

LOWCOUNTRY FOREVER SHOW RECAP:

WSPO-AM

SUNDAY:6A

SEGMENT ONE:

SHOW DATE: 01/07/2024

FEATURED ORGANIZATION: YWCA Greater Charleston

GUEST: LaVanda Brown, Executive Director

ISSUE: Race

SUMMARY: The celebration of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. in Charleston is one of the oldest, and longest running in our nation. The Charleston YWCA's LaVanda Brown explained the reasons behind their honoring of Dr. King started in 1972. Brown discussed how the dream of Dr. King is celebrating today, and shared her thoughts on the younger generation and how they look at Dr. King and his work today. Brown also broke down the elements included in this year's celebration of Dr. King, including the annual parade which is conducted on the day of the federal holiday and provided information on how people could get involved.

SEGMENT TWO:

SHOW DATE: 01/07/2024

FEATURED ORGANIZATION: U.S. Department of Agriculture

GUEST: Col. Myles Caggins, Windsor Group LLC

ISSUE: Discrimination

SUMMARY: Over the past few decades, minority farmers have been discriminated against by the United States government. The U.S. Department of Agriculture has admitted this discrimination and has a program in place to right the wrongs it causes. Col. Myles Caggins works with the Windsor Group LLC, hired by the USDA to make farmers aware of the program. Col. Caggins explained the ways that farmers were discriminated against and how the Discrimination Financial Assistance Program works. The Colonel provided the ways that farmers may apply to receive compensation, if they do so before January 15, 2024.