Colorado Inside Out Topic 1	October 18th, 2019 - Aurora Ballot Error	The second, corrected version of the Aurora municipal ballot is in the mail. Some of Aurora's initial ballots erroneously stated that voters could only vote for 1 candidate in the At-Large race, when in fact they can vote for 2. Aurora's election day is Tuesday, November 5th.	Dominic Dezzutti, Patty Calhoun, David Kopel, Melanie Asmar, Wendy Howell
Colorado Inside Out Topic 2	October 18th, 2019 - Study Shows Oil &amp; Gas Harm Up to 2,000 Feet Away	A study funded by the Colorado government found that short term exposure up to 2,000 feet away from oil and gas drilling sites puts humans at risk for health problems like nausea and headaches.	Dominic Dezzutti, Patty Calhoun, David Kopel, Melanie Asmar, Wendy Howell
Colorado Inside Out Topic 3	October 18th, 2019 - $1.3 million Spent in Denver School Board Races to Date	We are 3 weeks out from the election and spending in the Denver School Board races has topped $1.3 million. Pro "reform" groups and candidates outpace their teacher union-backed rivals. The one exception is candidate Scott Baldermann who has spent over $300,000 of his own cash in an attempt to win the southeast district seat.	Dominic Dezzutti, Patty Calhoun, David Kopel, Melanie Asmar, Wendy Howell
Colorado Inside Out Topic 4	October 18th, 2019 - US Senate Primary Democrats Want More Contrast	Candidates in the Democrat primary for US Senate are venting frustrations about party rules on candidate forums. This week, in reporting from the Denver Post, at least 6 of the 8 candidates said they want to be able to draw distinctions between themselves and their primary opponents, rather than being mandated to only talk about themselves.	Dominic Dezzutti, Patty Calhoun, David Kopel, Melanie Asmar, Wendy Howell

Colorado Inside Out Topic 1	November 1, 2019 - Election 2019: Prop CC and Prop DD	Tuesday is Election Day and there are some important statewide initiatives on the ballot. Prop CC would allow the state to retain any tax revenue in surplus of the expected amount. Prop DD would tax casinos and use the money for undefined 'water developments.'	Dominic Dezzutti, Patty Calhoun, Michael Fields, Eric Sondermann, Natasha Gardner
Colorado Inside Out Topic 2	November 1, 2019 - Election 2019: Municipal and School Board Elections	There are a lot of municipal elections on Tuesday's ballot as well. With the recent passage of the local control bill, they are more contested than ever. Meanwhile, school board races on the ballot are just as contested as they usually are: Pro-charter school candidates and Pro-traditional public school candidates are competing hard for last-minute voters.	Dominic Dezzutti, Patty Calhoun, Michael Fields, Eric Sondermann, Natasha Gardner
Colorado Inside Out Topic 3	November 1, 2019 - Congress Passes Colorado Outdoor Recreation and Economy Act; Republicans Oppose	This week, Congress passed the Colorado Outdoor Recreation and Economy Act. The act would establish approximately 400,000 acres in Colorado as wilderness, recreation, and conservation areas. Colorado Republicans voted against the measure, Senator Cory Gardner does not support the bill in its current form, and Pres. Trump has said he will veto the bill if it is passed by the Senate.	Dominic Dezzutti, Patty Calhoun, Michael Fields, Eric Sondermann, Natasha Gardner

Colorado Inside Out Topic 1	November 8, 2019 - Election 2019 Review: Proposition CC Fails, Proposition DD Passes	After a very late start to their campaign, the proponents of Prop CC lost on Tuesday. The TABOR issue is expected to be on the ballot again in 2020. Meanwhile, Prop DD, which had the advantage of a well-funded, bipartisan campaign, did pass, but perhaps not with as much support as expected.	Dominic Dezzutti, Patty Calhoun, David Kopel, Eric Sondermann, Josh Downey
Colorado Inside Out Topic 2	November 8, 2019 - Election 2019 Review: Progressives Take Control of Aurora City Council, Coffman Likely Mayor	Aurora races were so close that it took two full days until the winners were projected. Non-incumbents, Juan Marcano and Alison Coombs, pulled ahead in their city council races when the final votes were counted. Former Congressman Mike Coffman is the likely winner of the mayoral race, but only has a 500 vote lead over progressive Omar Montgomery, with over 1,000 ballots to be cured.	Dominic Dezzutti, Patty Calhoun, David Kopel, Eric Sondermann, Josh Downey
Colorado Inside Out Topic 3	November 8, 2019 - Election 2019 Review: Teacher Union Candidates Win Denver School Board Races	One of the rallying cries during the latest Denver teacher strike was 'flip the board.' The teachers' union along with pro neighborhood school advocates saw an opportunity in 2019 to win back the majority of the school board for the first time in years. On Tuesday, they succeeded. Union-endorsed candidates Tay Anderson, Brad Laurvick, and Scott Balderman won their contests.	Dominic Dezzutti, Patty Calhoun, David Kopel, Eric Sondermann, Josh Downey
Colorado Inside Out Topic 4	November 8, 2019 - Election 2019 Review: Anti-Oil and Gas Slate Takes Over Broomfield Council	The new local control bill heated up local elections across the region, with mixed results. But in one municipality, the voters' mandate was clear: outspoken anti-oil and gas candidates swept the Broomfield city council elections.	Local control, oil and gas, Broomfield
