

LOWCOUNTRY FOREVER SHOW RECAP:

WSPO-AM

SUNDAY:6A

SEGMENT ONE:

SHOW DATE: 02/25/2024

FEATURED ORGANIZATION: Sunflowers of HOPE

GUEST: Sonia Hanson, Founder and CEO

ISSUE: Community Service

SUMMARY: An organization founded to provide hope to those in need, is expanding services in the Lowcountry. Sonia Hanson founded Sunflowers of HOPE to help people in our area struggling on a day-to-day basis. Hanson shared the inspiration behind creating Sunflowers of HOPE, and how she named her nonprofit. She explained specific ways the organization is impacting the community in a positive way. And, also shared details on "Day of Hope," an event she has teamed with the City of North Charleston to host. Hanson provided specifics on what would be offered at the Day of Hope and how individuals would be able to take advantage of the event.

SEGMENT TWO:

SHOW DATE: 02/25/2024

FEATURED ORGANIZATION: Fairways Fore Heroes

GUEST: Jon Gilmore, Tournament Organizer

ISSUE: Veterans and Military Assistance

SUMMARY: Mission First, People Always is the motto of the Heart of a Lion Foundation. The 2024 Fairways Fore Heroes Golf Tournament is being held to benefit the Heart of a Lion Foundation. Staff Sargeant USMC/Retired Wounded Warrior Jon Gilmore is the organizer of this inaugural tournament and discussed his service to our nation and how he was looking to help his fellow veterans. Gilmore explained the connection to the Heart of a Lion

Foundation and how individuals and businesses in the area can get involved with the tournament and provide veterans the opportunity to participate.