploration of the sometimes emotional and occasionally frustrating preparations that go on behind closed doors before a jury ever walks into a courtroom as detailed in two cases prepared by The Evidence Room, a company run by CBS News Consultant Scott Roder. The Evidence Room prepares visual representations, made by cutting-edge forensic animators for either the defense or the prosecution and they may play a significant part in the trial or they may not, depending on the legal strategies the teams choose to take. As detailed in two cases, Roder and his team prepare analysis as detailed: 1) the murder cases against Colleen McKernan, charged with shooting her husband, Robert McKernan ten times on New Year's Eve in 2014. Her attorneys claimed it was self-defense and hired Roder to create visual representations of her story. The Evidence Room staff re-created the crime scene to prove the defense theory. As the case went to trial and testimony progressed, the prosecution had the re-creation excluded from the trial. The defense focused on battered woman syndrome and Colleen took the stand to testify. The verdict: a mistrial. At the second trial, with a new defense team, Roder presented some of the animation to the jury, but the result was the same – a mistrial. On March 17, 2017, a resolution was reached in the case: in a plea offer, McKernan pleaded guilty to one count of voluntary manslaughter. 2) in a civil suit, The Cochran Firm client Emmanuel Bracy was left partially incapacitated and in a wheelchair, after being shot by Los Angeles Police detectives. Bracy was the suspect in a string of robberies and police used Vehicle Containment Technology to capture him. Three of the four detectives claimed he had a gun, and a shootout resulted. Bracy was severely injured. Bracy pled guilty to the crime, but that did not stop him from seeking justice. After the shootout, Bracy and the car suffered heavy damage, but there was no gun in plain sight, although one was found wrapped in a cloth, hidden inside an air conditioning vent in the dashboard. The Evidence Room was hired to prove that the gun that was found was not used by Bracy. They re-created the entire scene with cars, guns and ammunition. In the end, after all the time and effort, the jury never saw the presentation. The state's forensic expert was not able to testify, and Roder, as a rebuttal expert on the case was not able to either. After nine days of testimony, the jury returned a judgement in favor of the LAPD. On-screen text graphic: Colleen McKernan is currently serving her sentence at the Ohio Reformatory for Women. She could be released as early as September 2020, by a judge's decision based on her behavior in prison. Interviewed. Interviewed: Scott Roder (CBS News Consultant); Evidence Room employees: Amy Metzgar (logistics coordinator), Patrick Mooney (biomedical illustrator), Marcus Sidoti (criminal defense attorney); Ian Friedman (McKernan defense attorney); Jennifer Dave (lead prosecutor, State of Ohio); Dr. Daniel Spitz (forensic pathologist); Colleen McKernan; Dennis and Kathie McKernan (parents of Robert McKernan); Gary and Jan Owen (parents of Colleen McKernan); Laura Mills (new McKernan defense attorney); Brandon Dunn (Cochran Firm attorney). 48 HOURS: “The Secrets of Waco” (8:00-9:00p) – a review, as the 25th anniversary approaches of the deadly 51-day standoff in April 1993 between Branch Davidian cult leader David Koresh and U.S Government in Waco, Texas. It all began with a shootout between Branch Davidian followers and the ATF (Bureau of Alcohol, Firearms and Tobacco) that left four agents and six of Koresh’s followers dead, ultimately bringing in a large FBI task force to negotiate a peaceful surrender. That did not happen; after 41 days, the compound was destroyed by government tanks ramming into the buildings, as agents fired tear gas. More than 70 followers died, nearly two dozen of them were children. The entire compound was destroyed by fire. Also included: an interview with retired Texas United Parcel Service (UPS) driver, Larry Gilbreath, one of the people regularly to go into the compound, who says he unwittingly delivered military grade guns and ammunition in the weeks before the siege, and who began working with the ATF in an undercover operation. Also other current and former Branch Davidians speak along with a discussion of what occurred within the compound, including unimaginable horror that followed the raid. On-screen text graphic: There were five major investigations. The Justice Department blamed Koresh. The Treasury Department was critical of its own ATF officers. Congress, as well as a seventeen million dollar independent review were critical of both the ATF and the FBI. The Waco tragedy changed the way law enforcement reacts and responds to similar standoff situations. Eleven Branch Davidians, including Clive Doyle, were tried for conspiracy to murder ATF officials. Nine were convicted on lesser charges and served prison time. Clive Doyle was acquitted of all charges. No Branch Davidian was ever charged with arson. Interviewed: Lee Hancock (journalist, CBS News Consultant); Larry Gilbreath (UPS driver) and wife Debra Gilbreath; Marc Breault and wife Elizabeth Breault (friends of Koresh); Sheila Martin (cult member); Grace Adams (sister of cult member); Joann Vaega (child of cult members killed in siege); Clive Doyle (true believer); Robert Cervenka (local rancher) Bill Buford (Special ATF Agent in Charge); Dick DeGuerin (Koresh’s attorney (C: Peter Van Sant – P: Josh Yager) (See also: “Standoff at Waco”, OAD: 03/17/93; and “Mass Suicide”, OAD: 03/27/97). 48 HOURS: “Murder by Design” (9:00 – 10:00p) - an investigation into questions that still exist nearly twenty years after fashion designer Gianni Versace was gunned down outside his Miami mansion by Andrew Cunanan. He was shot dead on July 15, 1997 -- the killer walked up, shot him execution style and walked off, leaving Versace bleeding to death on the steps to his home. Investigation revealed Andrew Cunanan, who was openly gay, was a spree killer who thrived on attention and was willing to kill even his friends. Police across the country were already hunting for Cunanan for the murder of four others – in Minnesota, he killed his friend Jeff Trail (who had been previously interviewed by 48 HOURS in 1993 about gays in the military) and his lover David Madson. In Chicago, Cunanan murdered real estate developer Lee Miglin and stole his car. Then in New Jersey, he killed cemetery caretaker William Reese, stole his truck and drove to Miami, where he lived off the grid for two months. With police and the FBI on his trail, he was even featured on “America’s Most Wanted”. Finally, a tip came that changed everything. After a four-hour standoff on a houseboat, police found the body of Andrew Cunanan. Now, twenty years later, there is still no hard evidence to the speculation that Cunanan and Versace has some kind of connection. On-screen text graphic: Twenty years after his death, the House of Versace continues to succeed, led by Gianni's sister, Donatella and brother Santo. Jeff Trail was interviewed on 48 HOURS: “Not In My Army” on 04/07/93. Interviewed: Lazaro Quintana (friend of Versace); Carlos Noriega (Lieutenant, Miami Beach Police); Richard Barreto (Miami Beach Police Chief); Michael Band (prosecutor); Robert Ahrends (Cunanan’s seventh grade classmate); Nicole Murray-Ramirez (Cunanan’s high school classmate); Michael Williams (Cunanan acquaintance); Mary Ellen O’Toole (former FBI profiler); Julie Hovland (friend of David Madson); Dale Barsness (detective); Stephen Byer (neighbor of Lee Miglin); Gustavo Sanchez (detective); Tim Gunn (fashion designer). 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "Bad Boy" (10:00 – 11:00p) - an investigation into the 2011 disappearance of Shelley Mook, a young mother from Bedford County, Tennessee; her ex-husband Tyler Mook -- the last person on record to see her alive -- and why investigators consider him the chief person of interest in her disappearance. The case exposed strained family relationships and left investigators wondering how Shelley Mook could just vanish without a trace. Shelley Mook was last seen by her 6-year-old daughter entering the home of her ex-husband. Tyler Mook didn't have much to say when questioned by police -- there was no crime scene and no body. Neither Mook -- who used the Fifth Amendment more than 150 times to refuse to answer questions about what happened to his ex-wife in a family court custody case -- nor his family or family lawyers, would speak on his behalf to 48 HOURS. Local authorities also declined to discuss the case. Tyler Mook remains a person of interest in Shelley's disappearance. Eventually, Tyler moved to Florida, where many women found him charming to be around. He was arrested and charged with attempted murder when he attacked an on-again, off-again girlfriend while on a boating trip with his brother and his brother's girlfriend. Tyler tried to drown her because she disrespected his family. No one wanted to defend Tyler, except his one friend, Erica Tucker. At his trial, his brother, Andrew Mook, was forced to testify against him. He was found guilty of attempted murder and sentenced to 12 years in prison. Back in Tennessee, Shelley's case remains open. Investigator Kevin Keele hopes someday to find Shelley's body. On-screen text graphic: Tyler Mook remains a "person of interest" in the disappearance of his ex-wife. Shelly and Tyler's daughter Lilli, still lives with Shelley's mom. Interviewed: Larry Farley (firefighter); Brittany Brooks (Shelley's friend); Kevin Keele (48 HOURS consultant/legal investigator); Robin Doneth (Tyler's Florida girlfriend); Juliano Garzia and Dylan Wedgewood (witnesses to boating incident); and Erica Tucker (Tyler's friend). "Faith on the Frontlines" -- an interfaith special examining the interfaith clergy movement that has vowed to take on white supremacy. Featured: (1) As the Charlottesville, VA city council discussed plans to remove confederate statues from local parks, tension within the community was mounting. In May and July, two separate demonstrations by white nationalists and Ku Klux Klan members inspired counter-protests by local activists, including clergy. This summer, as word got out about the size and scope of an upcoming white supremacist rally, Unite the Right, local faith leaders quickly mobilized and formed Congregate Charlottesville. In addition to non-violent direct action training, the group invited national faith leaders and lay people from around the country to join them in their counter-protest against white supremacy. Among those interviewed about the events leading up to that day and the aftermath: Brittany Caine-Conley, lead organizer of Congregate Charlottesville, a member of Discernment with Sojourners United Church of Christ in Charlottesville; Rev. Brenda Brown-Grooms, co-pastor of New Beginnings Christian Community; Rev. Phil Woodson, associate pastor of First United Methodist Church; Rabbi Rachel Schmelkin of Congregation Beth Israel; and Don Gathers, a deacon at the First Baptist Church. (2) In the wake of Charlottesville, Rev. Robert W. Lee made national headlines after speaking out against white supremacy at the MTV Video Music Awards. Rev. Lee, the fourth great nephew of Confederate General Robert E. Lee, was recently ordained in the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship after graduating from Duke University Divinity School with a Master's in theological studies. Today he continues his work as a public theologian and anti-racism activist. He calls for all clergy to speak out against white supremacy from the pulpit and in the public square.
