GM says there are latches missing on Chevrolet Colorado and GM Canyons from 2010 to 2012. The company says owners can start checking for the secondary latches or take the trucks to a dealer. GM will start notifying drivers next month.
5. NewsChannel 3 at Noon, December 18, 2012, Length: :25 Make sure you check what's under the Christmas tree. There's a recall for a toy called "water balz" the toy absorbs water and can expand to 400-times their original size. That's big trouble if a kid swallows one. There's also a recall on other varieties of the toy - including "growing skulls" - "h-2ho-orbs" and "fabulous flowers." This voluntary recall happened after a baby needed surgery to remove it after ingesting last year.
