Love Worth Finding	8/30/2018	9:30 AM	Religious Liberties/Discrimination	Adrian Rogers shared biblical principles for Christians in how they live in the world. He explained that those who live for Jesus Christ and believe the gospel, are going to face discrimination and be looked upon as a fool by this world. He also gave encouragement for those who are persecuted for their faith.	25:00
SRN News	8/31/2018	Top of Hour Newscast	Civil Liberties	President Donald Trump told a campaign-style rally in Indiana on Thursday that his administration is standing up for free-speech rights, warning that large social media companies could not be allowed to "control what we can and cannot see."	0:30
Weekend Connection	9/1/2018	4:02 PM	Healthcare	The Director of Faith-based programs for the Cancer Treatment Centers of America discusses the Our Journey of Hope cancer care leadership training for the local church. This ministry training program was created because of the significant need in our nation, as well as in the body of Christ, to care for those dealing with cancer. According to the American Cancer Society, over 12 million people in the United States are living with or have been personally diagnosed with cancer. Every year, 1.5 million more people receive a cancer diagnosis.  That means that in a church of 200 people, approximately eight people are living with cancer and two more will be diagnosed with it every year. Each of these individuals has family members and caregivers that are affected as well. This Bible-based ministry training program has been developed to equip God's people with the tools needed to bring hope to the millions who are living with cancer.	15:00

This Apologetics and Discipleship Ministry recently worked with the Barna Research Group to identify and interpret the characteristics that shape the worldview of Generation Z teens. Dr. Morrow discusses those findings and how they should impact Christian outreach to today's teens.	15:00
Unshackled!	9/9/2018	11:00 PM	Religious Liberties/Discrimination	After winning a Gold Medal in the 1925 Olympics, Eric Liddell returned to northern China to serve as a missionary like his parents. He marries Florence Mackenzie and they have three daughters. In 1941, the advancing Japanese army presses Liddell and his family to flee to a rural mission station. In 1943, the Japanese reach the mission and Liddell is interned in a prison camp. Aggravated by the shortage of food and medical treatment, Liddell develops a brain tumor and suffers severe ill-health. Many camp internees attest to the strong moral character of Liddell. He was seen as a great unifying force and helped to ease tensions through his selflessness, impartiality and faith.	28:00
Building Blocks for the Family	9/11/2018	2:30 PM	Homeland Security	Guest speaker Cynthia Heald speaks on the topic of learning from 09/11.	28:00
