Faith & Family	Closer Look	Sep 25	7:15	15 minutes	'Call-In' Bible Studies Connect To Faith And Friendship (K-LOVE Closer Look) - When COVID-19 forced churches to close and halted even small social gatherings, Christians continued to crave interaction with fellow believers. Soldiers For Faith Ministries launched 'call-in' bible studies back in 2012, but stay-at-home orders in 2020 crystalized the ministry purpose and mission. "When the pandemic hit," says founder Kelly McAndrew, "all of a sudden we understood what God had prepared us for."
Families Adoption	Closer Look	Sep 4	7:00 pm	28 minutes	Real Talk On Adoption - Thoughts On Trauma, Dignity and Birth Parents Children separated from their biological mothers will inevitably grieve that loss. "That's trauma, when we lose our first family," says Jenn Hook co-founder of Replanted Ministry . Hook spent years counseling foster children as a mental health professional. "We're not always looking at it from the adoptee's side," she warns, for example, repeatedly calling one's adoption a 'gift' can unintentionally hurt your child. Vanessa Joy Walker is an author and lifecoach who was herself adopted as a baby. "The issues of identity and abandonment are interwoven into who I am, they are part of what I call my emotional DNA." Billie Branham reports.

Families - Foster Care Adoption	K-LOVE's Positive People	Aug-Sep	Monthly Feature	60 second weekly promo Podcast	Lauren & Tony Dungy - Using Your Influence To Bless Others; One Example Is Foster Care, Adoption Tony Dungy is well-known in the world of football, but you may not be aware that Tony and wife Lauren have been setting an impressive example for foster care and adoption. "It's been a rewarding experience," shares Lauren, "we've been fostering for over 30 years and currently we have three children in our care. And, along with the fostering, we have adopted children as well. We have eight kids under-our-roof that are adopted - ages 21 to 6 - (she smiles), so it's been a busy household, but we enjoy it. It's a blessing, and we believe that we're being obedient to God's calling on our lives." The Dungys believe it's critically important to say 'yes' to God, when you're convinced it's God calling you. Their life experiences with fostering and adoption, as well as marriage and serving God, are detailed in their new jointly-written book "Uncommon Influence: Saying Yes to a Purposeful Life." Tony explains, "We just think that Christianity - people can say 'it's weird,' people can say it's different, but Jesus said, 'We go down a narrow road,' and the path is not the broad path that the whole world is on. So, we choose to look at that as not weird or different...but, uncommon . That's the first word in the book title. As for the second word: influence , "We wanted to let people know that they can have an influence in their world in a lot of different ways." Learn some

Special Needs	K-LOVE's Positive People	Aug - Sep	Monthly Feature	60 second weekly promo Podcast 13:58	Iowa Mom Helps Kids With Special Needs Play Sports, Have Fun Melissa Clarke-Wharff wanted her son Jack who is disabled to have fun like other kids his age. So, Melissa began Can Play , an organization that lets kids with health and special needs issues play sports and have lots of fun. Jack suffered six strokes when he was just 8 years old, which left his left him with cognitive delays, partial paralysis and 'limited ability to play.' Can Play gives kids like Jack "a place that they can come, be themselves, learn about their bodies and what their bodies can do." Melissa says families are often told how their kids will not be able to do certain things. But with Can Play, they show kids they 'can do it,' no matter what. Melissa says it has been "awe inspiring" to see Jack work to overcome his challenges. She admits getting her strength from Jack, looking at the confidence and inspiration he conveys despite his physical setbacks. "You can do this, stay strong," says Jack. He reminds others even he had bad days, but to keep working hard at what they do and to "never give up."
