

BUSINESS/ECONOMICS

4th QUARTER 2016

OCTOBER

10/06- Sharp Hospital Nurses Contract Negotiations: TRT 1:58

Nurses with Sharp Health Care in San Diego say contract negotiations could lead to a strike. Fox 5 talked to both sides of the negotiations.

10/10- Hollywood Casino Grand Opening- TRT: 1:30

A new $400 million casino opened today in the far East county --- amid years of opposition from residents and even politicians.

10/11—Yahoo blocking users trying to forward emails – TRT 0:20

Yahoo could be trying to keep its users from jumping ship. People say the company won't let them forward emails to a different account.

10/12— Mike Dee out as Padres CEO – TRT 1:30

A major move off the field by the Padres today announcing the departure of team president Mike Dee.

10/18 – Chargers Measure C Discussion – 1:45

Sharon Chen reported on the press conference where the Chargers and Mayor stumped for the team's downtown stadium ballot measure.

10/20 – Home Prices Rising – TRT: 0:25

Home values here in San Diego County continue to outpace the rest of the nation – and so do rent prices, with median values of $519,000 and $2,400 respectively.

10/21— Avocado Shortage— TRT 1:50

Avocados are also in short supply. And it's so bad some restaurants are having to cut it from their menus altogether.

NOVEMBER

11/03– Prop 64 Recreational Marijuana meeting - TRT 1:30

Local business leaders tonight are speaking out against Proposition 64, saying the approval of non-medical marijuana could cost you cash.

11/04– Jobs added in October– TRT 0:20

More jobs were added in October. The labor department' says 161-thousand jobs were added. That's a solid gain, marking the 73rd consecutive month of job gains.

11/11 – Plastic Bag Ban Update – 1:45

Coverage of the impact the recently passed, and already in place, ban on single-use plastic bags by large local retailers is having on shoppers

11/16–Snapchat files for IPO– TRT 0:20

Snapchat files their paperwork for an IPO. The company estimates their worth is $25 million dollars. The app could go public in March.

11/18- Trump University Hearing – TRT: 2:10

A $25 million payout, to settle three lawsuits against Donald Trump and the now defunct Trump University, was decided today in court. It was a surprise move, because throughout the case, Trump vowed not to settle.

11/18– Car Sharing Service Leaving San Diego – TRT: 0:25

The car sharing service Car2Go announced today it is putting the brakes on its service here in San Diego and will close by the end of the year.

11/20- KXTL Norcal Snow – TRT: 1:55

Business is good at a Northern California ski slope and restaurant right before Thanksgiving because of the recent snow storm.

11/22– Starbucks raises prices– TRT :19

Getting ready to fork over some more cash at Starbucks.

DECEMBER

12/06– SeaWorld layoffs -- TRT 1:44

SeaWorld is cutting hundreds of positions at its 12 parks across the country, including here in San Diego.

12/07– Snuggie sues Amazon – TRT :19

The maker of the snuggie blanket -- is suing Amazon over counterfeit claims.

12/08- Chargers Possibly Leaving San Diego Talk – TRT: 1:43

A Los Angeles sportscaster tweeted about the Chargers, saying there's a 99% chance they're leaving San Diego for LA. It's a tweet got a lot of attention, and has fans wondering.

12/12– DOW JONES NEARS 20 THOUSAND TRT: 20

12/13 – Chargers Stadium Lease – TRT: 1:30

The city of San Diego is now offering the Chargers what appears to be a steal of a deal, leasing the Qualcomm Stadium site for $1 a year.

12/14 – Chargers Move to LA Debt Waiver – 2:30

Troy Hirsch and Jaime Chambers covered the announcement by the NFL that the team can take on additional debt and the city's reaction to the announcement.

12/14—Alaska Virgin merger complete– TRT 0:25

Alaska airlines has closed a deal to buy Virgin America, which will now make it the 5th largest airline carrier in the U.S.

12/16—Airlines ditch change fees on flights – TRT 0:20

American, Delta, Southwest, and United are all letting people change their plans at no charge, due to the harsh weather

12/18– VISTA POWERBALL MILLIONAIRE – :15

Someone in Vista is holding a million dollar Powerball lottery ticket. It was sold at a 7/eleven store matching all five out of six numbers. The winner has six months to claim their prize.