Jan - 2013 - W VXU

Freakonomics Radio, Thursdays, 7:00 PM - In their books Freakonomics and SuperFreakonomics, Steven D. Levitt and Stephen J. Dubner use the tools of economics to explore real-world behavior. As boring as that may sound, what they really do is tell stories — about cheating schoolteachers, self-dealing real-estate agents, and crack-selling mama's boys. Those Freakonomics stories — and plenty of new ones — are now coming to the radio, with Dubner as host. Just like the books, Freakonomics Radio explores “the hidden side of everything.” It will tell you things you always thought you knew but didn't, and things you never thought you wanted to know, but do. WVXU features this 5-part series in January, Thursday evenings at 7:00 PM.

January 3 – Save Me From Myself
January 10 – You Eat What You Are
January 17 – The Truth is Out There. . . Isn't It?
January 24 – Freakonomics Goes to College
January 31 – Legacy of a Jerk

The Moth, Sundays, 8:00 PM – The Moth Radio Hour features true stories told live on stage without scripts, notes, props, or accompaniment. Each Moth Radio Hour mixes humorous, heartbreaking, and poignant tales that captivate, surprise, and delight audiences with their honesty, bravery and humor. WVXU is pleased to now offer the program year round, Sunday evenings at 8:00 PM.

Song Travels with Michael Feinstein, Sundays, 9:00 PM - Host Michael Feinstein welcomes a new guest each week to explore the genre of American Popular Song, examining how these great songs have evolved through the years, changing with each interpretation and artist. Guests give intimate performances and share personal insights on his or her interpretation of the Great American Songbook

January 6 - Wynton Marsalis

Trumpeter and composer Wynton Marsalis hails from one of New Orleans' most distinguished jazz families, and he has continued the Marsalis dynasty with multiple Grammy Awards, a Pulitzer Prize, and the National Medal of Arts. Spend an hour with this legendary artist as he shares a few of his favorite things, including a recently discovered recording of Louis Armstrong's last known performance.

January 13 - Eric Benét

Singer, songwriter, and actor Eric Benét charges his old school soul songwriting with healthy doses of modern funk and hip-hop. His winning formula has been recognized with multiple Grammy and Image Award nominations. Benét joins Feinstein for a set of original tunes and classics by Stevie Wonder, Earth, Wind & Fire, and David Foster.

January 20 - Shelby Lynne

Singer/songwriter Shelby Lynne has carved her own path as a respected independent artist. After years in Nashville she relocated to California, where the Grammy-winning artist continues to earn high praise with each new album. Lynne performs her own tunes and teams up with host Feinstein on “Gee Baby Ain't I Good to You.”

January 27 - Miloš Karadaglić

Classical guitarist Miloš Karadaglić began performing as his country, the former Yugoslavia, was being ripped apart by war. He entered the Royal Academy of Music in London, and his hard work is paying off — a 2012 solo concert at Royal Albert Hall was widely praised! Karadaglić brings his love of Latin music to Song Travels with pieces by Brazilian composer Heitor Villa-Lobos and Argentine tango master Astor Piazzolla.

L.A. THEATRE WORKS – Saturdays at 8:00 PM

January 5 - "End Days"

Written by: Deborah Zoe Laufer

Cast: Dane DeHaan, Arye Gross, Shannon Cochran

Director: Michael Hackett

Synopsis: A middle-American housewife has found salvation, and her rebellious teenage daughter wants nothing to do with it. But when a bookish young suitor in an Elvis suit comes calling, her daughter experiences an unexpected revelation of her own.

The broadcast includes a conversation about science and faith with Robert John Russell, the founder and director of the Center for Theology and the Natural Sciences

This play is part of L.A. Theatre Works' Relativity Series featuring science-themed plays. Major funding for the Relativity Series is provided by the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, to enhance public understanding of science and technology in the modern world.

January 12 - "Pride and Prejudice"

Written By: Jane Austen, adapted by Christina Calvit

Cast: Julia McIlvane, Nick Toren, Jane Carr

Director: Brian Kite

Synopsis: The dour, upper-class Mr. Darcy is anything but popular with the Bennets...especially when he fancies the outgoing, judgmental Elizabeth. And as Elizabeth reluctantly deals with his advances, their romance seems destined to fail. A sparkling cast highlights a new production of Jane Austen's classic, recorded during the final leg of L.A. Theatre Works' 2012 national tour.

The broadcast contains a roundtable interview with the full cast.
An L.A. Theatre Works premiere broadcast

January 19 - "Tape/American Appetites"

Written by: Stephen Belber (Tape)/Joyce Carol Oates (American Appetites)

Cast: William Mapother, Josh Stamberg, Alison West (Tape)/ Anna Gunn, Keith Carradine (American Appetites)

Director: Natakí Garrett (Tape) /Gordon Hunt (American Appetites)

Synopsis: In Tape, two old high-school buddies are reunited in a Colorado motel room ... only to find their friendship still haunted by the events of the past. And in American Appetites, a wealthy couple's American dream is shattered by tragedy, and life in the aftermath becomes harder to reconstruct.

January 26 - "The Rose Tattoo"

Written By: Tennessee Williams

Cast: Mercedes Ruehl, Anthony LaPaglia

Director: Richard Masur

Synopsis: A poor Sicilian widow is raising her only daughter in post-war Louisiana. But as her daughter grows to maturity, she is forced to reconcile the values of the New World with the deeply-held pain of her past.

The broadcast includes a piece about the life of Italian immigrants living on the Gulf Coast with Anthony Margavio, the co-author of Bread and Respect: The Italians of Louisiana, as well as a conversation with Tennessee Williams' biographer Kenneth Holditch.

Feb. 2013 WVXU

There are theatrical productions on Saturday nights, and amazing storytelling and music on Sunday nights, all through February on 91.7 WVXU and 88.5 WMUB.

The Moth - Sundays, 8:00 PM - The Moth Radio Hour features true stories told live on stage without scripts, notes, props, or accompaniment. Each Moth Radio Hour mixes humorous, heartbreaking, and poignant tales that captivate, surprise, and delight audiences with their honesty, bravery and humor. Guests give intimate performances and share personal insights on his or her interpretation of the Great American Songbook. WVXU is pleased to now offer this program year round, Sunday evenings at 9:00PM.

This month's guests:

February 3 - Marilyn McCoo & Billy Davis, Jr.

The husband and wife musical team of Marilyn McCoo & Billy Davis, Jr., met as members of the iconic '60s group The 5th Dimension. They went on to perform as a successful duo and host their own television show. Over 40 years later, their music and mutual love and respect are still going strong. Performances include "Mona Lisa" and "Here's That Rainy Day."

February 10 - Ryan Bingham

Singer/songwriter Ryan Bingham has made the unlikely journey from rodeo rider to Grammy and Oscar winner for the Crazy Heart soundtrack. His gritty-beyond-his-years voice echoes the rough and tumble life he's known. On this Song Travels, Bingham performs tunes with a roadhouse tinge, including his own "As I Do My Dancing" and "Too Deep To Fill."

February 17 - Aaron Neville

Grammy-winning R&B /soul singer Aaron Neville has been a radio mainstay for over five decades. And he has been ambassador to the world for New Orleans following Hurricane Katrina. On this week's episode, Neville's silky smooth voice is sure to get everyone in the Valentine's Day spirit, as he performs a set of Doo-Wop greats including "This Magic Moment" and "Under The Boardwalk."

February 24 - Stephen Holden
New York Times music and film critic Stephen Holden covered the 1970s singer/songwriter explosion before he went on to write up everything from film to cabaret. Music has been with him every step of the way. On this week's program Holden illustrates his life's journey through musical milestones from Bob Dylan to Sinatra to Sting.

LA Theatre Works – Saturdays, 8PM

February 2 - "Fabulation"

Written by: Lynn Nottage

Cast: Charlayne Woodard, Daniel Breaker, Jon Matthews

Director: Stuart K. Robinson

Synopsis: Knocked-up and seriously broke, a successful publicist is plunged into a topsy-turvy world of welfare mothers and drug addicts, and forced to confront the family she left behind. "Fabulation" is a darkly comic rags-to-riches-to-rags tale of falling down and reaching up to find the goodness within.

February 9 - "Beloved Clara"

Compiled by: Lucy Parham

Cast: Rosalind Ayres, Martin Jarvis, Lucy Parham

Director: Martin Jarvis

Synopsis: The story of the intense relationships between Robert Schumann, his wife Clara, and Johannes Brahms are brought vividly to life through music and excerpts from their passionate writings. With the arrival of the young, dynamic Brahms into their household, the Schumanns' fragile marriage is threatened by the deepening bond between Clara and their gifted guest. The broadcast includes a conversation with author-pianist Lucy Parham.

February 16 - "The Prisoner of Second Avenue"

Written By: Neil Simon

Cast: Richard Dreyfuss, Marsha Mason

Director: Scott Schwartz

Synopsis: Neil Simon's masterpiece about a middle-aged couple facing everything from unemployment to noisy neighbors to a garbage strike. Richard Dreyfuss, Marsha Mason, and other cast members performed this play for L.A. Theatre Works shortly after a successful revival in London's West End.

The broadcast includes an interview with Ellen Schiff, author of Awake and Singing: Six Great American Jewish Plays.

February 23 - "A Raisin in the Sun"

Written By: Lorraine Hansberry

Cast: Rutina Wesley, Judyann Elder, Corey Hawking, Deidrie Henry

Director: Lou Bellamy

Synopsis: The landmark story of a working-class African-American family struggling to maintain dignity in a harsh world. With her late husband's insurance money finally in hand, Mama Lena dreams of moving to a better home. However, her children have other plans. . What happens when family dreams drastically diverge? "A Raisin in the Sun" is a seminal American drama and a heroic testament to hope.

Subject: RE: Monthly releases - Feb. + Maya Angelou special on WVXU

Looks good, Kevin –

I have one program to add, please, on WVXU:

February 21, 7:00 PM - Maya Angelou's Black History Month Special - Host Maya Angelou poetically and historically covers milestone milestones by African Americans in Nobel Peace Prize, Grammy, Academy Awards, and cultural awards. Dr. Maya Angelou treats us to her soulful, poignant conversations with Nobel Peace Prize Winner Kofi Anon, Secretary, General of the United Nations 1997- 2006; vocalist and actress Jennifer Hudson; television host, executive producer and media mogul Oprah Winfrey; actress and playwright Regina Taylor, and multiple Grammy Award winning vocalist, actress, philanthropist and activist Alicia Keyes.

As African Americans continue to be acknowledged by their communities, our country and internationally, this hour-long Black History Month radio program features milestone conversations with Maya Angelou and lauded African Americans from the Grammy's to the Emmy's, Academy Awards, and Nobel Prize categories. Host Maya Angelou, Presidential Medal of Freedom recipient, Tony and Grammy award winner and Pulitzer Prize and National Book Award nominee, offers a unique, poetic and historical context of African Americans telling their own stories of success, community and ascent into the larger world society.

- Oprah Winfrey, Television Personality, Philanthropist, Emmy Winner, Television Network Owner, speaks on ownership; the importance of her latest role in the film, The Butler; and the changing climate of the entertainment industry.

- Kofi Annan, Secretary General of the United Nations 1997- 2006, Nobel Peace Prize Winner 2001, speaks about the need for continued talks on peace, as well as his memoir, Interventions: A Life in War and Peace.

- Jennifer Hudson, Academy Award and Grammy winner, recalls her rise from an urban neighborhood, overcoming personal tragedy to providing help for that community and others as she uses the voice she found and developed to take her around the world most recently to the 2012 Nobel Peace Prize Concert.

- Regina Taylor, Golden Globe-winning actress and playwright, talks about how generations are bridged from the writer's pen and the ability to connect social issues as well as the depth of family on the stage and screen.

- Alicia Keys, multiple Grammy Award winner and philanthropist, talks about the changing roles of the entertainer and using the empowerment of voice and other talents with action in the local and international community.

Please proof. Thanks.

March 2013

Sunday nights have never been better on 91.7 WVXU and 88.5 WMUB. It's all about storytelling from The Moth Radio Hour and host Michael Feinstein and his guests on Song Travels. End your weekend/start your new week with the kinds of storytelling you'll only hear on public radio.

The Moth Radio Hour, Sundays, 8:00 PM

The Moth Radio Hour features true stories told live on stage without scripts, notes, props, or accompaniment. Each Moth Radio Hour mixes humorous, heartbreaking, and poignant tales that captivate, surprise, and delight audiences with their honesty, bravery and humor. WVXU is pleased to now offer the program year round, Sunday evenings at 8:00 PM.

Song Travels with Michael Feinstein, Sundays, 9:00 PM

Host Michael Feinstein welcomes a new guest each week to explore the genre of American Popular Song, examining how these great songs have evolved through the years, changing with each interpretation and artist. Guests give intimate performances and share personal insights on his or her interpretation of the Great American Songbook

March 3 - Gloria Gaynor

Gloria Gaynor is best known for her sensational 1978 hit, "I Will Survive," which won the only Grammy ever awarded for Best Disco Recording. In the past decade she has released new music on unsuspecting audiences and has been honored with a slate of accolades. Gaynor performs "My Funny Valentine" and joins Feinstein for a duet of "The Very Thought of You."

March 10 - Jake Shimabukuro

Jake Shimabukuro has carried the sound of the ukulele from Hawaiian shores to the world's concert stages. In his hands the humble "little guitar" sings everything from J.S. Bach to the Beatles. On this Song Travels, Shimabukuro performs "Somewhere Over The Rainbow," and joins Feinstein for a duet of Leonard Cohen's "Hallelujah."

March 17 - Catherine Russell

As a young girl, vocalist Catherine Russell bounced on the knee of Louis Armstrong. She started her career as an ace backup singer for stars including Paul Simon, David Bowie, and Steely Dan. Today she's a leading interpreter of the Great American Songbook. Russell and Feinstein perform an hour of pure radio perfection, including "I Cover The Waterfront" and a duet of "The Very Thought of You."

March 24 - Matt Munisteri

Guitarist, singer, and composer Matt Munisteri has uncovered much of the forgotten jazz and swing from the early 20th century. His latest album, Still Runnin' 'Round In the Wilderness, explores the "lost" compositions of the American singer/songwriter Willard Robison. Archivists Munisteri and Feinstein share tunes that, while forsaken by the past, are sure to be easy to remember.

March 31 - José Feliciano

Singer, virtuoso guitarist, and composer José Feliciano's holiday tune, "Feliz Navidad," is essential to any Yuletide playlist. On his latest album, The King, Feliciano pays tribute to Elvis Presley. The eight time Grammy winner joins Feinstein for an electrifying hour of music and conversation, including performances of "Always On My Mind" and "Love Me Tender."

L.A. Theatre Works, Saturdays, 8:00PM

March 2: "The Credeaux Canvas"

Written by: Keith Bunin

Cast: Hilary Swank, Chad Lowe, Shirley Knight, Jeremy Sisto

Director: Peter Levin

Synopsis: In The Credeaux Canvas, we enter the lives of three young people struggling to survive their own "quarter-life crisis." Hilary Swank stars as Amanda, an under-employed singer whose boyfriend, Jaime, has been disinherited by his family. But Jaime has a plan to turn their lives around ... and when he brings his long-time friend Winston into the picture, the three must weigh their friendship against their fortune.

The broadcast includes an interview with playwright Keith Bunin, and a feature on art forgeries with historian Michael J. Lewis of Williams College.

March 9: "Awake and Sing!"

Written by: Clifford Odets

Cast: Mark Ruffalo, Emily Bergl, Ben Gazzara, Jane Kaczmarek, Richard Kind

Director: Bartlett Sher

An all-star cast brings Clifford Odets' classic to life. In the Bronx in 1933, a Jewish family struggles to make ends meet. Their daughter is trapped in a loveless marriage of convenience; the family's bitter war veteran lodger tries to pry the daughter away from her hapless husband; while the family patriarch rails against the evils of capitalism.

The show includes an interview with Tony Award-winning director Bartlett Sher, and a piece on the difficult genesis of "Awake and Sing" with historian Ellen Schiff.

March 16: "Mrs. Klein"

Written By: Nicholas Wright

Cast: Lindsay Crouse, Julie Harris, JoBeth Williams

Director: Robert Robinson

Synopsis: The air is thick with Freud and sex as eminent psychoanalyst Melanie Klein comes roaring to life in a 1930's drawing room. The city of London offers the witty, overbearing Mrs. Klein refuge from rising European fascism. But perhaps her children are still in need of refuge – from her.

The show includes an interview with Kleinian psychologist Dr. Chris Minnick of the University of Southern California.

March 23: "The Night Watcher"

Written and Performed by: Charlayne Woodard

Director: Stuart K. Robinson

Synopsis: Actor, playwright, and storyteller Charlayne Woodard describes the unique role she plays in her large, extended family. While she has no children of her own, she counts 11 godchildren and 25 nieces and nephews as "her kids", and has played a significant part in raising many of them. Their stories, and Woodard's involvement in their lives, are the foundation of her fourth solo play, The Night Watcher.

An L.A. Theatre Works premiere broadcast

March 30: "Ruby McCollum"

Written By: Ron Milner, Steve Albrezzi, William Bradford Huie

Cast: Loretta Devine, Shirley Knight, John Randolph, Charlie Robinson, Jean Smart, Paul Winfield

Director: Steve Albrezzi

Synopsis: A trail of lies, secrets and racial prejudice is uncovered when a pair of journalists, Zora Neale Hurston and William Bradford Huie, investigate the murder of a white doctor by an affluent African-American woman. Based on a true case in South Florida in 1952, this suspenseful drama has powerful implications to this day, posing questions of fairness and justice in a small Southern town.

The broadcast includes an interview with C. Arthur Ellis, author of Zora Hurston and the Strange Case of Ruby McCollum

Program Highlights for CINCINNATI EDITION and AROUND CINCINNATI
Weekend of January 5 and 6, 2013

[This update is sent weekly with information about the interviews and features that will be a part of CINCINNATI EDITION-SATURDAY, CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY and AROUND CINCINNATI, airing each weekend on 91.7 WVXU. Program content subject to change.]

CINCINNATI EDITION-SATURDAY (7:00 a.m.):

Did you know there is a national company headquartered in Over the Rhine that employs archaeologists, historic preservationists, scientists, and other unique professionals working under the banner of cultural resource management? Starting their 26th year in business, Gray & Pape is based at 13th and Main, but has offices in Indianapolis, IN; Richmond, VA; Providence, RI; and beautiful Rabbit Hash, KY. Kevin Pape from Gray & Pape joins Mark Perzel in studio to discuss his company's work, successes, and plans for the next 25 years.

<http://www.graypape.com/index.htm>

With the start of a new year, and the fiscal cliff apparently averted, there is still much to discuss in the national economy and, in particular, market and investing news. So why not go to a nationally recognized expert to get some answers? Brian Wesbury is the chief economist for First Trust Advisors, LP in Chicago as well as an author, blogger and regular guest on all the financial new channels. He is On the Money with Chris DeSimio with a big picture look at the recent happenings in Washington and what he anticipates for 2013.

<http://www.ftportfolios.com/retail/blogs/economics/index.aspx>

<http://www.ftportfolios.com/index.aspx>

You may have seen the recent 60 Minutes piece about innovator Salman Khan and his Khan Academy, the online site dedicated to providing a free, world-class education to anyone, anywhere. . He shares his vision about an education free of state mandates and lengthy lectures in his just released the book One World Schoolhouse: Education Reimagined, and he joins Ann Thompson on the phone to discuss his successes thus far, and what will be coming next.

Now that it's 2013, have you, like many others, made a resolution to get in shape, lose weight, exercise more, etc.? Before you decide to take off on a 3 mile run after many sedentary years, take a listen to The Front Row with Betsy Ross as she talks with Athletic Trainer Brad Wagner of Oxford Physical Therapy about how to safely start an exercise regimen that will succeed.

<http://www.oxfordphysicaltherapy.com/>

<http://www.oxfordphysicaltherapy.com/about-us/team/brad-wagner>

CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY (7:00 a.m.):

Award-winning actor and director Alan Alda has a passion for science, and more specifically, how to help scientists better communicate with students and the public of all ages. He founded the Center for Communicating Science at Stony Brook University for this reason, and created a yearly contest where scientists are asked to explain a concept so that an 11 year old can understand it. The Flame Challenge is judged by thousands of 11 year olds, and this year's topic is What is Time? Alan Alda spent a few minutes on the phone with Dean Regas talking about how his love of science began, and his goals for this contest, in this month's Milky Way Café.

Now that we're a couple weeks in to the New Year, it's time for our film critic, Larry Thomas, to review his choices for Top 10 Movies of 2012.

AROUND CINCINNATI (7:00 p.m. Sunday):

Lee Hay sits down with local attorney, musician and co-owner of the Blue Wisp Jazz Club, Ed Felson, to discuss the current financial problems facing the club and the efforts he is undertaking to stabilize the business. The Blue Wisp's move to a larger space downtown, plus adding a full food menu, have both increased costs exponentially. While making no guarantees, he does want to try everything possible to keep the club open and a home for live music.

CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY (7:00 a.m.):

Perhaps you've noticed a new magazine around town. It's glossy, visual and all about Cincinnati. Domestica is the brainchild of Rachel Kirkwood. She describes it as a new shelter and lifestyle magazine promoting local eateries, farms, boutiques and non-profits in the Cincinnati region. She got it up and running with a Kickstarter campaign, and now the January issue is on the stands. Mark Perzel welcomes Rachel Kirkwood to the studio to find out her inspiration for this magazine, and what future issues will hold.

<https://www.facebook.com/DomesticaMagazine>

For all the giraffe lovers out there, you'll enjoy Thane Maynard's conversation with Dr. Ron Millard from U.C.'s Department of Pharmacology & Cell Biophysics in the Medical School. He studies circulation and physiology of animals, including the challenge of determining the circulation and blood pressure in giraffes.

Can your spit predict how aggressive you are? Cincinnati Children's Hospital doctors have a new test and it's surprisingly accurate. Ann Thompson, in Focus on Technology, reports how it works and on the next steps in treating people who have a problem.

Larry Thomas has a review of the new Sean Penn-Ryan Gosling-Josh Brolin film, Gangster Squad.
<http://gangstersquad.warnerbros.com/>

AROUND CINCINNATI (7:00 p.m. Sunday):

Playhouse is the Park will soon open the world premiere of a provocative new drama, Abigail/1702, which speculates on the life of Abigail Williams (from The Crucible) if she escaped Salem through the forest and started a new life elsewhere. The play is set 10 years after the infamous witch trials, while Abigail still tries to atone for the sins we know of, and others we don't. Rick Pender is joined in studio by Stephanie Fieger, the actor who is portraying Abigail, who talks about the play and her debut at the Playhouse.

<http://www.cincyplay.com/>

Program Highlights for CINCINNATI EDITION and AROUND CINCINNATI
Weekend of January 26 and 27, 2013

[This update is sent weekly with information about the interviews and features that will be a part of CINCINNATI EDITION-SATURDAY, CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY and AROUND CINCINNATI, airing each weekend on 91.7 WVXU. Program content subject to change.]

CINCINNATI EDITION-SATURDAY (7:00 a.m.):

You may not recognize the name Randy Edelman, but you have absolutely heard his music. He's had songs recorded by Barry Manilow, Kool and the Gang, Blood Sweat and Tear, and many others. He's been music director for The Carpenters AND Frank Zappa and the Mothers of Invention. He's written the scores for movies such as Gettysburg, Twins, and 27 Dresses. And he's recorded 11 solo albums. This accomplished musician was born in New Jersey, but studied music at the University of Cincinnati's College Conservatory of Music. He is returning to CCM on Sunday, January 27 to present a concert of his music at the Corbett Auditorium. He'll be accompanied by CCM's Philharmonia Orchestra and Jazz Ensemble. Randy Edelman joins Mark Perzel by phone in this extended interview to discuss his time at UC, his long career and Sunday's concert.

CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY (7:00 a.m.):

NPR listeners will no doubt recognize the name Andrea Seabrook. She was the congressional correspondent for many years, until her frustration with what she calls "broken Washington" finally led her to leave the network and begin her own project. That project is called DecodeDC and it's a podcast and blog where she tries to dig through the jargon and double-speak to determine what's really going on in and around Capitol Hill. Mark Perzel talks with Andrea Seabrook about her decision to leave NPR and to begin anew in the online world of podcasts and blogs.

Dissolvable stents may eventually replace metal ones to treat blocked coronary arteries. Ann Thompson reports on a study at Christ Hospital studying the issue in Focus on Technology.

It's up for the four major Academy Awards: Best Picture, Best Director, Best Actor and Best Actress. But what did our Larry Thomas think of Silver Linings Playbook? Tune in for this week's review.

<http://silverliningsplaybookmovie.com/>

AROUND CINCINNATI (7:00 p.m. Sunday):

After more than 15 years of providing the music for salsa dancing on Mad Frog Mondays, Cincinnati band Tropicoso is ending this energetic tradition at the end of January. While a new, monthly event will start up in March, Band leader Nicholas Radina is in the studio with Brian O'Donnell to discuss the reasons behind this decision, and what dancers can look forward to starting March 8.

The exciting news last week was that Cincinnati will host the 2015 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. How do events like these get awarded to cities and what does it mean for the local economy? Linda Antus, president of the Cincinnati USA Regional Tourism Network is in The Front Row with Betsy Ross to talk about the impact of big events and sports tourism.

<http://www.cincinnatiusa.com/>

Have you heard of a "migratory classroom?" It's a new concept in hands-on learning that Cincinnati's The Bird Haus is bringing to our region. Cat Amarro, founder of The Bird Haus, explains the idea behind people with passions passing along their knowledge outside of a traditional classroom. Mark Perzel welcomes Cat Amarro into the studio to talk about The Bird Haus concept and how it got its name.

We are now into the second month of the New Year, so time to get an update on activity in the investing world from our friends Dale Coates and Jason Jackman from Johnson Investment Counsel as they spend some time On the Money with Chris DeSimio.

<http://johnsoninv.com/Default.aspx>

CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY (7:00 a.m.):

Ira Flatow is the longtime host of NPR's Science Friday, which airs at 2:00 every Friday afternoon on WVXU. He takes a few minutes to join our Dean Regas for this edition of Lookin' Up. He talks about how Science Friday got started, where his love of science came from, and what he hopes listeners take away from each broadcast.

<http://sciencefriday.com/>

You hear Chris DeSimio each Saturday morning hosting On the Money, but did you know besides being a successful investment counselor, Chris is also the president of the Friends of Harriet Beecher Stowe

House? As we begin Black History Month, Mark Perzel turns the tables and interviews Chris about the importance of Harriet Beecher Stowe to the Underground Railroad, and provides information about her family and their home on Gilbert Avenue that is now meticulously maintained inside by the Friends group, and the Cincinnati Park Board on the outside.

Dr. Greg Dahlem from Northern Kentucky University's Department of Biological Sciences joins Thane Maynard to discuss his unique field of study, Forensic Entomology, and his current research trying to unravel the evolutionary relationship of flesh flies and blow flies using DNA.
<http://www.nku.edu/~dahlem/>

So-called smart guns are part of the President's plan to reduce gun violence. How reliable are they? Who makes them? And what do the experts think? Ann Thompson reports in this week's Focus on Technology.

In advance of the Academy Awards later this month, Larry Thomas has a review of some of the Oscar nominated short documentaries that will be screened February 9-10 by Cincinnati World Cinema at The Carnegie in Covington.

<http://www.cincyworldcinema.org/>
<http://www.thecarnegie.com/>

AROUND CINCINNATI (7:00 p.m. Sunday):

Cincinnati native and filmmaker Steve Gebhardt joins our contributor Ron Esposito to talk about his newest directorial effort, a biography of Marcello Baraghini, founder of the militant Italian publishing house, Stampa Alternativa, and various socialist newspapers.
http://www.musicusmedia.com/steve bio.htm

Barbara Gray welcomes in two local poets who have combined to publish one book, Versus, that contains a full book of new poems from each. Nick Barrows book is "The Rabbit Punch Defense," and Mark Flanigan's is "Journeyman's Lament."

Longtime gallery director of The Carnegie Visual and Performing Arts Center in Covington, Bill Seitz, recently announced his retirement. Before he goes, he joins our contributor Judith Turner-Yamamoto to discuss the upcoming exhibition calendar, including the popular Art of Food; three special exhibitions coming in 2014; and the open call for artists for the 2014 gallery season.
<http://www.thecarnegie.com/galleries/gallery.php>

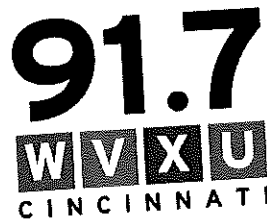

The Know Theatre's upcoming production is When the Rain Stops Falling by Australian playwright Andrew Bovell. Named "Best New Play of 2010" by Time Out Magazine, Brian Isaac Phillips of the Cincinnati Shakespeare Company will direct this generational/time shifting play. Jim Stump talks with Brian about this unique drama and the all-star cast of Cincinnati actors he has assembled.
<http://www.knowtheatre.com/>

Mary Remier is an expert on the various cemeteries in Hamilton County, and she joins Lee Hay to talk about some of the fascinating stories regarding Dunham Cemetery, Spring Grove and even Washington Park.

Jane Durrell introduces listeners to a fascinating author from Cincinnati. Vivian Kline is 83 years old, a widow, mother of three and grandmother of six. She was once an artist known for her enameling, and has written three books. Her newest, Love in the 40's When Mail Came Twice a Day, is a deeply personal look at love. After 67 years in storage, she found a box of love letters from when she was 19 and her beau (then husband) Danny was 26. They lived 80 miles apart and phone calls were prohibitively expensive, so they wrote letters...not only proclaiming their love for one another, but with references to life during those war years.

Program Highlights for CINCINNATI EDITION and AROUND CINCINNATI
Weekend of February 9 and 10, 2013

[This update is sent weekly with information about the interviews and features that will be a part of CINCINNATI EDITION-SATURDAY, CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY and AROUND CINCINNATI, airing each weekend on 91.7 WVXU. Program content subject to change.]

CINCINNATI EDITION-SATURDAY (7:00 a.m.):

Cincinnati has always been fertile ground for amazing choral music, starting with the May Festival, Vocal Arts Ensemble and, now, a unique chorus that offers young professionals in our area not only a chance to sing, but to be involved in our community and meet new people. KellyAnn Nelson, the founder and director of the Young Professionals' Choral Collective (yp/CC) is in the studio with Mark Perzel to talk about how the group started, what its mission is, and their upcoming Black & Blues Gala on February 16.
<http://ypcc.choralcollective.com/>

The February issue of Cincinnati Magazine has a fascinating look at the growing number of people in the area who are creating, designing, building, and crafting goods and using internet sites like Etsy to sell them. Not only is the number higher than you'd think, but the variety in goods being sold is impressive: wooden furniture to handmade bicycles to specially created blue jeans. Amy Brownlee, the associate managing editor for the magazine, joins Mark Perzel to talk about the genesis for this article and what surprises they discovered when they set out to compile the list.
<http://www.cincinnati-magazine.com/index.aspx>
<http://www.etsy.com/>

Yesterday the Cincinnati Reds and University of Cincinnati Baseball program announced a unique business partnership. Learn more about it today in The Front Row with Betsy Ross.

On the Money with Chris DeSimio welcomes back Dr. Martin Giesbrecht, professor emeritus of economics from Northern Kentucky University, to share his thoughts on the current state of America's economy and what future actions, or inactions, by the government will have on the current upswing on the stock market.

CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY (7:00 a.m.):

On the eve of the Westminster Dog Show, everyone believes their dog is smart and you may think yours is the smartest ever. Either way, there is no denying the research that dogs do have an innate intelligence. One man has centered his professional life on researching the intelligence of dogs, and he joins Thane Maynard on the phone. Brian Hare is a professor of Evolutionary Anthropology at Duke University, where he founded the Duke Canine Cognition Center. He's on the phone to discuss his latest book, The Genius of Dogs: How Dogs Are Smarter than You Think.
http://www.amazon.com/Genius-Dogs-Smarter-than-Think/dp/0525953191/ref=sr_1_1?tag=wvxuorg-20&s=books&ie=UTF8&qid=1360013073&sr=1-1&keywords=brian+hare
<http://evolutionaryanthropology.duke.edu/research/dogs>

Kim Harrison, author of the Hollows series of supernatural books, is out with the newest installment of the Cincinnati-based saga. There have been 10 Rachel Morgan tales so far, with just two more after this new one, so lovers of this series won't want to miss Ever After. Kim Harrison was recently in town for an appearance at Joseph Beth Booksellers in Crestview Hills, so she stopped in our studio for a talk with Mark Perzel.

http://www.amazon.com/Ever-After-Kim-Harrison/dp/0061957917/ref=sr_1_1?tag=wvxuorg-20&s=books&ie=UTF8&qid=1360097598&sr=1-1&keywords=kim+harrison

A relatively new non-profit in Cincinnati has the mission to help other non-profits, as well as churches and civic groups, by providing necessary tools and equipment as low-cost rentals rather than expensive purchases. Kat Pepmeyer is the executive director of the Cincinnati Community Tool Bank, currently only one of four affiliates of Tool Bank USA in the country. She sits down with Mark Perzel to discuss how the organization began, its mission, and how organizations can access the services they provide.

<http://cincinnati.toolbank.org/>

Greater Cincinnati is trying to become a mecca for life sciences companies. One new tool is the expansion of a bio-accelerator in Covington. Ann Thompson reports in this week's Focus on Technology.

There's nothing like a good buddy movie, especially when the buddies are Al Pacino, Christopher Walken and Alan Arkin. Larry Thomas has a review of the new movie, Stand Up Guys.

<http://www.standupguysfilm.com/>

AROUND CINCINNATI (7:00 p.m. Sunday):

As part of CCM's year-long celebration of Kurt Weill, they will present The Threepenny Opera beginning February 28, along with concert performances of Weill's Kiddush (Prayer of Sanctification) and the a capella madrigal Ho, Billy, O! from the Weill musical Love Life. Anne Arenstein learns more about the Weill festival and these upcoming performances from Robin Guarino, CCM's J. Ralph Corbett Chair of Opera and director of The Threepenny Opera, and dramaturge Bruce McClung.

http://ccm.uc.edu/theatre/musical_theatre/philosophy/calendar.html

Jeff Seibert from Cincinnati's The Mayerson Foundation, one of the primary funders of the new School for Creative and Performing Arts, joins Frank Johnson to discuss the impressive Mayerson Foundation Artistic Excellence Program, which brings talented musicians and performers to the SCPA to present master classes to the students. In the coming months, internationally known artists such as Branford Marsalis, Bebe Neuwirth, Chick Corea and composer Jennifer Higdon will conduct these master classes.

<http://mayersonfoundation.org/>

<http://www.scpak12.org/>

The Cincinnati Ballet celebrates Valentine's Day with Shakespeare's most romantic tragedy, Romeo and Juliet, choreographed by Artistic Director Victoria Morgan. Robyn Carey-Allgyer welcomes in Carmon DeLeone to talk about one of the truly special experiences of a Cincinnati Ballet – live, orchestral musical accompaniment, which is quickly disappearing from most other ballet company productions. Maestro DeLeone will again conduct the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra for the Ballet's production.

<http://www.cballet.org/>

One of the great weekends of winter is going to the Duke Energy Convention Center to see the annual Cincinnati Auto Expo, presented by the Greater Cincinnati Auto Dealers Association and Hart Productions. Lee Hay speaks with Charlie Howard, executive vice-president of the GCADA about this year's presentation of new cars, trucks, SUV's, hybrids and crossovers, opening on February 20.

<http://cincinnatiautoexpo.com/>

With newly uncovered family papers long thought destroyed, Eve LaPlante—a great-niece and cousin of Abigail and Louisa May Alcott – was able to write two recently released books about this famous, yet not fully understood family. Barbara Gray had the opportunity to talk by phone with the author about Marmee & Louisa: The Untold Story of Louisa May Alcott and Her Mother and My Heart is Boundless: Writings of Abigail May Alcott, Louisa's Mother.

http://www.amazon.com/My-Heart-Boundless-Writings-Abigail/dp/1476702802/ref=sr_1_3?tag=wvxuorg-20&s=books&ie=UTF8&qid=1359748326&sr=1-3&keywords=eva+laplante

Program Highlights for CINCINNATI EDITION and AROUND CINCINNATI
Weekend of February 16 and 17, 2013

[This update is sent weekly with information about the interviews and features that will be a part of CINCINNATI EDITION-SATURDAY, CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY and AROUND CINCINNATI, airing each weekend on 91.7 WVXU. Program content subject to change.]

CINCINNATI EDITION-SATURDAY (7:00 a.m.):

As our urban population continues to grow, the desire for more green and growing space also continues to grow. On February 27, the Cincinnati Zoo and Botanical Gardens will hold a Sustainable Urban Landscape Symposium featuring a panel of knowledgeable and well-respected experts discussing a wide range of ideas and solutions to maintaining the natural world in an urban setting. Scott Beuerlein from the Cincinnati Zoo will be one of those experts, and he's in the studio with Mark Perzel to discuss the symposium.

<http://cincinnati-zoo.org/events/sustainable-urban-landscapes-symposium/>

C-Change is a dynamic program of the Cincinnati USA Regional Chamber that provides leadership development and community engagement opportunities for emerging young leaders in the area. This one-year experience recently named its 8th Class, so we've invited program director Julie Bernzott in to the studio to talk with Mark Perzel about exactly what happens during the C-Change year, and recount some of the efforts of previous classes to leave a legacy to our community.

It's growing very close to the serious running season, and there's a new run on the horizon that's part of a newly dubbed Christian Moerlein Beer Series and part of the ever-growing Flying Pig Marathon events. The new Bockfest 5K will be part of the annual Over the Rhine beer festival. Iris Simpson Bush from the Flying Pig Marathon is in The Front Row with Betsy Ross to talk about all three stages of the Beer Series, some additions to the Flying Pig, and the promotion of healthy lifestyles for people of all ages.

<http://www.flyingpigmarathon.com/>

<http://www.flyingpigmarathon.com/beer-series/index.shtml>

CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY (7:00 a.m.):

In honor of Black History Month, Natalie Hastings, the communications director from the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center, joins Mark Perzel in studio to discuss special programs and exhibits at the Center this month, as well as provide a brief update on how the Center is faring with the growth of The Banks project in its front yard.

<http://nurfc.org/>

In a tremendous coup for a smaller, private university, Dr. Jill Russell and the College of Mount St. Joseph have been awarded a $500,000 National Science Foundation grant to study the ever-changing cycle of bird migration. Dr. Russell is on the phone with Thane Maynard to discuss how they secured this prestigious grant and what exactly they are studying and the methodology they are using.

Camille Paglia is one of today's most acknowledged cultural critics, author of provocative books such as Sexual Personae and Break, Blow, Burn, and recently released her assessment of art from earlier times right up to Star Wars. In Glittering Images, she selects more than two dozen images and provides some background on the author and the work, but also places it in within its historical context. It's a fascinating walk through time using arts as the guideposts, and she's on the phone to discuss this journey with Mark Perzel.

Assessing your medical condition could be as easy as wearing a small non-invasive bandage. One University of Cincinnati researcher is developing a Star Trek-esque "tricorder on a patch." Ann Thompson has all the details in this week's edition of Focus on Technology.

He's back. Bruce Willis has returned as the indefatigable every-cop John McClane in A Good Day to Die Hard, and Larry Thomas has a review.

<http://www.diehardmovie.com/>

AROUND CINCINNATI (7:00 p.m. Sunday):
Playhouse in the Park's Thompson Shelterhouse Theatre presents the world premiere of Leveling Up, the newest play by acclaimed playwright Deborah Zoe Laufer. This provocative, yet humorous, portrayal of four 20-somethings transitioning from college to "real" life, deals with all the issues of friendships, maturity and moving on faced by most post-college people. Rick Pender sits down with Deborah Zoe Laufer to discuss this production, which opens on February 14.

<http://www.cincyplay.com/>

<http://www.deborahzoeaufer.com/>

Cincinnati native Rebecca Gale has had a distinguished career in Washington, DC, working as a press secretary and communications director for various Senators and Members of Congress, now she's a contributing editor at Roll Call, DC's political newspaper. She has just published her first novel, Trying, and she's in our studio to talk about the book and the career that took her away from Cincinnati, with Barbara Gray.

On March 9, the Cincinnati Boychoir, in conjunction with Vocal Arts Ensemble and the Cincinnati Symphony Youth Orchestra, will be presenting Benjamin Britten's oratorio Saint Nicolas. As Christopher Eanes, director of the Boychoir, points out to Anne Arenstein, it is an interesting collaboration, as it was written to be performed by both amateur AND professional musicians.

<http://cincinnati-boychoir.org/>

Chris Ashbrook, who writes under the name C.J. Ashbrook, had an amazing career as a film and video director before he turned to writing. He's the man responsible for one of the most iconic music videos of the 80's, "Sweet Dreams" by the Eurythmics. His newest novel, A Darker Gold, has just been released, and he is on the phone to talk about the book and share some stories from those halcyon days of music videos with our David Delegator.

Program Highlights for CINCINNATI EDITION and AROUND CINCINNATI
Weekend of February 23 and 24, 2013

[This update is sent weekly with information about the interviews and features that will be a part of CINCINNATI EDITION-SATURDAY, CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY and AROUND CINCINNATI, airing each weekend on 91.7 W VX U. Program content subject to change.]

CINCINNATI EDITION-SATURDAY (7:00 a.m.):

W VX U has been a proud partner with CET on the American Graduate: Let's Make it Happen initiative, supported by the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, working to address the impact and solutions to our local drop-out problem. The effort concludes with a special on Thursday, February 28 on CET that features some of the local programs and business leaders working on this issue. One of those leaders is Kathryn Merchant, president and CEO of the Greater Cincinnati Foundation, and she's with Mark Perzel to discuss the educational challenges we face and how the GCF is working collaboratively to address them.

Jim Rogers is a name every serious investor knows. He's spent years studying the markets, not just here at home, but all around the globe. His books have been must-reads and now he's put pen to paper to write his memoir. Street Smarts: Adventures on the Road and in the Markets details his early years in Alabama, then on Wall Street, to his co-founding of the tremendously successful Quantum Fund. But it's not just a typical memoir. He still makes observations on the state of the markets today and some trends he sees for the future. Jim Rogers is On the Money with Chris DeSimio to share some thoughts about the markets and his book from his current home in Singapore.

CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY (7:00 a.m.):

Did you know that one of the country's leading experts in social media marketing is located right here in Cincinnati? Her name is Krista Neher and after a successful career at P&G, she moved to a start-up company that raised the inevitable question: how do I do more, with less? As she mastered social media opportunities, she opened Boot Camp Digital and wrote the Social Media Field Guide. That was followed by Social Media Marketing: A Strategic Approach and now her newest book, Visual Social Media Marketing. She is in the studio with Mark Perzel to talk about successfully using social media, even as the options grow more and more numerous.

Thane Maynard is on the phone with Pratik Patel, founder of Safari Legacy and of the African Wildlife Trust in Tanzania. The AWT is working diligently to fight the epidemic of poaching of the majestic African elephants. Their efforts include not only the poachers themselves, but the businesses and individuals who reward poachers by purchasing the ivory they illegally gain by killing the elephants.

Program Highlights for CINCINNATI EDITION and AROUND CINCINNATI
Weekend of March 2 and 3, 2013

[This update is sent weekly with information about the interviews and features that will be a part of CINCINNATI EDITION-SATURDAY, CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY and AROUND CINCINNATI, airing each weekend on 91.7 WVXU. Program content subject to change.]

CINCINNATI EDITION-SATURDAY (7:00 a.m.):

Starting March 7, the annual Cincinnati International Wine Festival will begin three days of tastings, wine dinners, auctions and grand tastings at the Duke Energy Convention Center. This year's Honorary Chairman is Donald Patz, founder of Patz and Hall, one of California's premier single vineyard wineries. Mr. Patz spends a few minutes before coming to town to talk with Mark Perzel about his winery, the Chardonnay and Pinot Noir wines they specialize in, and being part of the Cincinnati International Wine Festival.

News Director Maryanne Zeleznik, proud mother of a 9-year old girl, spoke recently with Ana Homayoun, author of the recently released book The Myth of the Perfect Girl: Helping Our Daughters Find Authentic Success and Happiness in School and Life. The book makes the case that in our achievement driven, success at any cost lifestyle, even for junior high and high school girls, that the stresses of being the best, or seen as the best, is costing them to lose sight of their true identity. As author Susan Shapiro said of the book, "A smart, funny and engaging study on how to give girls the tools to figure out what they really want - and how to get it. A must-read for girls, mothers, educators and anybody who wants to understand half the population."

The beginning of March will bring two critical pieces of news for investors: the monthly jobs report and the beginning of massive government spending cuts due to Congress being unable to reach a compromise on the federal budget. So there's no better time to have Peter Sorrentino, CFA, Senior Vice-President and Senior Portfolio Manager from Huntington Funds in studio and On the Money with Chris DeSimio.
<http://www.huntingtonfunds.com/newsite/about/managers.php>

CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY (7:00 a.m.):

It's time for another Looking Up with Dean Regas, and this month, he'll be looking up with a fellow astronomer. Derrick Pitts is the chief astronomer for The Franklin Institute and the Joel N. Bloom Observatory in Philadelphia.

It's probably not a surprise to hear that there are too many cats roaming the streets of Cincinnati. Feral, abandoned, lost...these cats are often not spayed or neutered, and that leads to more and more litters of homeless kittens. But as Thane Maynard learns, there is an organization working to address this problem. He welcomes in Devon Smith, Spay & Neuter Clinic Director for Ohio Alleycat Resource, who talks about the three ways her organization is trying to reduce the stray cat population.

Cybersecurity is getting to be a really big concern for the U.S. government, big business and media. In this week's Focus on Technology, Ann Thompson reports on the increase, responsible parties and steps taken to minimize it.

Larry Thomas has a review of the new Steven Soderbergh-directed thriller, Side Effects, starring Jude Law, Rooney Mara, Catherine Zeta-Jones and Channing Tatum.
<http://www.sideeffectsmayvary.com/>

AROUND CINCINNATI (7:00 p.m. Sunday):

Iconic local music legend Bobby Mackey is in the studio with Brian O'Donnell in advance of his March 9 appearance at the main branch of the Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County. During that talk, he'll share stories of his music career and of his haunted nightclub in Wilder.

<http://www.bobbymackey.com/>
<http://www.cincinnati.library.org/press/2013/BobbyMackeyPR.pdf>

Barbara Gray spends a few minutes with acclaimed author Kim Harrison, talking about her "Hollows" series of books, and the newest installment, Ever After. As with all of the books in "The Hollows," this one is also set in Cincinnati.

Program Highlights for CINCINNATI EDITION and AROUND CINCINNATI
Weekend of March 16 and 17, 2013

[This update is sent weekly with information about the interviews and features that will be a part of CINCINNATI EDITION-SATURDAY, CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY and AROUND CINCINNATI, airing each weekend on 91.7 WVXU. Program content subject to change.]

CINCINNATI EDITION-SATURDAY (7:00 a.m.):

The March issue of Cincinnati Magazine is out with its "Where to Eat 2013" list. Dining Editor Donna Covertt joins Mark Perzel to talk about assembling this list, the changing landscape of the Cincinnati dining scene, and how exactly she judges a place like Orchid's to one of her newest favorites, Eli's Barbecue.
<http://www.cincinnatiimagazine.com/>

Sunday is St. Patrick's Day, but Saturday at noon is the kick-off to the annual St. Patrick's Day Parade through the streets of Cincinnati. While mostly known for our German heritage, Cincinnati has a long history of Irish influence through the generations. Mark Perzel is joined on the phone by Kevin Grace, head of the Archives and Rare Books Library at the University of Cincinnati, who has written Irish Cincinnati, a book detailing the impact and influence of the Irish during Cincinnati's history.

Taking a new approach to positively impact the lives of some of Cincinnati's at-risk youth, Neal Tew has opened the T Squash Center and implemented Queen City Squash, a scholastic squash league that will teach not just the sport, but sportsmanship, teamwork, responsibility and more. Neal Tew is in The Front Row with Betsy Ross to discuss his new eastside facility and their opening events on Saturday, March 16.
<http://thet.us/>

Not just because it's St. Patrick's Day weekend, but because he knows his investments, Declan O'Sullivan from the local investment firm of Bahl & Gaynor will be On the Money with Chris DeSimio to discuss the week on Wall Street.

<http://www.bahl-gaynor.com/>

CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY (7:00 a.m.):

You may have heard Nancy Pearl during one of her appearances on NPR's Morning Edition where she opines about all things books. A former librarian, she is the creator of the first community-wide reading program back in 1998, which led the Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County to undertake their On the Same Page effort. As part of the wrap-up to this year's On the Same Page, Nancy Pearl will appear via Skype at the downtown branch of the library on Saturday, March 23 at 2:00pm. But first, she joins Mark Perzel by phone to talk about the origins of community reading programs, her lifelong love of books, and her incredibly popular Librarian Action figure.

Dick Waller is a familiar face and name around the Cincinnati music community. He was the principal clarinetist for the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra for many years, and during that time, he founded the Linton Chamber Music Series. But what many did not know was that, starting in 1974, he began painting as a stress reliever from his work with the symphony. Now, in retirement, he's decided to begin exhibiting his paintings. Sunday afternoon will be the opening of Music at an Exhibition, showcasing over 100 of his works, at the Clifton Cultural Arts Center. Dick Waller is in our studio with Mark Perzel to talk about his passion for painting and why he is now ready to share them with the rest of the community.

AROUND CINCINNATI (7:00 p.m. Sunday):

If you haven't been to Cincinnati's Taft Theatre in a while, you might be surprised by some of the physical changes you'll see. Robyn Carey-Allgeyer welcomes in Ed Morrell, the general manager of the Taft, to talk about the resurrection of the ballroom as a new concert space; some of the digital additions; as well as the original design and architect of the historic theater.

<http://tafttheatre.org/>

The Cincinnati Children's Choir Festival is coming this summer, and registration is now open for young singers, nominated by their school's music teacher, to be part of a week-long adventure at the University of Cincinnati College Conservatory of Music. To learn more about this festival and how students can become a part of it, Cincinnati Children's Choir Director Robyn Lana spends a few minutes with our Anne Arenstein.

Program Highlights for CINCINNATI EDITION and AROUND CINCINNATI
Weekend of March 30 and 31, 2013

[This update is sent weekly with information about the interviews and features that will be a part of CINCINNATI EDITION-SATURDAY, CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY and AROUND CINCINNATI, airing each weekend on 91.7 WVXU. Program content subject to change.]

CINCINNATI EDITION-SATURDAY (7:00 a.m.):

Author Matthew Goodman has detailed one of the most fascinating, if lesser-known global races that happened in 1889 between two determined women. His book, Eighty Days: Nellie Bly and Elizabeth Bisland's History-Making Race Around the World takes readers along on the adventures of these two dynamic women, and he talks about his fascination with this race during an interview with Mark Perzel.

Howard Rahtz has a fascinating background: 18 years as a Cincinnati police officer, attaining the rank of captain. He also served as coordinator of the SWAT negotiating team and was in charge of the Central Vice Control Section, where his focus was on reducing the assets of drug traffickers. He has put all that experience, plus a degree in rehab counseling, to try and further efforts to take drugs off the streets. He joins Ann Thompson to discuss his latest book, Drugs, Crime and Violence: From Trafficking to Treatment, in which he lays out a method to choke off the revenue stream that supports the drug traffickers.

CINCINNATI EDITION-SUNDAY (7:00 a.m.):

After several months of editing, it is time for the Cincinnati editions of Antiques Roadshow on PBS to begin airing. Thousands of people waited hours to have their possessions appraised, and starting Monday evening, viewers can see some of the highlights of the show's visit to the Duke Energy Convention Center. Tana Weingartner sits down with the show's executive producer, Marsha Bemko, to get a few hints on what to look for as well as some items that just didn't make the cut. Cincinnati will be featured in three episodes of Antiques Roadshow on April 1, April 8 and April 15.

Alexandra Horowitz, author of the New York Times bestseller Inside of a Dog, has recently published a fascinating look at the world around us with the help of additional sets of eyes. On Looking: Eleven Walks with Expert Eyes recounts 11 walks, mostly through her New York neighborhood, accompanied by a different expert: geologist, urban sociologist, sound designer, child, and others. She details what they see and what they hear, and how that's different than what she sees and hears. She's on the phone with Thane Maynard to talk about this fascinating experiment and ultimately what she learns from it. She also mentions a study of human-dog play that is accepting videos through Sunday night.
